CITY NEWS

Returns to Corvallis—C. J. Hurd, county agent leader, returned last evening to Corvallis after spending a few days here on business.

Highway to Open—The Pacific highway between Albany and Jefferson will be open for traffic today, according to W. K. Wright, assistant state engineer. Mr. Wright has charge of this work and that through the Santiam bottom and says the damaged done amounted to about $5000.

Deaths in Washington—Carey Thompson, of Vida, has collapsed at the county clerk's office today, a heart attack recently.

Library Board Re-Elects—The following were re-elected officers of the city library board at the annual meeting yesterday: Ann Whitaker, president; E. O. Potter, vice-president; T. Cocke, secretary and B. H. Lundage, treasurer.

His Shoulder Injured—D. F. Tickert, truck driver, was taken to Mercy hospital to have an injured shoulder treated. Cord wood on his truck slipped out of place, some of it falling on his wheel.

Had Night for Bums—Hoboes found it too cold last night sleep in the open so they asked to be locked up in the city jail for the night. Ten were accommodated by Officers Judkins and Macy.

Appointed Administrator—Samuel H. Kern has been appointed by the probate court administrator of the estate of Susan Kern, who died at Cottage Grove, December 30, 1922. Appraisers appointed are Welcome Hubbell, Benjamin Thrasher and George Garrou.

Has Charge of Choir—C. H. Hobbatt, musical director, has received and taken charge of the Christian church choir. He is to have charge during the revival services to be conducted there, starting January 28, by W. E. Kellens and Howard Richards.

Master Speaks at Drain—C. E. Sprance, master of the Oregon State Grange, left today for Drain where he will address farmer meetings. Mr. Sprance has appeared before several meetings of grangers in this vicinity discussing legislation concerning agriculture.

Move to California—Mr. and Mrs. Don Bradford have left for Los Angeles to make their future home. Mr. Bradford who has been a student at the University of Oregon architectural school has accepted a position with a Los Angeles architect firm.

Phone Employees to Meet—At the Osburn hotel at 7 o'clock tonight the Willamette Telephone club, composed of employees of the Pacific Telephone and Telephone company, will hold a banquet. All exchanges south of Albany will be represented. It is expected that about 30 will attend. Dr. W. B. Neal will direct a first aid demonstration.

Veteran Hiker Visits—Raymond E. Bell, World war veteran who last April started out on a long hike for the benefit of his health, was a Eugene visitor last night. He has traveled 4228 miles since setting out from Rockland, Maine. Bell weighed 138 pounds, as a result of stopping 82 pieces of shrapnel in France, but now tips the beam at 181. He takes frequent side journeys to snow capped peaks, spending several days at Crater lake on the way north. Bell, who is enroute to Canada, meets expenses by writing for magazines. An article on Mt. Lassen has been purchased by the Geographic magazine. This morning he set out for the north coast.

Class Elects Officers—About 50 members of the junior women's class of the First Christian church met in the church parlors yesterday for their monthly business meeting and social. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Teacher, Mrs. Thos. Bailey; assistant teacher, Mrs. A. W. Lydick; president, Mrs. Gray Barton; vice-president, Mrs. Harold Knott; secretary, Mrs. T. A. Stivers; assistant secretary, Mrs. E. V. Stivers; treasurer, Mrs. Estelle Doty; flower committee, Mrs. Will Robertson. A social followed the business meeting and refreshments were served.
