Complimenting Miss Mary Ritter, who has spent the summer and fall months in Eugene and who is leaving next week for her home in Hutchinson, Kansas, a group of matrons gathered at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Beylert for a farewell surprise party Thursday afternoon. The home was prettily decorated with dahlias cleverly combined with the fluffy blossoms of fall chrysanthemums. Fortune telling and the presentation of impromptu stunts proved to be the most popular diversions of the afternoon, and at six o'clock the guests were seated around a table centerpiece with a golden pumpkin cut into a grinning jack o' lantern, from whose head bloomed dahlias and chrysanthemums. The table was graced with sprays of brilliant colored autumn leaves strewn over its snowy cover of linen, and trencherous witches marked the names of the guests to whom a delectable luncheon was served. Late in the evening all best wishes were extended to the guest of honor by her friends, who were Mrs. Mary Franz, Mrs. Amanda Pearl, Mrs. Angelina Large, Mrs. Elizabeth Farris, Mrs. Elsie Brown, Mrs. Sophia Hewitt, Mrs. Martha Laebke and Mrs. Elizabeth Beylert.

Ladies' Day at the country club will be held Wednesday afternoon. Sewing and cards will be the diversion of those who prefer to be indoors, while the more active members will play golf. Hostesses for the day are Mrs. Harry Holden, Mrs. Chester Stevenson and Mrs. Fred Stickels.

The Woman's Benefit association of the Macabees held an interesting meeting last evening. Deputy Supreme Commander Mrs. Wilson and State Commander Pauline Riley being present. A large class was initiated, after which the members from the Springfield chapter served delicious refreshments.

The young women of the Junior college of the Eugene Bible University spent an enjoyable evening Friday at a Halloween party at their home, which was gayly festooned in appropriate decorations for the affair. Stunts and games formed the evening's fun.

Mrs. George Gerlinger, of Portland, regent of the University, is the weekend guest of President and Mrs. Campbell, coming to Eugene primarily to attend the meeting of the Board of Regents held last evening. Mrs. Gerlinger will also be entertained at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, of which her daughter is a pledge.

The local Woman's Temperance Union is urging the attendance of all members of the union and the general public at a meeting called at the First Baptist church, corner of Eighth and Pearl streets, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Morris Cleaves, one of southern California's state evangelists, will give a recital, assisted by Mrs. Dunham. The affair will be in the form of a silver tea.

No Blackening Required

If there is any one point that housewives enthuse most over when telling their neighbors of their Wedgewood Range, it is the oven. The Wedgewood is a perfect baker. The stove is designed with this end in mind. The very fact that the Wedgewood is electrically welded contributes largely to its baking qualities.

From an economy standpoint the Wedgewood has always been a leader. The firebox is of ample size, yet is so constructed that a very minimum of fuel gets a maximum of heat. The smooth finish of this high grade range makes it easily cared for and adds to the attractiveness of any kitchen.

Attractive Heaters—Low Priced

The low price of Wedgewood Heating Stoves instantly attracts your attention. But even more than that is the good appearance of the various heaters displayed on our second floor. All sizes are represented. The small ones for the halls or the bedroom, larger ones for the living room. Prices are lower here, ranging from $2.75 to $25.00.
