DEMAND FOR BUTTER ACTIVE

Portland, March 21.—Receipts of butter show a gradual increase, but the demand for butter is active and firm prices are maintained.
Eggs are coming in freely and storing operations are on a larger scale.
The first spring lambs were received yesterday and quoted at 22 1/2c per pound. Veal was firm at the old price. The demand for pork was less active than last week.

FAIR JOB IS UNDECIDED

Roseburg, Ore., March 21.—A. C.
Marsters, who has been offered a place on the state fair board, may decline to serve in that capacity, it was said today.
Mr. Marsters himself said he had not made up his mind about the appointment.
Mr. Marsters has strong support from Douglas county, the Coos bay district and other points in southern Oregon for a place on the state highway board, and it is understood that many of his friends have urged him to decline the fair board position in the hope that he may win a place on the highway association.
