Why Chevrolet Is Becoming the Most Popular Automobile in America.

Public favor changes when reasons for a change are obvious. Public opinion as to the most popular car of the future is changing.

Users of low-priced motor transportation are demanding completely equipped automobiles, modern in every respect, with nothing left to buy but the license plate.

The New Superior Chevrolet is FULLY EQUIPPED, including modern three-speed and reverse sliding gear transmission, standard service and hand brakes, electric starter, demountable rims, water and oil pumps, and speedometer.

In addition to completeness, buyers insist on real economy in four important essentials. They demand low gasoline consumption; low oil consumption; low repair costs; long life. The New Superior Chevrolet excels in these particulars.

Twenty-five miles on each gallon of gasoline is not uncommon for a New Superior Chevrolet. It excels in oil economy as well. Repair costs are low because every Chevrolet part is built to give long life under hard conditions.

These are a few of the reasons why public favor is increasing toward the Chevrolet—why it is becoming the favorite low-priced car of America. Chevrolet distribution is practically universal. Cars can be bought from over five thousand dealers located in almost every American community, and abroad, and their number is daily increasing.

You owe it to yourself to examine the New Superior Chevrolet, the car which is establishing new standards in the medium and low price field.

"BILL" REINHART QUILTS SALEM

Coach "Bill" Reinhart of the Salem high school baseball team is now no more of Salem. He was offered an excellent business connection with the Standard Oil company at the Portland office, and it was only for immediate acceptance. He had expected to stay with the Salem high ballplayers through the rest of this season, but they relinquished his services in view of the urgency of his call, and they are now coachless and running themselves till the season closes.

Mr. Reinhart has brought the team out wonderfully during his stay, and it is one of the most formidable school aggregations of the state—Salem State team.

"SPOTLESS TOWN" IS AIM "CLEANUP" WEEK

The end of next week which is Cleanup Week, will see Eugene a spotless town, if the official exhortations of Mayor C. H. Peterson are followed. In the following proclamation, townspeople are urged to clean up their premises of all rubbish and refuse matter of every nature. The city will furnish free transportation for everything except ashes, lumber, brush and other things which can be burned or used for fertilizing purposes. The text of the official manifesto follows:

"Notice is hereby given that the Annual Cleanup Week in the City of Eugene will commence on Monday, May 13, 1922, and continue until Sunday, May 13, 1922.

"All rubbish, tin cans, refuse matter that will not burn placed in boxes, barrels, sacks and receptacles, placed on the highways will be hauled away by the city free of charge. The boxes must be of such size as can be handled by two men. Ashes will not be hauled away, nor will the city haul away lumber, boards, brush or other waste material that can be burned. Hauling will commence all over town Thursday morning, May 11, and all rubbish to be hauled should be on the highway at that time.

"Citizens are urged to clean up their premises and have the refuse matter on the highway prior to May 11, so that it may be taken away while the opportunity is offered to have it done without cost, as the city cannot cover the same territory twice.

"Done this 5th day of May, 1922.
C. H. PETERSON, Mayor."

Woman Candidate for Seat of John Sharp Williams

Jackson, Miss.—By a queer twist of political fate a southern woman, a Mississippian, may be the first of her race to win a seat in the United States senate—because the state of Mississippi was one of the bitterest in the fight against the constitutional amendment giving the ballot to the women of the nation.

Miss Belle Kearney, of Florida, near here, a nationally known W. C. T. U. lecturer and world traveler, is in the race to succeed Senator John Sharp Williams when he retires in 1923, and keen political observers here say her chances for victory are exceptionally good.

The women of the state, it is believed, will line up almost solidly behind Miss Kearney. Although slow at first to take advantage of the ballot, reports received here show that the women throughout the state are registering fast and in large numbers. The state repeatedly has sought to force the withdrawal of Miss Kearney from the senate race, but all of these efforts have met with defiance on the part of the champion of "women's rights." She says the fight is waged to gain state and national prohibition and to win the ballot for women have been too long and bitter for her now to retire just because "mef man," who she says "has been in the habit of eliminating or effacing women," wishes it.

For League of Nations.

Miss Kearney started her active campaign for a senate seat as soon as it was established that Senator John Sharp Williams would not seek re-election, and with a platform that is brief and to the point she is stirring every corner of the peninsular state in the interest of her cause. Here is her platform:

"Enfranchisement and entry of the United States into the league of nations.

"Legislation toward making the United States a nation of home owners rather than that of renters.

"Strict enforcement of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act.

"Protection legislation for women in industry.

"The market to break.

Cash demand for corn was slow. Provisions were also lower.

May wheat opened off 1-2 at $1.39 1-4 and closed down 3-4. July opened off 1-4 at $1.24 5-8 and closed off 5-8. September opened off 1-4 at $1.17 1-4 and closed unchanged.

May corn opened off 1-8 at 61 7-8 and closed down 7-8. July opened 1-8 at 64 3-4 and closed off 1-2. September opened 1-8 at 67 1-8 and closed off 1-4.

