

AGGIES PREPARED TO GIVE OREGON A REAL SURPRISE

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 21.—(Special).—From the roofs of the 35 fraternity houses and most of the 18 sororities this week is blazoned forth by day and night in huge illuminated Homecoming signs the confidence of thousands of students in a victory Saturday for the orange and black over the lemon-yellow.

The spirit of the campus is reflected in the squad of players and the team is running through its final practices with a snap and precision.

born of confidence in the outcome of the big game of the year. Coach Schuler is saying nothing as usual, but from sources close to him comes the information that he shares the optimism of the team and is more pleased than any time this season with the showing of the men. This in spite of the fact that he started the W. S. C. game with eight sophomores in the lineup and may do the same against Oregon.

Heavy scrimmage for the season is over and this week has been devoted to perfecting a defense against Oregon plays as attempted by the root squad against the varsity. The Aggies are determined to stop the march of Jones for yardage even as Minnesota smothered "Red" Grange last week. Meanwhile they are preparing to do considerable marching themselves with Schulerick and Solder.

Oregon is expected to do all in her power to stop the mighty punting of "Fritz" Tebb, sensational kicking end who is expected to greatly outclass Anderson in booting. Mautz of Oregon prides himself on his blocking ability but he will find the Aggies far from unprepared for his assaults.

The game will start promptly at 1:30, an hour earlier than usual, to avoid any danger of darkness and to permit the Aggies to leave early for Nebraska, where they play an inter-sectional Thanksgiving game.

THREE GAMES ARE ON SCHEDULE FOR THIS AFTERNOON

Three important high school games are on tap this afternoon, when Eugene meets Albany at Albany, Junction City clashes with Springfield at Springfield, and Lebanon comes up for a struggle with Cottage Grove at Cottage Grove.

A host of high school enthusiasts took the trip this afternoon for the Eugene-Albany game. School was dismissed for the afternoon, in order to allow the high school students to make the trip without missing classes.

The game is expected to be hard-fought, though Eugene is expected to emerge triumphant.

The Cottage Grove-Lebanon clash should be close and hard-fought, according to the temperaments of both teams.

Junction City and Springfield are about evenly matched, according to the records of both teams, and the battle should prove interesting in spite of the rain.

5000 SEATS READY FOR GRID CLASSIC

No one in Eugene need stay away from the Oregon-Aggie football game Saturday because of inability to obtain seats, announces Jack Benefiel, graduate manager of the University of Oregon. A block of 5000 seats in the newly-erected unit to the stadium at the south end of Bell field were received by Mr. Benefiel today, and went on sale this morning.

These seats are all under cover. Mr. Benefiel says, and this part of the stadium has been built high to overcome any difficulty in seeing the game from the south part of the field. They are much more desirable than the bleacher seats occupied by the students.

The special S. P. train will leave the campus at Villard hall promptly at 11 o'clock, and the S. P. station in town. Returning, it will again stop at Villard hall to enable students to get to their organizations in time for dinner.

REPORT SAYS THAT CORNELL HAS QUIT

PORTLAND, Nov. 21.—(Special).—Hostilities between officials of Drain, Ore., and the Oregon State Motor association were thought ended Wednesday when word of the resignation of C. E. Cornell, traffic officer against whom the objections had been raised, was received.

"Although we don't know what the next move will be, the merchants of the town told us yesterday that they thought their troubles were over," said George O. Brandenburg, state manager of the association, who has been leading the fight against the speed officers in that town. The state association immediately telegraphed congratulations to the merchants of Drain who had opposed Cornell's activities.

Tourist trade in the stores of Drain was said to have fallen off 50 per cent after reports went out of the vigorous activities of the speed officers. Early in the summer merchants noted the decreased business and erected signs warning travelers of the vigilant patrol and expressing messages of friendliness.

It was indicated, according to Mr. Brandenburg, that although the recent election brought victory for the "law enforcement ticket," the new city recorder was unfavorable to the strenuous program. It was thought improbable that another speed officer would be employed to take Cornell's place, inasmuch as the town's ability to pay a man depended largely on the number of fines from outside motorists.

STANFORD GIVEN AN EVEN CHANCE

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 21.—For six years the California football team has won the annual duel with its nearest rival, Stanford. But in the battle here tomorrow which incidentally will decide the coast championship, Stanford for the first time in recent years, is given an even chance by most critics of the game. Betting is reported without odds.

Stanford and California began their annual competition in 1892. Since California has won 11 times, Stanford seven and four games were ties. This accounts only for the games of American football. The coaches were conservative in their last minute statements. Said Glenn Warner, of Stanford: "I believe the Stanford boys have not yet shown their full strength." Andy Smith of California commented tersely: "We're going in there to fight."

CLEVELAND BARRED

PALO ALTO, Cal., Nov. 21.—Norman Cleveland, star halfback on the Stanford university football team, has been barred from entering the coast championship game against the University of California at Berkeley on Saturday, on the ground that he violated the conference rules by playing in more than three years of varsity competition.

