

Dainty New Costume Slips

TO WEAR UNDER LIGHT CLOTHES

wide double hems that reach the hips of many of these slips. White sateen, tub satin or muslin make them particularly nice. They have bodice or collar tops and are cut in all sizes.

1.25 to $2.50

Gowns and Combinations

89c to $2.50

Women everywhere have so firmly adopted muslin gowns and combinations the showing here will prove a delight.

LARGE'S

865 Willamette St.

Lists Elect Man of Corvallis Chief

Officers of the Southern Willamette Society, met here in monthly session last Saturday night, electing following officers for the year: J. A. Harper, Corvallis, president; R. M. Graves, Eugene, vice-president; Dr. R. Gunn, Corvallis, secretary; Dr. George Eugene, president; A. Hanford, Corvallis, vice-president; Dr. J. E. Richmond, Eugene, secretary-treasurer.

Plans were made for the annual picnic of the organization to be held near Corvallis June 16 as the last regular session of this season, until fall opens another fiscal year. At the business session papers on dental methods were presented by Dr. L. L. Baker, of this city, and H. W. Titus of Cottage Grove.

FLOWER AND GARDEN SEED
Plants, bulbs and shrubs—cut flowers at fair prices.
44 West 9th
EUGENE NURSERIES.
Telephone 325-R.

a straw hat here for you—and every man in town!

blue serge is as definitely associated with May --- as is Decoration Day.

It's time to buy your "blue serge" right now. Many foresighted men bought theirs here last week. get yours early this week.

We're showing a wonderful assortment—regulars, shorts and stouts—values were never better.

the prices $35, $37.50, $40, $45

Green Merrell Co.

men's wear

"one of Eugene's best stores"

Do Not Be Misled

by false claims about Bargain Eye Glasses or Spectacles.

Your eyesight is of more value to you than any amount of money. Optometry laws were enacted to protect people's eyes from the danger of glasses sold by untrained and incompetent dealers or vendors. Select your optometrist with as much care as you use in choosing your family physician. Our 32 years of eye-testing experience is at your service. The right way is our way.

Dr. Sherman W. Moody
OPTOMETRIST—EYESIGHT SPECIALIST
861 WILLAMETTE ST. EUGENE, OREGON
EYESIGHT SPECIALIST

CITY NEWS

Look for Stolen Car

Officers here were today looking for a Paige sedan, Oregon license 42413 equipped with green shade and spotlight, that was stolen in Salem Sunday afternoon.

Brown to Go East

Percy W. Brown, assistant cashier at the First National bank, expects to leave next week for Sioux City, Iowa, on a vacation of a month or so.

To K. of C. Meeting

To attend the state convention of the Knights of Columbus, Joseph Franzwa and James O'Farrell are in Portland today. They will return tomorrow.

Double Parking Fined

A $2 fine was given Gertrude Butler in police court this week-end for stopping her car too long alongside of other autos parked at the curb of a downtown street.

No Damage in Accident

No damage resulted from a slight collision of cars driven by G. P. DeMacon of Wendling lumber camp 31 and F. L. Chambers of this city here Saturday evening, according to reports made the police.

New Baseball League Soon

A movement on the University of Oregon campus to start a baseball league similar to the Twilight league of trade and professional men downtown is said to be afoot and players eager to get into the play are to call 1113 and discuss arrangements.

Mill Gets Equipment

The Camas Lumber company mill near Lorain, now sawing 45,000 board feet daily, expects to increase its output about 5000 more by addition of a high-pressure boiler and other equipment, says William Brooks, manager.

Here On Visit

Mrs. George Derflinger and daughter, Mrs. H. I. Nettleton, are here from Corvallis for a week's visit with Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Derflinger. They expect to visit with relatives at Oakridge before returning home.

Takes Position With Bank

Marjorie Lewis of 1364 Lincoln street has assumed a position as stenographer at the First National bank. She will act as substitute during the vacation season. Frank Passett, bookkeeper, has just returned from his season's vacation.

Visiting Midwest

Mrs. E. H. Richmond, 482 Sixth avenue west, is on her way to the middle west to visit at the homes of her children, John Richmond and Mrs. Rufus Moir, in Minnesota. She left Saturday expecting to be gone two months.

People's Cash Thanks Patrons

With the departure of A. L. Solof, manager of the People's Cash store here, and the shipment of stock not sold out during the closing out sale staged the past 10 days, the proprietors bid adieu to Eugene with reluctance. The 14 months in operations here have been highly successful and patrons and employees are thanked by the managers, who closed out here to consolidate all resources in the Salem store.

