

Quick Clearance Prices on Women's Fine
Blanket Bath Robes

at 25% Off

Every robe included in this sweeping clearance—made of superior quality Beacon Blanket Cloth. Attractive color designs, fancy cords and ribbon trimmed.

LARGE'S

865 WILLAMETTE STREET

CHICAGO GRAIN REVIEW
Chicago, Jan. 13.—Grain prices moved to higher levels during a dull day on the Chicago board of trade today. Professional interest in the market lagged. The advances were due to demand by commission houses. Provisions were higher. May wheat opened at 81.10 3/8, off 1/4 and closed up 1 1/2. July wheat opened at 80 1/8, off 1/4 and closed up 1 cent. May corn opened off 1-8 at 53 3/8 and closed off 1-8. July corn opened at 54 3/4 off 1 1/8 and closed unchanged. May oats opened at 38 1/2 off 1-8 and closed unchanged. July oats opened unchanged at 39 1/8 and closed unchanged.

OCCIDENT FLOUR

Better Results Guaranteed! Try It

QUALITY SERVICE
DICE-SWAN CO.
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCERS

EXTRA SPECIAL
Cyclamen
FREE!

Saturday, January 14

Large Plants—In Large Pots
All In Bloom

We have secured an extra fine lot of these beautiful plants for next Saturday. Actual retail value $1.00 to $1.50.

One Plant Free with $1 Purchase
(Limit one to a customer.)

Phone Us to Save One for You
Don't Fail to Get a Cyclamen

at Eugene's Progressive Drug Store

QUALITY SERVICE
RED CROSS DRUG CO.
Wm. A. Rulph, Prop.
Phone 150 624 Willamette St.

CITY NEWS

Will Address Progressive Club—
Mr. H. P. McArthur will address the Progressive Business Men's club at their noonday luncheon Tuesday.

Appointed Creswell Postmistress—
Ethel N. Everson has been appointed postmistress at Creswell.

Judge in Corvallis—
Judge G. F. Skipworth has gone to Corvallis to hold court in that part of his circuit court district.

On Business in Albany—
Hugh Hampton went to Albany today where he will install an Anderson Dratt regulator on the Hotel Albany.

O. W. Agent Here—
J. H. O'Neill, traveling agent of the O. W. R. & N. railroad, is a business visitor in the city today.

'Hi Y' Club Entertains—
The Hi Y club of the Y. M. C. A. entertained their fathers at supper last evening.

Lebanon Grocer Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Irish of Lebanon are spending a few days in the city. Mr. Irish is manager of Gray's Cash and Carry store in that city.

Rev. McCallum Conducts Revival—
Rev. J. S. McCallum of this city, has gone to Enterprise, Ore., to conduct a two months' series of meetings for the Christian church.

Arranging Stage Transfer—
Edward Lewis of the Central Terminal Station, arrived from Salem last evening and is making arrangements to further improve the station service.

Held Party Tonight—
The high school Sunday school class of the Christian church, said to be the largest of the kind in Eugene, will hold a party tonight in the church parlors.

Pays Parking Fine—
E. D. McAllister was fined $2 for parking his car more than 20 minutes on Eighth avenue west, in Recorder King's court yesterday.

Gene to The Dalles—
Mrs. A. E. Hulegaard has left for The Dalles where she will join her husband and make her future home. Mr. Hulegaard has taken charge of the Standard Oil station there.

Gilbert H. Parker Arrives—
Gilbert H. Parker, news editor of the western division of the Associated Press arrived from San Francisco last night to attend the newspaper conference which opens here today.

Wills $25,000 to Student Fund—
Dean John Straub, of the University of Oregon, announces that a Portland woman has willed $25,000 to the student loan fund. Her name is withheld because it is her wish to avoid publicity.

Throws Away Extra Legs—
John Price, of this city, yesterday threw away his crutches, which had been used on account of a severe case of rheumatism, and is now for the first time in a long while walking without artificial aid.

Savings Bank Reelects Officers—
The Eugene Loan and Savings bank re-elected all their officers, at their annual directors' meeting last night. They are the same as the U. S. National bank, except that Miss M. Ethel Taylor is the only assistant cashier.

River Bottom Land Sold—
Clara Emmons O'Day has sold five acres of river bottom land to E. S. Rolfe, of this city. The tract is located near Dr. J. W. Ford's farm north of the city, where land is valued at $500 to $800 per acre.

Moore and Pratt Form Partnership—
J. K. Moore and J. K. Pratt, insurance agents, have formed a partnership. Mr. Moore, who has moved to Mr. Pratt's office in the U. S. National bank building, will have charge of the life insurance activities of both firms.

Robertson Goes to Junction City—
Neal Robertson, of the R. A. Babbs Hardware company, will soon go to Junction City to take charge of a new store which the company is putting in at that place. W. W. Cummins is in Junction City supervising the reconstruction of the new store.