May oats opened 1-8 at 37 3-4 and closed down 5-8. July opened unchanged at 40 1-8 and closed down 3-4. September opened unchanged at 40 1-8 and closed up 5-8.

WOOL CROP LARGELY SOLD

Portland, May 6.—With the 1922 wool season in Oregon almost at a close, the advance in prices has not been checked. The demand is strong and there is keen competition for the few remaining clips of the best grade. The sale of two very choice clips at Shunko at prices between 38 and 40 cents shows the high level of the market. It is only the highest types of wool, however, that are bringing these extreme prices. The bulk of the Shunko wools went at 35 to 36 cents.

Buying continued brisk in all sections where wool was available. About 300,000 pounds of Oregon wool, except in the ruling market prices, principally at 33 cents, with occasional lots bringing 35 to 31 cents.

Wool dealers figure that 90 per cent of the Oregon clip has now been sold and that the end of this week will see the close of the Oregon season, except in the western sections, where the clip is late in coming off.

Wheat Buying Receives Check

The wheat market reverse in the east had an unsettled effect here and trading practically came to a stop. The best price for the export clip was $1.26. At the Merchants' Exchange bids were 2 cents lower on all grades.

The Chicago wire to the Gray-Rosenbaum Grain company follows:

"Large purchases of wheat at Missouri river markets to come here for delivery at an unsettled market. Bearish sentiment is becoming more pronounced. Export and domestic demand low. Primary movement larger than last year. Do not anticipate any serious break. Germany buying Australian wheat higher than Chicago May price."

COBURG.

Coburg, Ore., May 5.—The people in and around Coburg are rejoicing over the condition of the roads in this vicinity. Lane county crew number two under W. M. Worden as foreman has done the best work ever done on our roads.

The farmers say they can cut Coburg out of the county. We congratulate the county court for their excellent work and hope to see them make us another visit with a good supply of crushed rock as the roads are in need of rock from Armitage to the county line. The crew left yesterday for other parts of the county. We were sorry to see them leave.

The play given at the school house by the high school was well attended and netted nearly $50. They are planning putting on the play other places.

John Q. Vaughan went to Eugene Saturday.

Quite a delegation of Coburg people attended the circus yesterday. Went to take the children.

"Legislation to enforce social morality. Advocacy of a federal department of education with a secretary in the cabinet."

"A more vigorous child welfare and public health policy."

"Reduced taxation, federal aid for farmers, progressive labor legislation."

Miss Kearney declares her political enemies already are busy, and have sent out reports that she is an atheist. To combat this report she is producing a statement by Rev. L. L. Roberts, formerly of Florida but now of Columbus, explaining that Miss Kearney withdrew from the Methodist church because she could not reconcile certain doctrines.

Opposing Miss Kearney in the contest for senatorial honors are two men, Hubert Stephens, who represented Mississippi in the lower branch of congress for many years, and James K. Vardaman, former senator and political figure in the state for the past ten years.

Stephens, in his public speeches, is pleading that the factional lines be dropped in this campaign. He is going out on his record as a public servant in congress and as a "Simpsone" democrat.

Vardaman, reported in poor health, has been content thus far to wage his campaign through the columns of his weekly magazine here, "Vardaman's Weekly." He has made very few speeches.

Stands Behind Record.

Like Stephens, Vardaman also is standing behind his public record and criticisms. Woodrow Wilson for his war record. Vardaman was one of the "Wilful Twelve" senators.

Miss Kearney started her public career as a school teacher, but early turned to uplift work, becoming one of the best lecturers and organizers for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. She always was an ardent suffrage worker.

During the recent conflict in Europe in which the United States was involved, Miss Kearney went to France at her own expense and engaged in relief work.

She has opened headquarters here with Mrs. John Clark, one of her close friends and wife of an East Mississippi attorney, as campaign manager.

TIMES ARE BETTER. IS BELIEF OF DAVIS

Washington, May 6.—A new wave of prosperity, better times and ample employment is about to sweep the country, in the view of Secretary of Labor Davis.

After conference with the director of the employment service of his department and consultation with other officials Davis today gave a resume of the industrial and economic situation in the country.

There are a few dark spots where there is considerable unemployment, such as the state of Louisiana and in the large shipbuilding centers; also in New York City, San Francisco and Chicago.

The farm situation is decidedly encouraging. The demand for farm help from all sections of the country is indicative of the optimistic attitude of the farmer.

The federal director of Spokane, Wn., reports labor conditions throughout the state as showing gradual improvement. Farm help is in demand with a slight shortage.

25 Indicted for Using U. S. Mails to Defraud

London.—Although Jack Dempsey announced in Paris that he had been signed to meet Georges Carpentier in a return bout, Jack Kearns, his manager, said that he had not entered any agreement. The match, he said, was merely being considered.

New York.—Ralph Greenleaf, national pocket billiard champion, has virtually clinched his title match with Walter Franklin, Kansas City, challenger. Greenleaf will enter the final final block tonight with the advantage of a 208 to 88 score. Greenleaf won the second block last night by a score of 152 to 24.
