

MANY CHANGES IN OFFICE TAKE PLACE MONDAY

Most Important In State Is That Of Treasurer, Filled By Mr. Kay

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 1.—Changes in the heads of state, county, district and municipal offices resulting from the election of last November will take place next Monday.

The most important office in the state to change management will be the state treasurer, T. B. Kay, republican will succeed Jefferson Myers, democrat, the change also meaning the transfer of the state from democratic to republican control, inasmuch as the treasurer, the governor and the secretary of state form the board of control. The election of Kay leaves Governor Pierce the only democrat on the board.

In the public service commission Edward Ostrander, republican, heretofore secretary of the commission, will succeed Newton McCoy, democrat, who was elected in the recall election of a few years ago.

On the supreme court bench a new member will be Judge Harry A. Holt, of Dallas, elected to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Justice John McCourt, Justice O. P. Coshaw, who was appointed by Governor Pierce to succeed Justice Lawrence T. Harris, who resigned, was elected in November to succeed himself.

There will be no other changes in state offices, Secretary of State Koster was re-elected.

In Marion county offices, J. T. Hunt, republican, succeeds W. H. Downing, democrat, as county judge, Downing was appointed early in the year by Governor Pierce to succeed the late Judge W. M. Bushy, John Porter of Silverton succeeds Hunt as county commissioner.

Another important change will be the shifting of the office of justice of the peace from P. J. Kuntz, republican to Brazier C. Small, democrat.

COMMISSIONER IS OUSTED BY GUARDS

RENER, Jan. 1.—Officials of the Colorado national guard at the order of Governor W. E. Sweet yesterday removed W. V. Roberts, civil service commissioner from his office, carried him into the hallway at the state capitol and took his keys from him.

Roberts did not make any physical resistance. He merely notified the military officers that he had been advised by his attorney to resist the order from office. The military officers carried out their work in a friendly manner. There was no disorder.

COLONY IS FORESEEN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Creation of a vast colony of Alaskians in the Imperial valley of California on land that inevitably would be irrigated by the Colorado river if the proposed Boulder canyon dam is constructed, was predicted before the senate irrigation committee by George H. Maxwell of Arizona, who said he represented the National Reclamation association.

Inheritance Tax Department Takes In Strong Total

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 1.—A report issued yesterday by State Treasurer Myers says that in the inheritance tax department during 1924, a total of $114,047.71 was received and turned over to the general fund of the state.

There was an unrecipitated balance at the close of the year of $75,870.74. Nine hundred cases were filed with the department during the year.

There were ten cases of litigation during the year. These involved the estates of Bernard Daly, R. Ball, Charles D. Howles, Ella L. Woodward, Moses Barub, George W. Lawrence, George F. Lutdingtons, Irvin Butterworth, Frederick Anderson and Catherine Petrus. Four of these have been completed and settled and others are in various processes of controversy.

The Bernard Daly case, involving over $150,000 has been appealed to the supreme court.

Mother Bear Holds Cow While Her Cub Enjoys Good Lunch

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 1.—(Special).—Here in the prize nature story of the year. A tourist who visited Glacier national park last summer swears to having seen an indulgent mother bear holding a range cow by the horns and nose while her two cubs greedily helped themselves to bony's milk.

This story reached the bureau of national parks today when Charley Black, a ranchman of the Glacier national park reservation came to town.

Portland's Shipping Year Breaks Record

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 1.—Portland closed its shipping year with all past records far outdistanced.

Based on Merchants Exchange figures for the first 11 months of the year for exports domestic business and conservatively estimated figures for the last month on the domestic commerce and import business, Portland's water commerce for 1924 amounts to $257,202,200.

Merchants Exchange records put 1923's total at $242,431,641 and 1922's at $180,512,601.

FAMOUS MADISON SQUARE GARDEN TO PASS INTO HISTORY

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Before another new year, the Madison Square Garden of today will be no more. A little way uptown, however, at Seventh avenue and Fifth street will loom a new structure bearing the same name, although it will be some distance removed from Madison Square at 29th street.

The Garden, the scene of the shooting of Stanford White by Harry Thaw, the democratic convention of 1924, and numerous championship boxing bouts, circuses, rodeos and cycle races, will begin its journey into the past, May 6. On that day the statue of Diana, which has looked upon a New York making strides in progress will come down.

Festival Marks End
Tex Rickard, who came out of the west to make the Garden the world's sport center, with the aid of John Ringling, has announced that its passing will be mourned by a three-night festival, with officials of the national and state governments in attendance.

Out of the pages of history will come the champions of boxers in the old days, the greatest of the bicycle riders of the past, circus performers and track and field athletes.

Arthur Zimmerman of high wheel fame, will be there according to present plans. So will Dan O'Leary, Gus Guerrero and Peter Hegelman. From the world of pugilism, will come the Jims, Jeffries and Corbett, and Franks, Klaus and Ernie; the Johnny, Kilbane and Coulton, Abe Attell and many others.

