

High School News

NE HIGH

Physical Education
Physical education classes were held at Junior high school last night. The classes were held in the gymnasium and were supervised by Miss Pike and Miss Pike. The classes were held in the gymnasium and were supervised by Miss Pike and Miss Pike.

Stewart Elected.
Stewart was elected vice president of the school at an election held last night. Stewart was elected vice president of the school at an election held last night.

Lockers Needed
Lockers have been ordered for the school. The school has ordered lockers for the students. The school has ordered lockers for the students.

Provides Exhibit
The school has provided an exhibit for the library. The school has provided an exhibit for the library. The school has provided an exhibit for the library.

Writers Ordered
Writers have been ordered for the school. The school has ordered writers for the students. The school has ordered writers for the students.

Work for Honors
The school has ordered work for honors. The school has ordered work for the students. The school has ordered work for the students.

Ostrander to Manage Glee Club
Donald Ostrander has been appointed glee club manager. He will be in charge of the club and will be in charge of the club.

Eugene Girl is Accompanist
Josephine Taylor, a former Eugene high school student, who is now attending school in Topeka, Kansas, is accompanist for the orchestra and the boys' and girls' glee clubs, according to word received from that city. She was selected from a group of five who tried out for accompanist.

Skavlan is President of Glee Club
The boys' glee club elected officers for the year, October 9. Sigvald Skavlan was elected president. Howard Knapp was elected vice president. Lawrence Parks was elected secretary-treasurer. Don Ostrander was elected secretary. Janet Hampton was elected accompanist. Lawrence Parks was appointed librarian by the president. New members will be notified by the secretary and will be initiated into the club at some future date.

Hampton Heads Dramatic Club
At a meeting of the dramatic club Monday the following officers were elected: president, Janet Hampton; vice-president, Sigvald Skavlan; secretary-treasurer, Genevieve Elkins; and chairman of program committee, Orna Slattery. This committee will have charge of the plans for entertainment at the monthly meetings. The new members selected by tryouts will be notified and fully initiated into the club at a future date.

Much Bread and Milk Consumed
Twelve pullman loaves of bread and from twelve to fifteen gallons of milk are consumed daily by the students in the cafeteria. One hundred and twenty five salads from one hundred and fifty to two hundred deserts and seven or eight gallons of soups are prepared daily by the girls taking cafeteria training under the supervision of Miss Rita Norris. About 250 students take their lunch at the school cafeteria.

Girls Do Practice Work
The girls of the normal class are now doing work in practice teaching in the grades. The school board has voted the continuance of this work at the end of the year, this will probably be the last time the normal classes will be offered.

Marie Newwood is teaching fourth grade language at Lincoln school. Jane Taylor is assigned to third grade spelling at Patterson school. Velma Wood has third grade at Junior high school. Edith Bradham has third grade reading at Condon school. Crystalline Rouch is teaching fourth grade arithmetic at Junior high school. Joseph Loomis has fourth grade arithmetic at Patterson school. Ona Belle Simpson is teaching fifth grade geography at Condon. Gladys Bradley has second grade reading at Geary school. Ina Thousand has second grade writing and arithmetic at Junior high school. Margery Grant teaches second grade reading at Lincoln school. Isabelle Coffee teaches second grade reading at Washington school. Geneva Deming is teaching fourth grade language at the Washington. Norma Patterson has the third grade at Geary. Muriel Hardin will begin observation work at Geary next week as she is just starting this course.

Fire Drill Given
The first fire drill of the year was held Monday morning. It took 1 minute and 20 seconds for 825 students to leave the building.

Another drill was held Thursday at 9:20. Students were out of the building 30 seconds sooner than on the previous day.

Mental Test Given
Mental tests have been conducted in the first round commercial law class for the purpose of practice to the students that applied vocabulary is the better method to use in concentrating on their studies. Articles were read aloud and questions asked. The second round on improvement was noticed by the greater number of questions which were answered correctly.

Scout Gets Mimeograph
The automatic fed-mimeograph, which was used by the high school last year in the commercial department has been returned from the city office and installed in the commercial department. The hand fed machine which was returned to the superintendent's office. The commercial department which handles all the mimeograph work for the various other departments is now more properly equipped to turn out its work in record time.

Students Will Write to Music
Mimeograph records have been purchased through the commercial department for the penmanship classes. These will be used to aid the students in penmanship by writing to music. The mimeograph method of study for spelling has been tried out to determine if it produces better results than that of visualization.

Freshmen To Be Initiated
Freshmen will be initiated Friday, October 19. This is an annual event and all upper classmen look forward to it with much interest. The E. club to have charge of the initiation and plans are already being made to make this initiation a good one.

Principal Jones Addresses Nestorians
An interesting talk on debate was given by David J. Jones, principal of the school, at a meeting of the Nestorians on Tuesday evening. He summarized the benefits of the organization as the development of the ability to think and express oneself clearly, to organize facts, and to make one's personality better able to express himself and his personality.