RALPH SPEAROW HOME FROM HIS TOUR OF JAPAN

Glad that he had made the trip, but glad, also, to be home again, Rev. Ralph Spearow, former University of Oregon pole vaulter and a member of the 1924 American team at the Olympic games in Paris, returned to Eugene Thursday evening, enroute to Cottage Grove, his home. For some time he has been in Japan, doing exhibition work.

Upon his arrival in Cottage Grove later in the evening, he was met by the "Hinkydinks," and taken to his home on West Main street in a wheelbarrow driven by the members of the organization.

Contrary to a telegraphic report, Mr. Spearow declared that his ankle was not broken.

He brought back with him a large number of trophies and prizes, won on exhibition tour of Japan. Every where he went, he said Thursday evening, he was accorded the most courteous treatment by the Japanese, and his trip was made very enjoyable.

He entered several meets on exhibition work, and surprised the crowds on numerous occasions by out-vaulting the best the Japanese had to offer by nearly two feet. While on the islands, he tied the record he made at the University of Oregon, and which now stands as the world's intercollegiate pole vault record. He also tried for a world's vault record, but failed by a scant margin.

to meet Yale tomorrow. The squad included 40 players and a staff of coaches.

Phil Spaulding, quarterback, who was hurt in the Brown game and Leney Robb, an end, carried crutches. Erwin Gehrk, star backfield man and Eddie Nash, tackle, had cases. Sam Borski, half back, left the infirmary where he had been confined two days with a cold to join the squad.

MID-WEST GAMES DRAW ATTENTION

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—When western conference coaches shouted today "that's all" and their proteges trooped from their fields, the curtain rang down on more than two months of football practice and preparations for tomorrow's games on which so much depends, were complete.

Two types of football were in prospect of display in Chicago in the Chicago-Wisconsin and Northwestern-Notre Dame games, which held the center of mid-western football interest.

Chicago and Wisconsin each had a line smashing game ready for their tilt, which the Maroons must win to be declared undisputed western conference champions.

An open game was expected to develop in the meeting of Notre Dame and Northwestern before a capacity crowd here. The hard tackling defense of the Rockmen was anticipated by the purple, which has prepared trick plays and forward passing tactics to overcome the menace.

Michigan reviewed its repertoire and added additional formations to spring on Iowa in its last practice of the season.

Ohio State, en route to Urbana to attempt to deduct further from the prestige Illinois lost to Minnesota, held a light workout at Danville, Ill. Indiana was ready for its invasion of Purdue's camp at Lafayette.

STEIN-BLOCH SMART CLOTHES

NEWS

We understand the camphor ball business is slowing down. Auto tops are going up—and ulsters are coming in.

A STEIN-BLOCH "Ennweather" has the right weight and feel for a cool October and crisp November day. Shower proof, also.

To paraphrase a popular slogan: "Only STEIN-BLOCH can tailor a STEIN-BLOCH."

TASTY ADVICE for THANKSGIVING

ROAST YOUR TURKEY IN OUR KITCHEN

It will be interesting to know that we have Heinz plum and fig pudding in prepared form—3 sizes—ready to serve after it is heated a little.

Prepared Mincemeat

Mincemeat already prepared and in jars are available, or if home-made mincemeat is your desire, we have it.

Charming Delectables

Cluster raisins, by the pound; dates, figs, dried fruits, such as candied citron, orange, and lemon peel, apricots and peaches will add a good bit to the Thanksgiving table.

We have a beautiful line of candies in box and bulk that would pay you to notice.

NATIONAL CANNED FOODS WEEK IS OVER BUT

Not with us. You can always save at The Table Supply by purchasing your canned goods in assorted or straight lots by the dozen or case. Market conditions with canned goods are very serious. By next season the market will be bare. This is general all over the country and was caused by unfavorable weather conditions. Our advice is to anticipate your needs and lay in a supply.

Thanksgiving Meats

With every half or whole Premium ham purchased here this week a package of Brookfield Pork Sausage will accompany it. You will like both the ham and the sausage.

Fancy capons, chickens, ducks, geese and turkeys of the usual Table Supply quality are available, but order early to insure the sizes you prefer.

200 TURKEYS ARE BOUGHT FOR SHOOT

Approximately 200 corn-fattened Thanksgiving turkeys will be offered as prizes Sunday at the American Legion's turkey shoot at the municipal aviation field, according to W. N. Wintler, chairman of the committee putting on the shoot.

"All shooters will be classified," says Mr. Wintler, "and one or two of the traps will be used by amateur shooters only. This is done to make it possible for shooters to compete with men in their own class, and to prevent expert shooters from taking all the turkeys."

Keno games will also be conducted for turkeys. The shooting will begin at 9 o'clock and last all day. Shelter will be provided for everyone in case it rains. Luncheon will be served on the grounds.

OUTGROWN Our Present Location

We wish to thank our many friends for their liberal patronage during the eight years we have conducted the barber shop in the U. S. National bank building.

Saturday, Nov. 22, we are opening a six chair shop with ladies' and children's hair cutting department and beauty parlor in the Odd Fellows building on Oak street. One of the most complete in the state of Oregon.

Something free with each kiddies hair cut during the opening week.
