

Please, Mommie, can I have some nice

That's what many kiddies are pleading for right now. Mother will no doubt reply "Certainly, child, have as much as you please,"--because mother knows that Blue Bell Ice Cream is pure, nourishing and delightful to the taste.

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR IT

Eugene Farmers Creamery

News of Lane County

Special Correspondence to The Guard

COTTAGE GROVE.

Louis J. Schols, 918 Birch avenue, P. O. box 583, business representative, Mrs. Corrie Hemenway, morning.

Cottage Grove, Ore., July 20.—Mrs. Gerald Wood and son Weston and daughter Helen came up from Portland Thursday and are visiting Mrs. Wood's mother, Mrs. Helen DeLong. Mrs. Wood was Miss Jean DeLong before marriage. Mat Daggart came up from Grants Pass Thursday and is contemplating opening a tailor shop in the old George Bohman property on the west side. Recorder Homer Galloway and City Engineer Virgil Powell motored to Eugene Friday and attended to business. Joe Damewood and family motored Friday to Oakridge.

H. D. Lawson motored over from Treadport Thursday and visited with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Hanna, leaving Friday morning for Glendale, Cal. Mariette Hamant went to Newport Friday for an outing.

I. N. Bryan from Herman, Cal., a great raisin grower, who has been visiting the P. L. Bakkenfuss family, left Friday morning for Washington. Ralph Hand, the wrestler, went to Portland Friday morning. I. B. Morris is tarring the roof on the old Schleeff building. Mrs. Laura Willey from Ashland is visiting her cousin, J. Q. Willits and family. Z. L. Cox and wife will leave Saturday for Elmira, Albany, and Marcola to visit their children. Charles Aldridge from California accompanied by a friend is visiting with his sister, Mrs. A. B. Smith of Gowdsville. Ted Miller is visiting at the home of his uncle, Tom Queener, in Row River this week. Mrs. F. C. Counts returned this week from the San Francisco hospital where her son Roy has had the toes of one foot amputated. Mrs. C. C. Cruson and Mrs. Karl K. Mills will leave Saturday for North Bend to visit Mr. Mills' brother James and family. Frank Wallace came up from Portland and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Gates have moved into Mrs. S. E. Markley's house on South Pacific highway. Pete Hansen is ill at the home of John Barker where he has been since the fourth of July. Bradley Fox and wife motored down from Seattle, Wash., and visited with Mrs. Fox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aden Miller of Walker. Mrs. Fox was Miss Bessie Miller before marriage. Mrs. Huston Ousemer and children will leave Monday for Seattle, Wash., to join their husband and father, who has been there the past month. Frank Favor is quite ill. The following guests arrived by motor from California and visited with Mrs. Herbert Eakin: Mrs. A. H. Jonckhele and daughter Miss Frances of Berkeley; Dr. F. S. Smythe of the California State hospital at Stockton; Miss Clara Smythe and Miss Margaret Smythe of Rose, Cal.; Miss Georgia Barker, Miss Gertrude Barker and Mrs. Susan Engle were also with the party and stopped at Hotel Bartell leaving for points north on Friday. Mrs. A. C. Enames and daughter Betty with Mrs. Corrie Hemenway and Miss Bonita Beager, will leave Saturday for Portland.