The following were admitted into membership:
Marion Padlock, Garden Fairly and Sidney King.

Light refreshments were served.

Orn's Club Has Social Meeting
A social meeting for the members of the Orns club were held at the home of of Jeanne and Justine Ackerson. Friday evening. The evening was spent in playing, dancing and singing. At the next meeting the first lesson in the "Biology of Birds," a course given under the direction of the Extension Division of the University of Oregon, for which credit will be given there, will be completed.

Ballots Prepared by Commercial Students
Approximately 400 ballots, which were used for the election of glee club officers, were mimeographed by the commercial department last Monday. This department has charge of the cutting of all stenils and the running off of the copies of ballots for all student body affairs where the material does not need to be printed.

Orchestra Plays in Assembly
The orchestra has assumed its duty by playing at the regular assemblies. After the first appearance, more new students joined the organization. The orchestra now has a membership of 22 and is steadily growing. More stringed instruments are needed although any instruments can be used, according to Albert Perfect, director.

The band will play at the assembly and rally on Friday and will also go to Cottage Grove for the football game which is scheduled there for Saturday, October 20. This will be the first public appearance of the band and its work may easily be appreciated.

Yell Practice Held
Yell practice in front of the school building took place Thursday and Friday evening. This practice was for the purpose of getting the new students acquainted with the yells in order that they may be more useful at the athletic games.

Sciences Classes Large
Science classes are large this year, since about four hundred and twenty students are registered in the science courses, states William Thornton, head of the department. Of the 420 students registered, 200 are taking general science, 165 biology and 55 physics.

Latin Composition
The students studying Caesar have the compositions written once a week and the rest of the time is devoted to the translation and discussion of the book.

POPULAR SENIOR KILLED
Richard Myers, for three years a student of the Eugene high school, died in Portland Tuesday evening as the result of injuries received when he was crushed by a Southern Pacific train. Both legs were badly mangled and the loss of blood proved fatal. Dick was employed as a welder; he had finished his work and attempted to board a passenger train which only slowed down and did not stop. He fell and was caught beneath the wheels. He was well known in high school and was one of the most popular members of the senior class.

Funeral services were held at the Branstetter chapel, Friday morning at 10:30. Many high school students attended. Pallbearers were high school students: L. Patrick, A. Potampa, C. Potampa, C. Sanborn, C. Poterf, and M. Simpson.

Scrimmage Practice Held
The Eugene high school football team held scrimmage practice with the freshmen team of the University Saturday, October 6. A good workout was given the teams though the field was but a sea of mud. Coach Leslie used a number of men so that they might become nervousness always prevalent among green players.

Mock Trial Staged in Assembly
A mock trial was the feature of the assembly Wednesday morning. The trial was conducted by members of the Nestoria debating society of which P. E. Christensen is the head. Tom Hall was accused of stealing a purse from William Shultz. He was found guilty by the jury and his execution was carried out. Much real ability was displayed by the members of the cast. A seating arrangement by classes was announced by Principal Jones. The student body president, Gerald Snyder, urged the purchase of student body tickets and explained to the freshmen the duties they are expected to perform.

Art Students Do Variety of Work
A variety of work is being done in the various art classes under the supervision of Miss Fishwood. First semester art students have been working out original monographs from their own initiative. Several very clever and distinct designs have been completed. These pupils have also been working in letters of the Roman alphabet which they will work out later with the men.

Members of the advanced class have just completed their outdoor magazine cover designs, and their present work consists of rapid figure drawing which they find to be of unusual interest.

Each student is studying useful sketches to go in his "scrap library."

Footbal Men Injured.
Two men have received minor injuries while practicing on the football field. This has prevented them from taking part in the game. The injured players are, a junior, has his left shoulder dislocated, and the linemen, who were injured during the scrimmage on Tuesday, October 2, returned to school October 10. He plays half-back on the local team. As he is a letter-man much work was expected from him but he will be unable to play for some time.

Social Calendar is Planned
The social calendar for the first term was made by class presidents, class advisers, heads of organization and members of the executive council on Wednesday. This calendar is made at the beginning of the term in order to eliminate any conflicts which might occur otherwise.

WHERE TO WORSHIP IN EUGENE SUNDAY

(Continued on page eight)

FAIRMOUNT CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Corner of 17th and Columbia streets. E. M. Patterson, pastor. Rally Day at Fairmount Christian church is one week from next Sunday, or October 21. Communion is at work for a great day. Bible school at 9:45 a.m. Morning worship at 11 with the theme for discussion, "Truth: Its Promotions and Emphasis." The Christian Endeavor society gives promise of growth and renewed energy. It meets at 6:30 p.m. with new officers in charge. The theme for the evening service, meeting at 7:30, is, "How to Live a Christian in Spite of the Devil." Special attention is being given to the evening services and a large attendance is expected. Neighbors and friends are specially invited. Strangers are welcome.

