

W O R T H

CLOTHES OF EXTRAORDINARY WORTH AT A PRICE QUITE ORDINARY IS THE MANNER EMPLOYED BY US TODAY IN DEMONSTRATING THE VALUE OF THE KAY-BAC DOUBLE-BREADED MODEL.

CUSTOM SERVICE WITHOUT THE ANNOYANCE OF A TRY-ON READY-TO-PUT-ON TAILORED AT FASHION PARK

Green Merrell Co. men's wear 713 Willamette St. "one of Eugene's best stores"

CITY NEWS

Mrs. Hendricks Has Guests—Mr. and Mrs. Ross Thanner of Portland were the house guests of Mrs. T. G.

Hendricks over the week-end. Mr. Plummer is a former Oregon student.

Men Go Hunting—John Hinzker, local architect and Jim Murray, left yesterday for Siletos lake where they will hunt until the latter part of the week.

Trapper in Town—C. E. Anway, a trapper and hunter who resides near Oakridge, is spending the week in town on business and visiting with friends.

Snow on Pass—There's 10 inches of snow on McKenzie pass, according to Charles Swartz, of the Lost Creek ranch, who was a visitor in Eugene over the week-end.

From Roseburg—Miss Vera Hoffmann, recently here from Eugene to make her home is spending a few days in Eugene visiting with friends.—Roseburg News-Review.

Dallas Man Here—R. G. Baidaree of Dallas is in town for several weeks on business and pleasure combined.

Return to Bandon—C. D. Jarman and son Donald returned last evening to their home in Bandon after spending the week-end visiting here with Mr. Jarman's daughter, Dorothy, who attends the University.

Corvallis People Here—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Blackburn of Corvallis left for their home last evening after visiting over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Prunk of this city.

Attend Turkey Shoot—Orlo Hendershott, William Branstetter and Al Cook attended the turkey shoot at Cottage Grove yesterday and brought several of the birds home for Thanksgiving.

Medford Men Leave—Vernon Vawter, Olin Arnspeker and Dr. Thayer, all prominent residents of Medford, left last night for home after spending the week-end in Eugene attending the Homecoming festivities.

Will Return Tuesday—Earl McNair, who is here from Bandon visiting with friends, expects to return to his home town Tuesday. Mr. McNair came out for the annual University Homecoming. He is a former Oregon student.

Has Tonsils Removed—Clare Whitley returned this morning to her home in Cottage Grove after having her tonsils removed at the Northwest hospital Saturday.

Dales Return From California—Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dale and baby have returned from California where they have been sojourning for the past three weeks in San Francisco and other interesting points.

Gerlingers Drive Back—Mr. and Mrs. George Gerlinger of Portland left yesterday afternoon for their home after spending the week-end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell of this city.

Here for Institute—J. S. Landers, president of the Oregon State Normal school at Monmouth, is in Eugene where he appears on the program of the teachers' institute opening today.

Corvallis People Leave—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pengra of Corvallis who came up for the football game Saturday were the guests of Mrs. Edith Beckus until last evening when they left for home.

Tourists at Beverly Hills—Tourists have been received by friends of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Souders who left here last month for California and Arizona for the winter, that they are sojourning at Beverly Hills, Cal. This week and have had fine weather so far.

Brownsville Resident in Town—Mrs. Harold Stevenson of Brownsville spent the past two days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stevenson leaving last evening for Albany. Mrs. Stevenson was formerly Miss Dorothy B. Miller, a graduate of the University last year.

S. P. Officials Here—Among railroad officials who handled the big crowds on the Southern Pacific were L. L. Graham, agent at Corvallis, and W. H. Jenkins, traveling passenger agent, of Portland.

Market Open Wednesday—To accommodate the Thanksgiving trade the public market will be open Wednesday. Special effort of the vendors in farm produce will be directed toward furnishing articles that people need for the national holiday dinner.

Visit Selo Relatives—Mrs. Florence Luther and two granddaughters of Eugene spent the morning in Albany while on their way to Eugene to visit at the home of Mrs. Luther's daughter Mrs. C. C. Davis.—Albany Herald.

Hillsboro People Here—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Taggart of Hillsboro drove home last evening after spending the week-end visiting with their daughter who is attending the University here. They also have a son who plays on the O. A. C. football team.

Paint Gang at Work—The Southern Pacific paint gang has arrived in the city and everything from warehouse roofs to scratched office fixtures is getting a new coat of paint. The railroad painters make regular visits to Eugene.