Rev. Theomer Goes to Marshfield—
Rev. P. L. Theomer, of the Seventh Day Adventist church, goes next week to Coos county to look after the interests of his church there. Elder A. A. Carscadden, a returned missionary from Africa, will have charge of the church here during Rev. Theomer's absence.

Dr. Lansbury's Plan—
Dr. J. J. Lansbury of Eugene, dean of the school of music at the University of Oregon, is in the city. He has been conferring here concerning the state music system. Heads of the certificate classes, this being part of the plan to increase and maintain the standard of the profession.—Oregonian.

Will Restrict Roller Skating—
Roller skating on the sidewalks of Willamette street between the Southern Pacific station and Eleventh avenue and all cross streets between Pearl and Charnelton streets will be strictly prohibited, according to notice given yesterday by Chief of Police Christensen.

Junction W. O. W. Win—
The Junction City Woodmen of the World basketball team won from Company C, national guard, in the local arena last night 25 to 23. The game was fast and closely contested by both sides. The Junction City lads tossed out the guardsman by shooting a few more fouls.

Dog Licenses Due—
Owners of dogs must pay a license fee of $1 for males and $2 for females within the next 30 days under penalty of having them confiscated. The dog license law, which has been under fire since it was passed in 1920, was decided constitutional a few days ago by the state supreme court.

Rifle Team Organized—
A headquarters national guard rifle team is being organized and practice will be started on the future range at the army under the supervision of Supt. Sergeant Art Richards. As there are a number of good shots among the members of headquarters company a team to compete in the state shoot is anticipated.

Ping Pong Contest Begins Monday—
W. P. Walter, boys secretary of the Y. M. C. A., announces a ping pong contest to begin Monday and continue ten days, for the junior and intermediate boys. Games will be played after school hours and the two winners will be given a free trip to Salem to play against winners of similar games there.

Revival Meetings Begin Sunday—
Evangelist W. Graham Walker of Lexington, Ky., will begin a series of revival meetings at the Christian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. He will be assisted by Prof. J. A. Carroll, of Los Angeles, Cal., who will lead the singing and do solo work. Rev. Walker arrived in Eugene yesterday and is getting acquainted with people here today.

Will Hike on Snowshoes Tomorrow—
E. A. Britton, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., will lead a company of hikers to the Lucky Y mine tomorrow, starting at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The party will go by stage to Blue River, 45 miles east, and thence by snowshoes and skis the remaining six miles to the mine. The return trip is to be made Sunday afternoon. The membership of the party will not be confined to the Y. M. C. A., anyone being welcome to go along.

New Manager Arrives—
Archie Grant, the new manager of the Pacific Fruit & Produce company's Eugene house, arrived with his wife and children last evening from Medford, where Mr. Grant was manager of the company's house at that place. The newcomers expect to make their home here. J. L. Myers, the retiring manager, will take a vacation, expecting to start with Mrs. Myers on an extended auto trip to California about April 1, in the hope of finding relief from rheumatism.

Says Cold in St. Paul—
It was 16 below zero in St. Paul a few days ago and two blizzards occurred, said F. G. Lewis, traveling agent of the Southern Pacific, who returned last night from Minnesota where he was called by the illness of his mother. Mrs. Lewis and children who accompanied her will remain in St. Paul for some time. It has been severely cold in the middle west during the past two weeks and the rainy Oregon climate makes one feel he is in the tropics, says Lewis.

Bank of Commerce Reelects Directors—
The Bank of Commerce re-elected all their directors and officers at their annual meeting yesterday afternoon. Emil Koppe, E. A. McCornack, B. B. Brundage, C. D. Rorer and J. Harold Beynton are the directors. The officers are: C. D. Rorer, president; E. A. McCornack, and Emil Koppe, vice-presidents; B. B. Brundage, cashier; J. Harold Beynton, assistant cashier.

Comedy at Lone Pine Tomorrow Evening—
"The Elopement of Ellen" is the name of a three-act comedy to be given at Lone Pine school house tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Proceeds will be used to buy books for the school house. Following is the cast of characters: Richard and Mally Ford, Rob Brown, June Corvallis, Max Ten Eck, Dorothy March, John Hume, Elwin Miller, Viva Luce, Howard Williams, Ethel Hughes, Kenneth Coburn, Bessey Hughes and Morris pillars.

Says Dredging Will Help—
If congress passes the $35,000 appropriation asked for the Siuslaw harbor, the shoal will be dredged and large ocean going vessels will come into the railroad docks, says George Melvin Miller, who is interested in the townsite of Florence. Mr. Miller says that when large lumber schooners can run into the docks there will be cargoes sent to the Orient and the west coast of South America from a Lane county port.

Confer on Missions—
C. F. Swander, Portland, state secretary of the Christian church, and Rev. Ralph Putnam, of the Court Street Christian church, Salem, arrived in Eugene this morning and at noon conferred with Rev. E. V. Stivers, president of the state missionary board of the Christian church and pastor of the local church of that denomination, upon the subject of missions.