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Corner of 17th and Columbia streets. Rev. E. L. Winterberger, acting minister, Reverend Bruce J. Giffen, University pastor. Sunday is Rally Day at Jefferson street chapel, and it is hoped that a number of Central people will attend and give the stimulus of their presence to the work being done at this point in our city. At the Home church, the Sunday school, under the leadership of the various departmental heads, with H. A. Sauls as superintendent, will welcome all to the various classes. The young men's class is growing and invites all young men to attend. Holy Communion will be celebrated at the hour for morning worship, 11 a.m., with appropriate remarks by the minister. The choir will sing, "Oh, For a Closer Walk with God," and Mr. Seifert will render the Communion Hymn. Reception of members at this service. The session will meet at 10:30 in the study.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Chapel street and Seventh corner. W. H. L. Marshall, pastor. Our Sunday school meets at 10 a.m. There are classes for all. The University students are invited to attend the young people's class taught by Mr. Marshall. Sunday is rally day. We look for a great crowd. If you do not go elsewhere we invite you to join one of our classes. Morning worship at 11. There will be a good program of music. The pastor will speak on "Sunday's Rally Day Call." There will be a reception of members. Come along and increase the crowd by one. You will enjoy the service. Christian Endeavor meeting at 5:30. Evening service at 7:30. The Women's Missionary club will meet on Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Oak and Eleventh streets. F. V. Stevens, pastor. The Great Rally Day is here. We are happy to announce the coming of the Rally and Dream Corns of Oregon who will furnish the music for the day. People are coming from all over the county and from many parts of the state. We confidently believe it will be the greatest day we have ever enjoyed. "Make the Liberty Bell Ring" is our plan and if the call of 1776 is sounded the Liberty Bell will ring. We are asking one person to come early so that we may be able to handle the tremendous throngs that will come. Singers: members Dr. Stevens speaks on the subject, "Christ in Old Glory." This will be a sermon unrecalled by all.

and members of the executive council of the Grand Army who will be our guests on that day. In the evening the great song service directed by Professor Hohzatt and the sermon by the pastor on the subject, "God's X-Ray." We are looking forward to the greatest day in our history and it is a joy to welcome our many friends. Our first Rally Day aim, now four and one half years ago, was for 300 present. There is quite a distance between that aim and the one of 1776, and it is demonstrated that it pays in a large way to have these great days. You will enjoy a most wonderful time if you attend. The time is 9:45. Come, rain or shine, for we must win.

FAIRMOUNT CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Corner of 17th and Columbia streets. E. M. Patterson, pastor. Rally Day at Fairmount Christian church is one week from next Sunday, or October 21. Communion is at work for a great day. Bible school at 9:45 a.m. Morning worship at 11 with the theme for discussion, "Truth: Its Promotions and Emphasis." The Christian Endeavor society gives promise of growth and renewed energy. It meets at 6:30 p.m. with new officers in charge. The theme for the evening service, meeting at 7:30, is, "How to Live a Christian in Spite of the Devil." Special attention is being given to the evening services and a large attendance is expected. Neighbors and friends are specially invited. Strangers are welcome.

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Corner of 17th and Columbia streets. Rev. E. L. Winterberger, acting minister, Reverend Bruce J. Giffen, University pastor. Sunday is Rally Day at Jefferson street chapel, and it is hoped that a number of Central people will attend and give the stimulus of their presence to the work being done at this point in our city. At the Home church, the Sunday school, under the leadership of the various departmental heads, with H. A. Sauls as superintendent, will welcome all to the various classes. The young men's class is growing and invites all young men to attend. Holy Communion will be celebrated at the hour for morning worship, 11 a.m., with appropriate remarks by the minister. The choir will sing, "Oh, For a Closer Walk with God," and Mr. Seifert will render the Communion Hymn. Reception of members at this service. The session will meet at 10:30 in the study.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Chapel street and Seventh corner. W. H. L. Marshall, pastor. Our Sunday school meets at 10 a.m. There are classes for all. The University students are invited to attend the young people's class taught by Mr. Marshall. Sunday is rally day. We look for a great crowd. If you do not go elsewhere we invite you to join one of our classes. Morning worship at 11. There will be a good program of music. The pastor will speak on "Sunday's Rally Day Call." There will be a reception of members. Come along and increase the crowd by one. You will enjoy the service. Christian Endeavor meeting at 5:30. Evening service at 7:30. The Women's Missionary club will meet on Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS
Announcements for this column must be in The Guard office not later than Friday noon.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, 9:45, OCTOBER 14TH AT THE

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

H STREETS

A HEARTY INVITATION

People will attend from different parts of the county and state. Join the great throngs and enjoy the celebration of the day.

CLAUDE GRAY, superintendent, extends to all a hearty invitation

Growth of this Sunday School

has been wonderful. Our first Rally Day Aim was for 300—that was a little more than four years ago. Our record attendance is 1666.—Sunday we break all former records. You'll miss a great day if you miss our Rally Day.

OUR AIM 1776

MAKE THE LIBERTY BELL RING.