Dorothy Dunway Leaves—Miss Dorothy Dunway left for her home in Portland last evening after spending Homecoming at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house. Miss Dunway is a member of the staff of the Morning Oregonian and graduated from the University in '20.

Visit in Springfield—Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Epps went to Springfield, Lane county, for a brief visit with their daughter and sister, Miss Martha Williamson, head of the department of home economics in the Springfield high school. They planned to attend the football game at Eugene.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Visits Home Folks—Albert Skelton motored up from Eugene last night for a brief visit at the home of his parents, Prof. and Mrs. G. V. Skelton, and family. He returned to the University for the game this afternoon but will motor back to Corvallis tonight to spend Sunday with home folks.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Funeral to Be Wednesday—The funeral of Fred H. Johnson will be held from Central hall near Crow on Wednesday, Nov. 23 at 10:30 a. m. Rev. W. H. L. Marshall of the Congregational church will have charge of the services and interment will be made in the Lyle cemetery. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Marion Veach.

Mrs. Lilvard Returns—Mrs. W. E. Lilvard returned to her home in Portland last evening after spending the past week visiting with her mother, Mrs. Hanna Hendershott, of this city. She recently returned from California where she sojourned for several weeks.

Return to Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Campbell and daughter Helen, after visiting over Homecoming with George S. Tarshull, returned Sunday morning to their home in Portland. Mr. Campbell, who was formerly assistant managing editor of the Portland Telegram, is now editor and publisher of a daily newspaper at Vancouver, Wash.

Portland People Here—Mr. and Mrs. MacMaster, Mr. and Mrs. White and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grey, all of Portland, were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Swartz over Saturday and Sunday. The men are all former members of the Delta Theta Gamma and former students of the University.

Convention Adjourns—The Christian convention in session

Important Tomorrow—42-Inch Indian Head Tubing 39c.—A fortunate purchase enables us to offer another limited quantity of Genuine Indian Head Tubing at a new lower price—39c a yard. This is a standard quality, and we will fill mail and phone orders.

Thanksgiving

Madeira and Satin Damask Linens for the Thanksgiving Table Lowered in Price

A hand-embroidered design rich in simplicity and captivating in its daintiness. Surely all lovers of fine Madeira linens will revel in these interestingly pretty and interestingly priced Madeira linens.

- Centerpieces in a Pretty New Pattern $2.25 to $16.50
Doilies in Pretty Pattern 35c to $1.00
Oval Doilies Offer Much Daintiness at 75c to $2.25

MADEIRA LUNCHEON SETS, $9.00
The round thread Irish linen presented in these gives just the rich, soft background that the hand work needs to make it stand out to best advantage.

Irish Linen Satin Damask, $5.00 and $6.00 Yard
The aristocrat of table linens—the choicest of the choicest—the fitting linen for the perfectly appointed table.

Irish Linen Napkins $11.50 Dozen
Irish Linen Pattern Cloths at Decided Savings
Finest Irish Linen Cloths and Napkins

Wonderful New Taffeta Silks of very finest qualities. Our regular $2.50 to $4.50 grades, in all evening shades, in a big lot at $1.75 yard.

Eugene's Greatest Silk Sale a Tremendous Thanksgiving Clearance of All Silks
36-Inch Taffeta Silk $2.50 to $4.75 Values, at, Yd., $1.75.

40-Inch Crepe de Chines—Very Special $1.75 Yard
40-Inch Georgette Crepes—All Colors Special $1.59 Yard

Mesalines and Satin de Chines $2.00 and $3.50 Grades $1.39 Yard
Men's and Boys' All Wool Clothing in a Big Thanksgiving Sale at Clearance Prices

Men's All Wool Overcoats $19.50
Men's All Wool SSuits at $22.50

Boys' All Wool Suits at $7.95
No Matter Where You Shop—Shop Early

McMorran & Washburne Store Eugene's Popular Priced Store

Mail Orders Filled The Day Order is Received. All Goods Shipped Prepaid.

LARGE'S

Smart New Silk Umbrellas

For Women At Holiday Prices

A fine silk rainproof umbrella such as any one of these clear styles we are showing is something that is indispensable for the rainy season.

Their ringed or strapped handles, chic stubbiness of build and gay colors make them a distinct part of one's wardrobe.

Special holiday prices. $4.95 to $11.75

LARGE'S

THIS LABEL

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

A SMALL GUIDE TO LOOK for, a big thing to find. WADES'