Bank Officials Advanced—
Frank McAllister was advanced from cashier to vice-president of the United States National bank at the annual directors' meeting yesterday afternoon. W. R. Robertson was advanced from assistant cashier to cashier. David Auld was chosen to serve as one of the vice-presidents. W. W. Calkins, president; H. H. Hobbs, L. E. Hodges and Maybelle Russell, assistant cashiers, were re-elected.

University Marksmen Will Shoot—
A rifle shooting match between the R. O. T. C. teams of the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural college is to be held at Corvallis tomorrow. Similar matches have been won by the University team the past two years, which is now composed of the following: Emerald Sloan, Eugene; C. L. Heider, Sheridan; D. E. Bullock, McMinnville; W. H. Durham, Eugene; Don Zimmerman, Eugene; Adam Wilhelm, Monroe; Bunny Meek, Portland; O. T. Grant, Myrtle Point; Neilson Page, Birkenfeld and Edson Biggar, Seattle.

Salvation Army Leader Leaving—
Adjutant M. H. Clement, leader of the Eugene corps of the Salvation Army since last June, will go to Boise, Ida., to take charge of the corps there, as soon as his successor is appointed. Adjutant and Mrs. Clement returned yesterday from San Francisco, where they have been attending a convention of Salvation Army workers from a dozen western states. On account of their parade Saturday afternoon, all traffic on Market street was stopped for half an hour. Nearly 10,000 people heard Commander Booth in the Civic Auditorium Sunday.

Celebrates 91st Birthday—
Eleven friends of Orin Stool last evening celebrated the latter's birthday at an Osburn hotel dinner. Mr. Stool was born in New York in 1830, served as a sailor on the Great lakes and nearly half a century ago settled on a farm near Eugene, where he made a specialty of raising fine driving horses. He now lives alone at 1644 Chamber street having never married. He does all his own housework, including plain and fancy sewing and canning fruit, keeps chickens and enjoys life. His mind is still keen and he tells some very entertaining stories of his experiences.

Student Charged With Fraud—
The Curtis Publishing company, of Philadelphia, offers a reward of $25 for the conviction of a young lady signing her name Marion M. Pike and claiming to be one of their student authors, having collected of John M. Curran, proprietor of the Overland garage, of Cottage Grove, $200 for a subscription to the Saturday Evening Post Oct. 29, 1921. The publishers, in a letter to Mr. Curran, claim that the party named is not their authorized agent and that the blank receipt she used is not the same as the one furnished to Curtis agents. The company's letter and receipt given by Miss Pike were received by Chief of Police Christensen yesterday.

Tells of Development—
S. S. Smith, manager of the Medford Mail-Tribune, and A. E. Voorhies, editor of the Grants Pass Courier, arrived this morning to attend the fourth annual convention. The latter has lately installed an $8,000 press and is publishing a daily paper in one of the smallest cities in the United States so favored. Mr. Smith brings word of great development work

January Clearance Sale of Women's Coats and Suits and Men's and Boys' Suits and Overcoats Continues.

Until Saturday Night

Finest, Newest Suits for Women

Values to $100.00

$39.00

Values to $85.00

$29.50

Values to $65.00

$19.00

—Every woman should take advantage of these unusual prices, which in many cases are less than actual cost of the fabrics used. Every suit must be sold by Saturday night.

Men's Suits and Overcoats

Kuppenheimer, Chesterfield and Styleplus makes
Until Saturday Night

Values to $85.00

$39.50

Values to $40.00

$29.50

Values to $30.00

$19.50

—New spring clothing will arrive next week, and this sale is to make room. Hundreds of men have profited. Are you one? It's not too late to buy finest clothing at factory cost and less.

McNamee-Kashmere

All Boys' Suits to $16.50, $10.00—Values to $30.00, $15.00.

A Special for Saturday

A No. 3 can of Caswell's Coffee $1.10
A No. 1 can of Caswell's Baking Powder 30c
A 2-oz. bottle of Caswell's Extracts 25c

Call Phone 542-J
Corner 7th and Blair Sts.

(Continued on page six)

PHONE 312

Tuning and repair work guaranteed. Pianos and phono graphs sold on monthly payments.

EUGENE MUSIC SHOP

TRY THE GUARD WANT AD. WAY

SATURDAY

Poultry Special

GREEN'S MEAT MARKET

845 Olive Street

Choice Light Hens, under 4 lbs., 23 cents lb.
Heavy Hens, 4 lbs. and over, 28 cents lb.

Mild Sugar Cured Hams and Bacon, fresh meats of all kinds, Quality, Price and Service that will appeal to you.

GREEN'S MARKET

Home Product Store.

ALBERT GROSHONG, Manager.

845 Olive, just south of Dice-Swan Grocery Co.