Business in California

W. T. Kerr left this week-end to attend business in Orland, Cal.

Ships Household Goods

Mrs. N. Johnson of this city shipped her household goods from Eugene this morning to Everett, Wash.

Leaves for Middle West

Peter Anderson of this city left this week-end to visit in Montana and Minnesota.

Hollister Here Week-End

Jack Hollister and nephew of Portland, were week-end visitors here, returning last evening.

Oakridge Folk Here

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hebert of Oakridge, were here on business today.

Files Commission

Justice Jesse G. Wells has filed with the county clerk his notary public commission.

Discharge Filed

Raymond K. Maynard saw service with United States forces in the late war. Today he filed his honorable discharge with the county clerk.

Horseshoe Play Tonight

There will be a match horseshoe pitching game this evening at 8 o'clock at the grounds at 1890 Franklin boulevard between Dave Berkshire and William Lathrop and a team composed of H. C. Cook and Mr. Brown. Fifty-five games of 50 points each will be played.

Would Enter Business

Allan J. McAfee of Tualatin has $5000 cash he would like to put down as first payment on a good, live retail business or general store in a live town, he writes the Chamber of Commerce.

Leave for Convention

Mrs. and Mrs. George Schroeder of Florence, who visited this week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Funke of route B, were to leave today for North Bend to attend the state I. O. O. F. and Rebekah conventions, expecting to return home after a 10-day trip.

Santa Clara Wins

Scoring 10 to 2, the Santa Clara baseball nine swamped the Coyote team here Sunday, starting by single from Babb and triple from Shyette in the first frame and getting two more runs in the second for a comfortable lead of four. The Coyotes beat the locals two weeks ago in an 11 inning game 9-8, so the tie-

WOMEN'S CLUBS, SOCIAL, PERSONAL

By LYLE BRYSON
CLUB ITEMS SHOULD BE PHONED IN TO THE SOCIETY EDITOR BETWEEN 10 A. M. AND 12 M.—TELEPHONE NUMBER 1200

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Monday Evening, May 21.
Hendricks High Style Show, Heilig Theatre.
Tuesday Afternoon, May 22.
Associated Charities Luncheon, Osburn Hotel.
M. E. General Aid Society, Church parlors.
Tuesday Evening.
Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra Heilig Theatre.
Wednesday Afternoon, May 23.
Washington P. T. A., School Building.

AMONG those who will represent Eugene clubs at the state federation convention in Medford Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, this week are Mrs. W. E. Osburn, Mrs. Herbert Clarke, Mrs. W. W. Calkins, Mrs. Morgan Watson, Mrs. L. E. Bean and Mrs. A. T. Cockerline. Mrs. Osburn motored to the southern Oregon city, taking with her the Fortnightly club delegates.

Mrs. Edith Knight Hill of Portland who is in Washington, D. C. this spring, has sent the following interesting dispatch concerning Miss Louise Fitch, former prominent club woman of this city: "I had a delightful visit with Miss Louise Fitch, formerly of Eugene, who was one of the first to call on me after I arrived in Washington. Miss Fitch is busy interesting the women, the traveling passenger agents and the newspapers in the national convention of the American Association of University women, to meet in Portland July 16 to 21. She says the college women are anticipating a great treat. She went to Philadelphia today to address the Republican Women's club on "Women in Politics in Oregon." She took the eastern women that Oregon is doing splendid work, that co-operation is the keynote, but advised the easterners never to allow religious differences or prejudices to creep into their political life. "Miss Fitch was chaperon at the Tridelt house at Oregon for several seasons. She will take a strong delegation to Portland in July."

Mrs. Ina Keltner and Mrs. Robert Earl will represent the local chapter of P. E. O. Sisterhood at the 12th annual convention of the Oregon grand chapter to be held in Portland Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Many timely and important subjects will be presented, among which will be the "million dollar endowment fund." Sixty delegates who will come from Salem, Hood River, Prineville, Ashland, Medford, McMinnville, Lebanon, Klammath Falls, Clatskanie, Corvallis, Estacada, The Dalles, Oregon City, Albany, Newberg, Vale, Woodburn, La Grande,

HOARSENESS

Swallow slowly small pieces rub well over the throat.
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

The Bells of Beaujolais—A Two Act Opera presented by the Glee Clubs of the Eugene High School, Heilig Thursday Evening.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our kind friends and neighbors for their kind ministry and sympathy and the beautiful floral offerings at the time of our bereavement.
Mrs. John W. Barr, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Dugan and family,
Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hinkle and family,
Mr. and Mrs. John H. Barr, Jr. and family,
Dr. and Mrs. C. Randolph Barr and family,
Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Boxley.

play-off will be set at a later date in the season. The Santa Clara team plays Co-burg here next Sunday in setting a tie on one game each. Santa Clara batteries were Thompson and Keeney; Coyote, Owens and Holland.