CRESWELL. Creswell, Ore., July 20.—Miss Elizabeth Tryon presented her large class of music pupils in a piano recital Thursday night at the Presbyterian church. A large number were in attendance. Miss Tryon opened promptly at eight and gave a few minutes talk after which the following program was given: My First Post.Presser Helen and Stella Maaranen. Hop Scotch.Presser Helen Monteith. Duet in G.Presser Nadine and Mary Miller. Playing Tag.Presser Ruth Quinn. Ghost in the Chimney.Harthan The Dolls Waltz.Harthan Vivian and Marie Ogram. Sing a Song of Sixpence.Livsey Verda Benk. Dolly Lost.Gaynor Dolly Found.Gaynor Velma Holbrook. The Little Rogue.Sartorio Howard McBee. Ping, Op. 721 No.Sartorio Agnes Jackson. What the Murrelet Said.Cramen The Frightened Cloud.Cramen Clifford Travillion. A Summer Day.Porter The Oriole's Lullaby.Hipshar Merle Hedgpath. Little Boy Scout.Ferry Flag Day March.Fearis Estol Sly. Trio, Jolly Play Fellows.Lerimon Robert Olson, Clifford Travillion Wayne McCue. Lullaby.Dutton La Diabolique.Leybach Mary Miller. In Merry Harvest Time.Rolf Stella Maaranen. Blackhawk Waltz.Welsh Crack the Whip.Bixby Anna Morss. The Boy and the Cuckoo.Lange March Meadows.Tomplins Esther Hubbard. Robin Goodfellow.Loth Gay Katydids.Hewitt Laura Tennis. Invitation.B. Trivell Rub-a-Dub-Dub.Hames Robert Olson. Danse du Sylphes.Devaux Margaret Land. At Sundown.Wilson Moonlight Reverie.Farnsworth Francis Scarborough. Trio, Yellow Jumpsuits.Johanning Ruth Olson, Francis Scarborough. The ushers were Edna Maaranen, Ethel Hedgpath, Neta Zinkler and June Mooney.

A special council meeting was called for Thursday evening to make plans for fixing the pavement on Front street and Oregon avenue. It was voted that the street be paved and surveys were there Friday morning. Work will be done by Monday or Tuesday. This work had to be done on account of the new pavement going through here Thursday from Ebel Trengner and C. E. Leabo were appointed to oversee the work. Mrs. Lucy Weber and daughter Yvonne came Friday for a visit with C. L. Weber and family.

CAMAS SWALE. Camas Swale, Ore., July 19.—Miss Myrtle Bush is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schmidt and family for a few days. Mrs. John Wullschlegler was a Eugene shopper Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sutton motored up from Norkenie Wednesday evening to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sutton. They were accompanied by Miss Marian White and another lady friend. Mrs. Ruth Kerr will leave for Lowell Sunday where she will cook for a logging camp. The Camas local of the Farmers Union is planning something different for their meeting at the school house next Wednesday night. Every one is to enjoy a very good supper of chicken, sandwiches, cake and fruit salad with lemonade and fruit juices to drink. There will be a candy booth and some surprises. E. E. Williams started baling hay Friday morning. Visitors at the Wullschlegler home Friday evening were Miss Edna Zinkler and Leonard Zinkler of Creswell. Mrs. Frank Bush and Mrs. Alfred Bush and little children were visitors at the Butler home Wednesday afternoon. Miss Blanche Weiss left Wednesday for Cottage Grove where she will assist in the bank for a few days. Jake Wullschlegler of Creswell is assisting his son John Wullschlegler with the hay this week.

HARRISBURG. Harrisburg, July 20.—Dr. and Mrs. D. G. Clark and daughter, Mildred, returned Wednesday evening from a vacation of a month spent traveling through California. Dr. Clark reports that they toured over 4000 miles in that state and visited practically all of its noted points of interest. This is the first real vacation the doctor says, that he has enjoyed in a quarter of a century. Every member of the family said that their entire trip gave them one grand and glorious outing. Miss Gertrude Elliott came Tuesday from her home in Oregon City and will spend the remainder of the summer at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Elliott. N. A. McCann was a Eugene business passenger Tuesday. Preaching at the local Church of God Sunday afternoon is to be conducted by Brother Edward Frazee of Eugene. Miss Yvonne and Miss Blanche Uelman left Wednesday for a short outing at Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thonast and children who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kessell since Sunday, returned to their home in Astoria Wednesday. John and Gertrude Lister are here

Wanted Summer Merchandise At July Clearance Sale Prices

MAIL ORDERS FILLED FROM THIS AND ALL OTHER ADVERTISEMENTS. PROMPT SERVICE GUARANTEED. BELOW IS A FAIR EXAMPLE OF THE REDUCED PRICES (AND MANY OF THEM, TOO) YOU WILL FIND IN THIS BIG SHOPPING PLACE. MORE LINES OF MERCHANDISE UNDER ONE ROOF.

