Prince Sumi, at left, son of the Emperor and Empress of Japan, along with other small Princes of the blood in Japan, recently visited the peace exhibition held in Tokio. The young Prince has made an excellent record as a student in his final grade at Peer's School, and has a good aptitude for poetry, having already become known for several short compositions.

JAMES P. HUMPHREYS, well-known automobile man of Hoboken, N. J., who declares he believes Tanlac is the best thing to overcome stomach trouble and run-down condition. States it completely restored his health.

"I believe in giving everything its due and I want to say right now I just can't believe Tanlac too highly for what it has done in my case," declared James P. Humphreys, proprietor of the Hoboken Motor Co., Hoboken, N. J.

"For three years or more I suffered from indigestion. After eating I would feel terrible with gas and my heart would palpitate until it interfered with my breathing. I was habitually constipated and my nerves were all upset. My sleep was unquiet. I got up mornings all tired out, and I was only a shadow of my former self.

"Well, Tanlac has given me a keen appetite, stomach trouble has disappeared, my nerves have steadied down, and I have gained several pounds. Tanlac, to me, is the best thing ever sold for stomach trouble and run-down condition.

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

BALL FAN WONDERS IF PLAYERS WANT TO WIN

By HENRY L. FAIRBELL.
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, July 21.—Speaking of the peculiar features of the 1922 pennant races, a New York baseball man who does more than merely look at the games, says:

"Wonder if some of these fellows want to win the pennant?"

Money being the ruling influence of most of the players, he points out that some of the players could make more money by haremousing and playing winter baseball than by living on the glory of a world's series.

He made direct reference to no club but he pointed out that star players would have more in the long run with the share of a second place club in the world series money and a fat winter contract than they could get out of the winner's cut of the fall classic.

He pointed out that it might never enter the heads of the players to throw games, but they might play carelessly and without sufficient fight if they felt that they did not care whether they won or not.

The club owners in refusing to repeal the anti-haremousing rule and in declaring each fall that they intend to manage out of a short world series might influence some players in believing they were doing no wrong if they did not fight their heads off for the pennant.

The in and out showing of the New York Yanks has brought forward the rumors again that Miller Huggins will be decapitated as leader of the American league champions.

Stanford Puts Sport Coin to Academic Use

Stanford University, Cal., July 21.—Stanford is the first big educational institution, as far as is known, to receive funds from athletics to academic uses to any extent.

Yet this is a reality here today. Stanford's new housing plan will become a reality through funds realized from the games during last football season, and during the coming season, as a result of the success of the new stadium.

The Stanford Board of Athletic Control is to begin immediate construction of a $450,000 men's dormitory, in accordance with the policy recently adopted by the university authorities to devote a certain percentage of income from athletics to support some university project.

This would seem to be the correct answer to the row about taking in gate receipts raised by certain academic-minded professors in the East, who charged "commercialism." The stadium cost Stanford approximately $200,000, and approximately $110,000 was realized by Stanford last year's share of gate receipts from the same game. A certain sum of money had already been advanced by the trustees to build the stadium. The cost of this year's contests in the stadium is expected to be even larger.

The new dormitory will be paid for on a long term basis. The first payment will be made with the $40,000 which accrued due to the efforts of the advisory board of alumni, after having been temporarily applied to the stadium by agreement with original contributors.

The athletic contribution will be used to erect one dormitory, which will be one of two such to be begun immediately. The university itself has put up the money for the other. Both units will eventually be part of the big housing scheme, to include a number of dormitories. Each unit will house four "big groups" of 120 students each. The units will be reinforced concrete, red-tiled roofs, brown sandstone finish. All will have dining rooms with a common kitchen, and will have a big clubroom in common.

WATCHING THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's hero—Rogers Hornsby hit his 20th home run, giving the Cards a three to four victory over the Braves in the National League. Dugan singled in the tenth inning and got around on an error by Collins, and Harris sacrificed, scoring the run that enabled the Red Sox to beat the White Sox 3 to 2.

Ward hit a single, a triple and a homer with two out helping the Yanks to their second game of the season from Detroit, five to 1.

Glavin doubled in the twelfth inning and Higbee drove him in with a single. The Pirates beating the Phils 2 to 1.

The Indians won their eleventh straight game beating Washington 8 to 2.