Here for Week-end

Harry L. Brown, ex-county judge who is now director of rehabilitation work for the state industrial accident commission, spent the week-end here from Portland. His new headquarters, Mrs. Brown will leave for Portland this week, after her husband secures living quarters.

SPRINGFIELD NEWS

Springfield, May 5. — The Priscilla club had a picnic Saturday at the Hansen auto park.

Goes to North Bend

Mrs. Emily Dority left Sunday morning for North Bend. She will attend the Rebekah convention being held there this week.

To Cottage Grove

Henry Adrain left Sunday on a business trip to Cottage Grove.

Home From California

Mrs. Anna Mitchell, who has spent the past winter in California, for her health, has returned. She seems greatly improved.

Delegates Leave

The delegates for the grand lodge, I. O. O. F., left Monday morning for North Bend, where the convention is being held.

Springfield Personals

Mrs. Fred Link spent Sunday with her parents at Creswell.

W. B. Scott of Fall Creek

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris went to Cottage Grove Sunday for the races.

H. F. Files of Crawfordville

Mr. Files of Crawfordville spent Friday the past year, as vice president of the organization, for the year ahead. The vice-president-elect acted as the toastmaster for the final banquet in the Campa Shoppe Saturday night, at which newly elected officers and others made talks and dinner speeches touching on the objects of the organization.

Other officers elected during the sessions include: president, B. D. Coffey, Portland; secretary, Charles Fullman, Portland; treasurer, E. G. Ruedy, Portland. Members of the executive committee: zone one, Theodore Ray, Portland; zone 2, W. S. Smith, Astoria; zone 3, Charles Breechel, Eugene; zone 4, F. W. Bishop, Baker.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

Resolutions endorsing a standard comfort station sign of certain design

advocating the appointment of national directors according to geographical location instead of by population; commending the Standard Oil company for establishing rest rooms at its filling stations in every city and town along the highway; extending a vote of thanks to Revs. C. E. Dunham and J. M. Walters for their assistance in the opening session of the convention, and to the citizens of Eugene and the faculty of the university for their hospitality and others of interest to the trade.

You'll Agree These Coats Are Uncommon Values

At $14.75

—We call them utility coats, for they serve so many purposes—splendid for motoring, golfing and all sports wear, as well as being good looking for street wear.

—Materials are serviceable blends of tweeds, velours and polaire cloth, in attractive shades of tan, grey, blue and overplaid. Many attractive styles in short and three-quarter lengths in belted and loose back models. Coats that ordinarily sell for $19.50, underpriced at $14.75.

—Displayed in our windows today.

Enroll Now For Dressmaking Classes

—To be conducted at this store by Madam E. Miller, famous designer and dressmaker. Classes to start Monday, May 28, and continue for two weeks. The charge for complete course of six lessons will be only $4.00. Madam Miller's instruction will include designing, cutting, fitting, pinning, and sewing. As only a limited number can be accepted, you are urged to enroll now.

McMorran & Washburne Store
FOR STYLE QUALITY & ECONOMY

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY

Sudden and severe pain in Stomach, Bowels, Intestinal Cramp, Colic, Diarrhoea
50 years in use
50 years dependable and when needed worth 50 times its cost for a single dose Equally valuable at home, when traveling and for emergencies by night or day.
Sold everywhere

Showanda, the choice of the smoker.

Let's Swap!

Let's Swap!

Catchy Songs — Pretty Dances — A Spirit of Festivity will prevail at the Heilig, Thursday Evening.

STEWART'S
Quality AUTOMOBILE NECESSITIES
Supplies for All Makes of Cars.
Service With a Smile! Ask Your Neighbor—He Knows!

New Silk Dresses New Sport Dresses

Specially chosen for big values giving these charming dresses of very becoming styles in Canton Crepe, Printed Crepe de Chine, Novelty knit materials and Silk Ratine—Cotton combinations, very well made and trimmed, of excellent quality and extremely low price.

Gilmore's
Correct Apparel for Women

Insure with Henry Thoms, 33 West 9th