Spencer Butte Meeting—The Spencer Butte Progressive Community club has decided to postpone its next meeting until the roads are in better condition. Winter road and weather conditions permit the regular bi-weekly meetings will be resumed.

Paris Youth Dies—News has been received here of the death of Kenneth Ryan of Paris, Lane county, in the tuberculosis sanitarium in Salem. Funeral services were held in Albany, and the body was taken to Paris for burial.

Lake to Get Trout—Eastern brook trout will be stocked in Triangle lake in order to develop an egg-taking station there. It has been announced by A. E. Burghoff, state game warden, who was a Eugene visitor Saturday on his way south. The trout will be taken from the McKenzie hatchery to the lake.

Building Permits Issued—Building permits have been issued to M. D. Bessell for the construction of a garage at 400 Fifteenth avenue east, to cost approximately $150, and to Harry Wither for the building of a cottage at 1545 Jefferson street, to cost $500.

Makes Record—When E. A. Paxton made 150 points out of 100 shots and scored 20 rings as a special feature, it is believed he set a horseshoe pitching record in Eugene and vicinity. He made this mark on the Franklin boulevard courts Saturday evening. H. C. Cook had been high man, with 145 points out of 100 shots.

Funeral Services Held—Funeral services for E. E. Knickerbocker of the Deadwood Ferry district were held this morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Veitch chapel, Rev. J. E. Haas of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating. Burial was in the Laurel Hill cemetery.

Southworth Service Held—Funeral services were held in Salem this morning for Dr. Charles W. Southworth. The body was shipped to Eugene, and burial took place at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the U. O. O. E. cemetery. Rev. H. W. Davis of Eugene officiated.

Swimming Contest Held—Finals in the 10-year swim, a part of the series of athletic contests by members of the junior leaders corps of the Y. M. C. A. were staged Saturday. Results were announced as follows: Barrie, 28; G. Eberhart, 23; Bessomette, 21.

Jaffries 20; McDonald, 20; Pickens, 21; Addison, 22; Lammont, 22; Sprague, 26.

Fishers Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fisher and family of Fruitland, Washington, are visiting at the home of Mr. Fisher's father, H. M. Fisher, of Albany. They plan to visit here for the next week or ten days.

Fullerton Body Shipped—The body of Ralph Fullerton, who died at a local hospital Saturday morning, was shipped Sunday to Alaska, where services took place.

Leaves On Vacation—Capt. E. C. Rowland of the Eugene hospital executive staff has left for Portland, where he will spend the next few days on a vacation trip. His place at the hospital is being taken by Mrs. E. L. Bunker.

Home to Be Spoken—Rev. J. F. Hays, now pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Eugene, will be the speaker of the day at the luncheon of the Rotary club in the Osburn hotel Tuesday noon. Rev. Hays will speak on "Other Rotary clubs." He was a Rotarian at Beatrice, Nebraska, his former home. L. L. Graham, district freight and passenger agent of the S. P. here, will give a brief talk and a musical program will be given under the direction of John Stark Evans.

Home is Sold—E. W. Washby has sold his home on Kincaid street to Fred and Anna Wolfe. It was announced today, Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe will take possession on February 1, and Shelby will move to the west side, where he has purchased a home. The deal was handled through the W. E. Cooper Realty company.

Printers Visit Corvallis—Nine members of the Eugene Typographical union took a trip to Corvallis Sunday afternoon to attend the meeting of the Willamette Valley group. Typographical union members from Salem, Albany, Corvallis and Eugene attended. After the business session a banquet was served at the Lily confectionery shop. The next meeting will be held in Albany in April.

Junior High Wins—The Wendling high school went down to defeat at the hands of the Junior High school quintet Saturday evening at the local Y. M. C. A. by the close score of 17 to 15. Eugene lined up with Burleigh and Pickens at forwards, Baird at center, and Murray and Fellers at guards. Wendling used Keeler and Arnold at forwards, Taylor at center, and Shelton and Pratt at guards. E. E. Holman, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., refereed.

Grazing Outlook Good—M. J. Beals, Alf Stewart and Henry Walker, members of the advisory committee of the Upper Willamette Stock Raisers' association, were in Eugene on Saturday afternoon to confer with Nelson F. Macduff, supervisor of the Cascade national forest, relative to grazing problems of the forest service this year. Indications are that from 10 to 25 percent more cattle will be grazed in the forest this season than last, according to Macduff.

Is Seeking Brother—A letter has been received by the local police from J. K. Numam of Hezmeton, seeking information as to the whereabouts of his brother, Albert Numam. The Hezmeton man says that he last heard from his brother five months ago when he received a card from Mrs. Numam stating that Albert was in a hospital here. They were stopping with Walter Park. The letter said.

To Portland—To conduct a legal fight against certain wage claims filed by construction workers against the Willson Contracting company, Lane county and the Southern Pacific, Attorneys L. E. Bean and John M. Williams of this city have gone to Portland, District Attorney Johnson and Commissioner Shury have also left for the trip, as the county is involved, although to a minor degree. The wage claims grew out of differences in the road job in western Lane where the S. P. replaces the highway it took several years ago for railroad right-of-way.

NEIHARDT PLEASES UNIVERSITY CROWD—John G. Nehardt, the poet laureate of Nebraska, who appeared in Villard hall at the University Saturday evening, was well received. The first part of his program consisted of poems of his native Nebraska. The second part was a deal with the life of the village in which he was born. The second part of his program consisted of a cycle of poems which he called "The Cycle of the West." In these poems he dealt with the growth of the west, the life of the pioneer, the life of the man of the land by the waters, the life of the man of the great western migration, the life of the man who read and studied, the life of the man who dealt with the people of the world, the life of the man who dealt with the people of the world.

A Raw, Sore Throat
Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuritis, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains in the sides of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds on the chest. Keep it handy for instant use.

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c. Jars and tubes; hospital size, $3.00.
