Miss Ruth Lane's Engagement Is Announced

At a bridge and mah jong party given Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lane the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Lane to H. Mason King was announced. Little Miss Doris Edwards dressed as a little boy came in to sell early colored balloons to the guests, and as the balloons were broken, cards fell out announcing the betrothal.

Those hidden for the afternoon were Miss Eunice Zimmerman, Mrs. George Basford, Mrs. Adine Mickelson, Dorothy Lower, Humphrey, Miss Helen Dicker, Miss Beatrice Morris, Miss Winnie Morris, Miss Betty Lewis, Miss Florence Van Meter, Miss Gladys Yoder, Miss Uliola Stratton, Miss Jane Robb, Miss Lorraine Taylor.

Miss Lane is visiting in Eugene here, having returned from the University of Oregon where she has been associated with the Swarthmore Chautauqua for the last two years. She plans to return to the east for another year. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon and is a member of Delta Zeta. Mr. King is a graduate of the University of Missouri and is affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity.

Mrs. Fred Chess entertained on Monday afternoon at the annual Christmas party of the Kill Kare Club at her home. There was a Christmas tree and exchange of gifts. Mrs. J. H. Dunphy will entertain the club on January 8.

At a large tea given in Portland Saturday afternoon Miss Helene Tyrroll announced her engagement to Merriman Holland Holtz. The announcement is of interest to many in Eugene as Miss Tyrroll is a student at the University of Oregon where she is a member of Gamma Phi Beta. Mr. Holtz has only recently come from Cleveland to make his home in Portland. He is a graduate of Culver Military academy of Culver, Indiana. No date has as yet been announced for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Swan were hosts for the meeting of the Tillamook club last evening at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Loomis and sons, Robert and Frank, Jr., returned to their home in Portland this week after visiting over Christmas with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Fred E. Smith had as a guest this week, Mrs. A. McKnight of London, North Dakota. Mrs. McKnight was on her way to California, leaving New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Todd were among holiday visitors in Eugene being guests of Mrs. Todd's mother, Mrs. Charles Joerg, and sister, Mrs. Allen Andrews.

Mrs. Nellie Hasbrouck left last evening for Los Angeles on her way to her home in Passaic, New Jersey. She has been visiting in Eugene for the past few months at the home of her cousin, Henry F. Bergeron.

Mrs. W. I. Westerfield was among the visitors leaving Eugene this week after spending the holidays with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Westerfield.

Eugeneans were greatly interested in the announcement this week of the marriage of Miss Gayle Acton to Robert S. Krenson which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Acton in Portland last Sunday afternoon. The wedding was at four o'clock, Dr. W. W. Youngson performing the ceremony before a group of intimate friends. The bride was attended by Misses Margaret Dunniway and Doris Pittenger, and Donald C. Robert of Salem acted as best man. The bride wore a gown of beaded georgette slanting from pink to deep fuchsia. A reception followed the ceremony. Miss Acton graduated from the University of Oregon in 1923 and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

New Year's day coming on Thursday of this week, members of the L. O. E. club did not hold their regular session, postponing the meeting until Thursday, January 15.

The annual dinner party and meeting planned for New Year's eve by the College Crest Community club was postponed until a later date. Election of officers will be held when the meeting does take place.

Surprising news received in Eugene this week was that telling of the marriage of Miss Grace Edgington to Leonard Beck Jordan at noon Tuesday in Portland. Mrs. Jordan is known to hundreds of Eugeneans, having been at the University of Oregon, having left last spring for Sisters, Ore., to make her home. She is a graduate of the university and is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, and of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalistic fraternity of which she is a past national organizer. Mrs. Jordan also taught in the school of journalism and the department of English, and for a time was acting dean of women at the university. She was at on time with the Morning Register. She has had a number of stories and poems published. Mr. Jordan is also a graduate of the university.

Cards have been sent out by Omicron chapter of Delta Zeta for a tea to be given at Alumni hall of the Woman's building, Saturday, January 10, complimenting Mrs. Grace Russell, house chaperone.

In compliment to Miss Margaret Tingle and her guest, Miss Janet Alexander of Portland, Miss Lillian Tingle entertained informally Monday evening at her home.

On New Year's night members of N. U. A. club gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Smith for their meeting. Following the dinner bridge was played.

Wednesday Bridge club members were entertained this week by Mrs. George N. Frazer at her home.

Outstanding on the calendar for the coming week will be the Twelfth Night party and banquet for which members of Shakespeare club will entertain at the Osburn hotel Tuesday evening, January 6. The affair is the one social function of the year for the club and is an occasion on which a large number of guests are entertained. It will be given in the hotel tea room at six forty-five o'clock. The committee in charge of the party is Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, Mrs. Frederick G. Jennings, Mrs. O. R. Gullion, Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff.

