SEATS ON SALE AT HAUSER BROS.

Y MEMBERS TO DINE, SING AND PLAY TUES.

A banquet, speaking, singing and playing ball games are the main features of the Y. M. C. A. annual meeting, which will take place Tuesday evening. The committee, which perfected plans last evening, is determined to make this one of the liveliest and most interesting of the year. Work of the past year will be reviewed and plans for the coming year discussed.

"Jim" Palmer, of the Portland Y. M. C. A., who is said to be one of the ablest, most enthusiastic speakers in the state, will lead the singing and address the assembly. An unusual and particularly enjoyable feature of the meeting will be the presence of ladies at the banquet table.

After the banquet, which will be served at 6:15, there will be a volley ball game between the business men's team of Salem and a similar one from Eugene. Also a basketball game between a fast Salem team and the local Cougars. These games will be open to the general public and all are cordially invited to attend.

PLEAS FOR STUDENTS OF ADVANCING CHINA

"The students of China today are the true heart of the nation," said Mrs. Murray Scott Frame, acting president of the Yenching Women's college at Nanking, China, in an address given University of Oregon students at the regular assembly today.

"The whole life of the Chinese student is given to his country, and these men and women who have been fortunate enough to gain an education are looked upon as leaders," continued Mrs. Frame.

"But the crying need of China is for more of these student leaders, and that is why the colleges, especially the women's colleges, need the co-operation and help of their sister colleges here in America."

Mrs. Frame, who is touring the country on behalf of the seven women's colleges of China, says that the United States is greatly interested in China, and especially the Chinese schools. An address to the women of the University will be given at 5 today at the Y. W. C. A. but, and tonight, Mrs. Frame will speak at the Presbyterian church.

EUGENE EMPORIUM

EXCLUSIVE LADIES WEARING APPAREL

EMPORIUM

825 Willamette Street

Women's Clubs, Social, Personal

By MARY ELLEN MOORE

CLUB ITEMS SHOULD BE PHONED IN TO THE SOCIETY EDITOR BETWEEN 10 A. M. AND 12 M.—TELEPHONE NUMBER 1200

An unlimited number of sandwiches, excellent music, which insure the success of any dancing party, will be the features of the Eugene Country Club dance at the club house Friday evening, according to the committee in charge. The affair will be very informal and all members are most cordially invited to join in the evening of merrymaking. Each lady is asked to bring as many sandwiches as she thinks ten men can consume, so that there will be plenty for her partner and herself.

The Catholic ladies of St. Mary's Altar Guild will meet Friday at 2:30 in the parish hall.

Mrs. S. Ensey, 1943 Onyx street will entertain the members of the D. Y. O. S. at her home Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

Mrs. Earl H. Zeller with her two children, Ruth and Marian, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zeller. Mrs. Zeller is from White Salmon and will be in Eugene for three or four weeks.

Professor and Mrs. H. M. King are being welcomed by Eugene social circles, having recently arrived from Minneapolis, Minnesota, where they were married December 28. Mrs. King is the only daughter of Reverend and Mrs. S. S. Parley, a prominent family of Minnesota. Professor King is connected with the faculty of the school of architecture of the University. They will be at home at 473 Ninth avenue east during the remainder of the school year.

The ladies of the College Crest Community club met at the club house this afternoon to sew on garments for Armenian children.

Mrs. H. L. Studley entertained the members of the Inter Se club at her home this afternoon.

Old Togs of Chinese Emperor on Display

Twelve Manchurian Mandarin coats and nine skirts will be placed on exhibit in the Alumni hall of the Women's building Friday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock. The collection was made by Mr. and Mrs. Murray Warner while they were traveling in the orient and is being sent by them to the Smithsonian institute where it will be placed among the permanent exhibits of rare Chinese textiles.

Two of the coats were the personal property of the old emperor and his dowager. Before Mrs. Warner sent the exhibit to the Smithsonian institute she was asked by the faculty of the art school of the university to allow the people of Eugene an opportunity to see them.

FREE DANCE TONIGHT NEW STAGE TERMINAL

It won't cost a cent to shake your foot tonight at the new Central Stage terminal, corner Seventh avenue west and Olive streets, nor to find out what a stage terminal looks like and how it differs from the end of a stage. A preliminary peep into the spacious waiting room creates a very favorable impression, for in addition to plenty of room and light there are all sorts of places for procuring creature comforts, such as a grocery store, confectionery, drugstore, florist, barber, bootblack, pressery, clothes cleaner, check room, restaurant, meat market, transfer, and taxi cab stand.

An orchestra has been hired to furnish the juiciest and jazziest music on the market. The Eugene Transfer company will serve free punch.

The public is invited to come at 8:30 o'clock and stay as long as they like. The reception committee is as follows: W. W. White, Pete Burr, Walter Hoffman, W. A. Ruth and W. L. Christensen.

VETERANS PUHOLD OPIE AT HEARING

Smith, who has been taking hospital treatment for nervousness since the war, admitted that the statement in his letter to the committee that he had been decorated by the French and American governments, was erroneous.

A stormy scene was narrowly averted when Senator Watson, Georgia, protested what he called "bullragging of the witness" by officers.

The officer Watson referred to was Colonel John A. Hutchins, counsel for Major Opie, who had been cross-examining Smith. The witness' testimony did not agree with a letter which he had previously sent the committee. In this letter, Smith said he was not inside the dugout when the alleged shooting occurred.

"That letter is wrong," Smith swore, "I was in the dugout and saw Opie shoot."

Collins, Ellison and Askew named as witnesses of the killing by Smith, took the stand and denied they saw the alleged shooting.

"I knew Smith, but was never with him in France," Ellison said. "I never saw Opie shoot a man."

Edward Dunner on Stand.

Edward Dunner, 18 Market street, San Francisco, testified he saw John Fitzgerald, Pennsylvania soldier, shot down by a sergeant named Cooper in a prison camp at Bassens, France. "Fitzgerald got back in the mess line and asked for a second piece of bread," Dunner said. "Sergeant Cooper walked up, took a gun from a sentry and shot him down. I picked him up."

The sergeant and sentry were both drunk, Dunner charged. The witness said the day following the shooting a "Colonel Levinsky" came and asked all men who saw the shooting to step forward.

"About a dozen stepped out and the next day we were put on bread and water," Dunner declared. "The sergeant who killed Fitzgerald never was tried."

Runner came from San Francisco at his own expense.

"I came for the sake of my buddies lying in the hospitals," he declared.

"I want the people of the United States to know the truth about the army."

The several hundred spectators in the room clapped and cheered when Dunner shouted "I'm 100 per cent American; I guess there's only a few of us left."

GIRL'S STATEMENT WILL HELP EUGENE

Many women will profit by the following statement of one of their sex: "I was afraid to eat on account of stomach trouble. Even rice did not agree. After taking Adler's I can eat anything. Adler's acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing food matter which poisons stomach. EXCELLENT for gas on the stomach or sour stomach. Guards against appendicitis. It brings out poisonous matter you never thought was in your system." Allen's Drug store, 861 Ninth avenue east.