The Cubs hopped on Grimes in the eighth inning and scored six runs but the Stubs hit a big lead and won 11 to 7.

Timely hitting by the Giants coupled with errors by the Reds enabled New York to win, 7 to 5.

Helped by four fast double plays, Vancouver led the Athletics down with five hits and the Browns won, 4 to 0.

Portland Flag Hopes Given Terrific Jolt

The pennant aspirations of the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league were given a terrific jolt during the fifteenth week of play which closed last Sunday, the Los Angeles profiting to the extent of eight games, thus taking every contest to nil for the Northwest. Six of the eight teams of the league changed places as a result of the play, the only two teams to maintain their old positions being the two ball clubs, Oakland and Sacramento.

It is interesting to note that San Francisco now is practically at identical the same percentage point in the standing that it had at this time last season. However, its margin this year is not as to what it was last year. In this connection it is also interesting to recall that notwithstanding its commanding lead, the Seals came a cropper not divided any down the line when the final series came along that counted for the winning of the pennant.

The uncertainties of the present season of play is well brought out in the Portland-Los Angeles act. The last time these two teams met the Portlanders won out by a safe margin and yet they submit to a holocaust of 8 victories without a single win on their side. Another such massacre and the Ducks will be permanently out of the race for the big margins are mighty difficult to make up and the going is mighty tedious and slow, particularly when the other fellow refuses to lose no matter how often you may win.

BODIE CLASHES WITH ABUSIVE SPECTATOR

San Francisco, July 20.—Ping Bodie fared better than Babe Ruth when he emulated the great king and went into the grand stand to fight it out with a spectator who abused him in the game at Los Angeles Wednesday.

President William M. McCarthy of the Coast league announced yesterday afternoon that he had fined Bodie $10 and suspended him for one day as punishment.

He wired Bodie his regrets at being forced by the umpire to give him this punishment, which is the minimum for the offense, and wired the Los Angeles club owners suggesting they bar from the park spectators who unduly abuse players.

McCarthy based his action on a report by the umpire substantiated by statements of players, that Bodie had been subject to "abusive, violent and insulting" remarks from the spectator.

Longshoremen Strike In Portland Settled

Portland, Ore., July 21.—The strike of the International Longshoremen's association, which retarded work of this port early in the summer, has been effectively settled, port authorities announced. They declare that conditions are now back on a normal basis.

The longshoremen struck when employers agreed to cut wages for trucking and to no longer hire their men through the union hall by list, organizing a hall of their own for the purpose.

Considerable difficulty was experienced by the state board of mediation, which acted as peacemaker in effecting a return of tranquility, but this was finally done by employers and men agreeing to a joint waterfront employment hall supervised by a committee of three, one member to represent the unions, one the employees, and one the longshoremen who are not affiliated with the Longshoremen's union.

This system of hiring men for dock work is now in active operation, to the apparent satisfaction of both parties to the original controversy. A revised scale of wages was also effected.

Rowing Clubs Battle on Willamette River

Portland, July 21.—Three northwest rowing clubs will battle on the Willamette river today and Saturday for the 1922 championship of the annual North Pacific Association of Amateur Rowmen.

The Vancouver, B. C., rowing club, the James Bay Athletic association of Victoria, B. C., and the Portland Rowing club have entries in every event except the Junior fours, in which the James Bay outfit is not entered.

The events will start Friday afternoon at three o'clock on the Portland Rowing club course.

Junior events will consume Friday afternoon, while Saturday will be given over to the senior events. Vancouver rowing club holds the trophy at present, having won it the last two years.

Barber, Postoffice Teams Lead League

Hones of the Hardwear men to win the Twilight league pennant went glimmering last night when they lost to the Barber-Dentists by a 5 to 1 score on the University of Oregon diamond. Now the race lies between the Postoffice team and the Barber-Dentist aggregation. Both have a percentage of .857. Not until next week will the victor be decided.

Tonight, the Plumbers meet the Garagemen at the University and the Bankers battle the Butcher-Confectioner team at the fair grounds.

Robertson made the only tally for the Hardwear men last night and Pharis, Moore and Wintler hoped over home plate for the five runs garnered by the Barber-Dentist bunch. Pharis and Moore made two each.

The Postal team showed its class by noosing out the Shoe-Fuelmen at the fair grounds by a 7 to 6 score yesterday.