Much Sought After Cool, Airy and Beautiful Wash Goods And Silks At Substantially Reduced Prices

Women's thoughts now turn to garments of summer wear, naturally, made of washable materials. Many pleasant surprises await milady in Eugene's largest piece goods section. There are all kinds of materials, from the plain white, the sport materials with their quaint designs and odd colors to the finest voiles—and with special emphasis to ratines. Here is a collection of fabrics to meet the needs of the most exacting designer. Allotted space will not permit revealing the many groups so conveniently displayed for your choosing.

Exquisite Silk Skirtings At An Average Of Much Less Than Half 99c

The silk department is offering you an unusual opportunity right now to secure very pretty silk patterns in white or harmonizing colors—36 inches wide. FORMERLY PRICED $1.79 to $4.00. So fine are the weaves, so rich are the designs and so pretty the shades—and at a price that will cause rapid selling.

To $4.50 Baronett Silk Skirting $1.59 Shimmering in Radiant Colors, Yd. $1.59

Here again July Clearance Sale plays a wonderful role in giving the utmost in value to the discriminating women who desire a winsome skirt which they can fashion to their likeness. This is of a heavy quality and drapes beautifully.

BEWITCHING SILK SPORT SKIRTING IN WHITE, COMBINED WITH DISTINCTIVE SELF FIGURES. NOW THE YARD $1.99

For That Summer Wash Frock 19c Here Are Weaves To 35c At, Yd. 19c

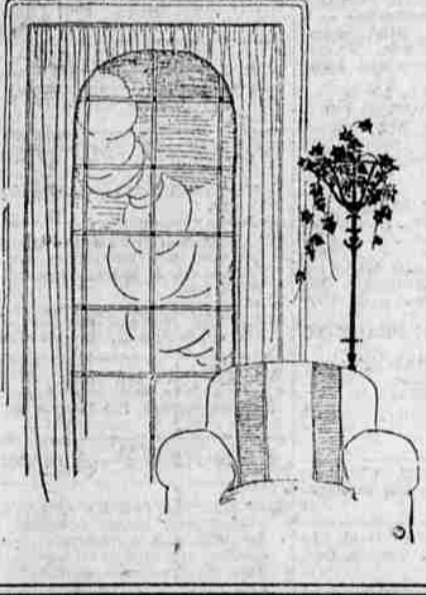

For less than one dollar enough material can be bought for a woman's dress and for about half that little daughter, too, shares honors which is stepping lightly on one's purse, isn't it? Nevertheless Ax Billy's can make it possible to do just that. While quite an assemblage of these dainty little floral patterns (on white ground) await your selection. However, we advise coming early.

One Thousand Yards Of Percales, Yard 19c

To glance at this wonderful array of patterns (in light and dark) one would think they seemingly never were so pretty as these and what perky house dresses may be developed from these. 36 inches wide.

Need New Curtaining? 19c Formerly To 42c, Yard 19c

One lot of marquisette and scrims in white, ecru and cream, 36 inches wide. Some with neat self border.

Schaefer's Bros AX BILLY DEPARTMENT STORE

Cottage Grove Mfg. Co. Sash, Doors, Frames, Moulding, Ironing Boards, Interior Finish, Built-in Features, Detail Mill Work. Our policy is to buy of your Local Dealer, but we solicit all. OUR WORK MEASURES UP WITH THE BEST and will give the best attention. Mail Orders Filled, with Lowest Prices

LITTLE THINGS The Woolworth Building is a monument to the Bigness of little things. Niagara is just a lot of drops of water. The forests are just so many trees stood side by side. It's the little things that count. Why wait until you have a lot of money before starting to save? Open a savings account today, Then save a little every day. Bank of Commerce. Friendly and Willing.