Boxers Matched
The champions of today, at least two of them, are expected to risk their titles during those eventful three days. Harry Greb, Pittsburgh's middleweight champion, and Eddie "Cannonball" Martin of Brooklyn, recently crowned king of bantamweight are scheduled to appear.

On the first night, Rickard has planned a reception and dance, then there will be "survivors' night," when all of the old masters will appear, and the climax will come with forty rounds of boxing on the eve of the Garden's demise.

The boxing will be followed by dancing until four o'clock in the morning, when the lights will be dimmed, the band will play "Auld Lang Syne" and the crowd will file out of the famous old structure for the last time.

White House Opens Doors For the Day

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The doors of the White House were opened wide today for the customary new year's reception.

Three hours and a half—from 11 a. m. to 2:30 p. m.—were given over to the old New Year's day custom under which the high and low, the rich and poor, gather at the White House to extend greetings to the president and his wife.

The order of the reception followed that laid down years ago, starting with the members of the cabinet and their wives and continuing with the diplomatic corps, the chief justice and the members of the supreme court and the other branches of the judiciary, the army, navy, and marine corps, the heads of the independent agencies of the government, officials and members of patriotic organizations and the general public.

The reception, as usual, was the feature of New Year's day observance in Washington. The Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes, were hosts at the customary breakfast at the Pan-American Union to members of the diplomatic corps, and most of the members of the cabinet had reserved the rest of the day to hold open house at their homes following the White House reception.

Congress was not in session and the government departments were shut down for the holiday.

Tragedy Mars New Year For Denver

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 1.—Denver opened the new year with a tragedy, the culmination of a lovers' quarrel. After joyously celebrating the advent of 1925, Charles Betner, Globeville, a suburb, shot and killed his fiancée, Miss Mae Ludwick, of Denver after a quarrel, then fired a shot at her sister. It went wild. He then attempted to end his own life by slashing his throat with a razor. He was removed to a hospital, physicians said, in a dying condition. The shooting occurred in Miss Ludwick's home.

Fiery, Itchy Skin Quickly Soothed With Sulphur

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing soothes fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.

CLIMBERS SCALE HEIGHTS DURING MOUNTAIN GALE

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Jan. 1.—Fighting their way through a snowstorm borne on the wings of a mountain gale, five intrepid climbers scaled the treacherous heights of Pike's peak yesterday to uphold the tradition of the Adaman club, an organization which for years has celebrated the coming of each new year by staging a display of fireworks from the brow of the Arctic peak.

Early in the morning the quintet of climbers began the ascent in one of the worst blizzards of the winter. Thousands of residents watched through the early hours after dusk for the sky rockets, which would announce the safe arrival of the party at the summit. At nine o'clock the flares shot skyward lighting for miles around the frozen ranges of the Rocky mountains.

At midnight another burst of fireworks turned the gray mountain sky into a kaleidoscope of color as the advent of a new year was heralded. Shortly after midnight the one new member, which the Adaman club accepts each year, was initiated.

Mrs. Ashcroft's Remarkable Recovery After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Covington, Ky.—"I was so weak and nervous I could hardly do my household work. I could not stand because of the bearing-down pains in my back and abdomen. I sat down most of the time and did what I could do in that way—washing dishes, etc.

One day a book describing Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine was put in my mail-box. I saw how the Vegetable Compound had helped others so I gave it a trial. I had to take about a dozen bottles before I gained my strength but I certainly praise this medicine. Then I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood medicine for poor blood. I was cold all the time. I would be so cold I could hardly sit still and in the palms of my hands there would be drops of sweat. I also used the Sanative Wash and I recommend it also. You may publish this letter and I will gladly answer letters from women and advise my neighbors about these medicines."—Mrs. HARRY ASHCROFT, 632 Beech Avenue, Covington, Kentucky.

Speaking of New Year's Resolutions

Here's a New Year's resolution that's as easy to keep as it is to make. It reads like this: Whereas the year 1925 contains 52 weeks, with 52 washdays, and Whereas washdays claim almost two months of my time during the year: Therefore, I resolve to use the laundry's Thrif-T-service during the year and save one day every week. For Thrif-T-service does all of the washing and irons all of the flat work. The remaining articles are returned damp, ready to starch, iron or hang up to dry. And the price is suited to any family's budget. Make this resolution—and save 52 days during the new year.

Our Resolution

Whereas we are grateful for the many friends who have contributed to our success and

Whereas we are convinced that to give the best values is the only way to gain that success that converts customers into friends, we are therefore

Resolved to avoid all unnecessary overhead expenses and continue to give our customers the benefit of all savings we are able to make. And be it further

Resolved that it shall be our purpose to render the best service that we may merit both respect and confidence.

Resolved that the sincerity of our wish for a Happy New Year will be proven daily by the sincerity of our purpose in serving you.

Resolved:

That we, the management and staff of Wetherbee-powers extend to our many friends and patrons wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

That in 1925 we will maintain the same high standards that have given us the confidence of our many friends, and we will put forth every effort to further deserve this confidence.

That we will continue our policy of big values, realizing that only in this way can we increase sales and thereby keep pace with prosperity.

That we are grateful for our customers' good will and patronage.
