MOTION TO DISMISS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County. Nick Cleek, Plaintiff, vs. Bessie Cleek Defendant.

Now comes the plaintiff in person and moves the court that the above entitled suit be dismissed on the ground and for the reason,

1. That the plaintiff and defendant have fully settled all of their difficulties and disagreements herein, and have decided to continue living together as husband and wife.

2. That since the complaint was filed herein, the plaintiff has learned that the allegations contained therein against his wife were gossip, and untrue; and after full investigation plaintiff has learned that the defendant has not been guilty of any breach of her marriage contract, but as been a faithful wife.

3. The allegations contained in the complaint regarding the defendant being careless and negligent about the house were made by plaintiff in a moment of anger, whereas the facts are that the defendant was operated upon last fall or appendicitis and has been ill a portion of the time since then, but has performed all the work that one could expect of a wife after such an operation.

Plaintiff further moves that the above entitled case be dismissed without costs to either party.