from Portland visiting at the home of their aunt and uncle, Miss Emma Love and Douglas Love. E. A. Taylor is suffering from asthma and heart trouble. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Beard, who have been touring in California the last two weeks, returned home Tuesday evening. Their jaunt took them as far south as San Francisco. Beard reports that the Pacific highway in the northern part of that state is in rotten shape with only scattered, and that short, pavement. Mr. and Mrs. James Blighton of the Lumburg vicinity were transacting business in Eugene Saturday. Two hay balers in this neighborhood have already started operations. They are the Charles Lanley and Tom Lowell outfits. E. E. Ross is again afflicted with malaria. Mr. and Mrs. D. Stevens of Berkeley, Cal., were here Wednesday and Thursday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan McClain. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, who are cousins of Mrs. McClain and who have not visited here since 1904 have been touring Washington. The Columbia college quartet, which is making a tour of the western part of Oregon in behalf of that institution, is to give a concert in the local Methodist church Friday evening, July 27. A new counter has just been installed in the Harrisburg garage. J. G. Swan was attending to business matters here Thursday from Eugene. Tom Philpott transacted business in Albany Wednesday afternoon. Miss Ethel Lane was visiting friends and relatives at Albany Wednesday. Ernest White, who has been employed in the Wendling Booth-Kelly Lumber mills for the last eight months, returned home Thursday from Eugene, during the harvest. Max Sumerville, who recently injured a leg while working in a lumber camp, went to Salem Thursday where he will remain several days to have the injured member treated. A record of all cars that crossed the ferry here Sunday shows that no single car crossed from 314 cars and from six until 10:15. This is the first 24 hour record that has been kept. Work on the completion of the Harrisburg-Halsey section of the Pacific highway has made rapid strides the past week. These now being only a little more than a mile to lay the hot stuff on. It is estimated that the laying will be completed in a couple of weeks. I. L. Morris spent Monday at Albany. Mrs. Art Mauldin of Redmond, who visited at week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheran Marguth returned home the first of the week. Mrs. Marguth and Mrs. Mauldin are sisters. Ira Tanton, J. C. Wooley and Tom Spurrin were in Albany Tuesday. C. A. Black, who is the new Oregon Electric agent at the Carney station, reports that the installation of the automatic devices at the power station here is just about completed. Mrs. Lee Munro of Eugene visited here Sunday with Mrs. Hanson. Dr. and Mrs. Elwyn Coburn and daughter, Miss Ruth, of San Diego, Cal., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Philpott and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pence. Mrs. Pence is Dr. Coburn's sister. Mrs. L. E. McKellip left Wednesday for a few days' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nell Bain in Portland. Miss Rita Howell of Eugene was visiting relatives in town Wednesday. A family picnic and dinner was held at the Hayworth grove north of town Sunday. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. William Miller; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shisler and sons Robert and Warren; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sperling and daughter, Miss Lucille; Mr. and Mrs. Oral Davidson and daughter Louise and baby of Pendleton; Mrs. John Wolfe and son of Brownsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hayworth. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fawver, accompanied by M. M. Hayworth, attended the funeral of Mr. Weddell at Springfield on Monday. Traffic at the ferry was held up for an hour and a half Friday morning when the engine which propels the boat went on the blink.

Robert Neat and family of Washington, stopped Thursday to see friends and relatives here. The Neat family formerly lived here. Mr. and Mrs. Steve La Rant of Salem stopped here Wednesday to see old friends. The La Rant family lived here 13 years ago when the Booth-Kelly mill was running. Mrs. Roberta Holmes left last week to visit with her sister near Lebanon, Ore. She was taken ill with pneumonia and Mrs. Bart Johnson went Friday to care for her. Mrs. F. T. Benston was in Eugene on Friday. Mrs. Lowell Benston and baby, and Evelyn Benston visited Thursday at the W. A. Keen home in Delight Valley. New York.—Robert Neat, 170 years in jail. He was 34 counts of looking a bank. Keep CALAPOOTA in mind. READ OR WANT

Eye Glasses or Spectacles fitted by Dr. Watts is the best insurance of good and relief from headaches, eyeaches or inflammation. You will be pleased with my service and prices. DR. J. O. WATTS, Optometrist 790 Willamette St.

Baker-Button On the Corner 10th and Willamette Developing and Printing Pictures Business—Not a Side Line.