U. D. club members will be guests this coming Thursday, January 8 of Mrs. Henry Hollenbeck for their regular meeting.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Eric W. Merrell were hosts to members of the Monday Dinner club. Bridge was the diversion of the evening. For the next meeting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holden will entertain.

Eugene circle, No. 16, Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet on Thursday, January 8. Installation ceremonies for new officers will be held Friday, January 9.

Following the business meeting of the Ladies of the G. A. R. last Saturday afternoon at the post rooms of the armory, an interesting program was given for members of the circle, and for all comrades and their wives. Robert and Ruth Clark gave recitations, Miss McIntyre gave an instrumental solo, and Lorraine Wallace entertained with a whistling solo. Following the program the annual Christmas tree of the group was held with presents for all. In the afternoon hours, a delightfully informal buffet luncheon was served with the following committee in charge: Mrs. C. J. Buley, Mrs. Irene Orton, Mrs. Mary Lindley, Mrs. Ethel Plank, Mrs. Louise Harrison, Mrs. McDowell. About forty persons enjoyed the pleasures of the afternoon.

Dinner Parties Given Before Club Dance

Poinsettias massed in dark green leaves together with a riotous array of colored balloons and shaded lights made a gala setting for the Assembly club dance given New Year's eve at the Laraway hall, and which was attended by sixty or more couples. Patrons and patronesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Frank McTaggart, Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donahue, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Kelly, Ben Dorris.

Numerous dinner parties were given preceding the dance, one of the larger being given at the College Side Inn. It was a no-host affair and those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn S. McCready, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bonfield, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ables, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Burnett of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Paine of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Waller, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moxley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grady. Following the dance the party went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ables for a midnight supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McTaggart were hosts for a dinner party at the Osburn, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. M. Tuft, Mrs. Rollo Drain, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rupp, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Rowling, J. A. McLean.

Another no-host dinner was enjoyed at the J. T. Barrett home, attending which were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mauerud, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Stickle, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Roome, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barrett.

Shakespeare club members met Monday to make up the unity of the play, "Hamlet," under the supervision of Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp. Members are studying in preparation for the presentation of the play here January 10 by Fritz Leiber.

Mrs. H. O. Inan and Mrs. C. C. Kiestler were joint hostesses at a New Year's dinner, given in honor of Mrs. Clarence Graver of Portland, at the home of Mrs. Kiestler. It was an old fashioned dinner, the silverware and decorations being arranged to bring out the quaintness of an old-fashioned spirit. Following the dinner the afternoon was spent with games and conversation. Guests for the occasion were Mrs. Graver, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Able and son, Alvin, Ed Kreamer, W. G. Tromp.

LONE PINE

To spend a most pleasant afternoon, Thursday, December 11, the Lone Pine sewing circle gathered at the home of Mrs. W. F. Brisbane. After the regular meeting three boxes of clothing were packed for the children's home at Corvallis. In keeping with the holiday spirit a Christmas tree with a gift for everyone present was enjoyed. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in conversation and needlework, at the close of which a delicious two-course lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Ed Lindler. Guests of the circle for the afternoon were Mrs. McCormack and Mrs. S. Foster. Members present were Mrs. J. C. Williams, Mrs. Everett Kirk, Mrs. F. D. Rice, Mrs. Harry Schenk, Mrs. Albert Dale, Mrs. Lacin, Mrs. Ed Lindler, Mrs. Fickel, Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mrs. Bailechack, Mrs. Walter South, Mrs. Emmet Howard, Mrs. H. L. The Old And New Year Vie In Activities

The past week divided as it was with three days for the old year and three for the new year was an unusual and interesting as would surely be desired by those who entertain as well as by those who ever participate in social activity. Tea and sewing parties, afternoons of bridge and mah jong, dinner parties, dances, and a host of engagement and wedding announcements came in rapid succession. New Year's eve was a time of much merriment that seemed to concentrate in one night the past year's spirit of gaiety as hundreds of individuals and members of clubs and fraternal organizations entertained in numerous ways to welcome the coming year.

Mrs. Steelquist Honored At Bridge Tea

Mrs. Dan Johnston was hostess for a charmingly informal small bridge tea Tuesday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. R. U. Steelquist (Pamela Davis) who was visiting this week from Portland at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Davis. Margolias were used about the rooms and tables as decorations.

Four Entertain At Two Large Affairs

Mrs. J. N. Gulliford, Mrs. William T. Gordon, Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, and Mrs. Walter C. Barnes were hostesses for two very attractive affairs of the holiday weeks when they entertained on Friday afternoon and this afternoon at the Pi Beta Phi sorority house as the first of a series of parties which they are planning for January. Cards were sent, to eighty for each afternoon which was given over to a charmingly informal time of needlework.
