

JIMMY O'CONNELL IS REMOVED FROM BASKETBALL TEAM

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—Jimmy O'Connell, former New York National league baseball player, suspended from organized baseball on his admission that he offered a bribe, to a player on an opposing team, will not be permitted to play in any professional basketball team in San Francisco, according to Dan Maher, president of the league, which has signed O'Connell and dropped him yesterday on receipt of protests from John A. Heydler, president of the National league. The team in the professional basketball circuit on which O'Connell was expected to play in a season beginning next Saturday bears the title of the Adam and Eve team, named after a perfume manufacturing company which backs it financially. On it were also signed George Kelly, first baseman of the Giants; Sammy Bohne, Cincinnati infielder; Bert Cole, former Detroit pitcher; "Wee" Ludolph of the Veteran club in the Pacific Coast league; "Ivan" Kelly of the Texas league and "Imp" Begley, formerly with Cincinnati.

Prompt action by the officials of the eight club commercial basketball circuit in response to the protest from the president of the National basketball league, means that O'Connell, former baseball and basketball star in a college near San Francisco will not be able to take part in professional basketball game in his home this winter.

PRESIDENTS MAY ACT
NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—(AP)—President John A. Heydler of the National league and Manager John J. McGraw of the Giants await further word from the Pacific before taking any action regarding the reported membership of Jimmy O'Connell, barred from baseball, and George Kelly of the Giants and Sammy Bohne of the Reds.

New York baseball circles were disturbed by the news yesterday and President Heydler immediately sent a telegram to the coast asking for details. In the president's opinion, the National league will take up the matter if the office of Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball, fails to act.

Although O'Connell was immediately dismissed from the basketball league by the president when word that the situation endangered the baseball careers of Kelly and Bohne reached him, the National league president said that he would continue with his investigation, Kelly, who was mentioned by O'Connell as one of the men who approached him in the attempted bribery of Heinie Sand of the Philadelphia club "to throw" a game to the Giants late in the season and was later cleared by Landis, was, according to reports, to play in the city games, while O'Connell's contract called for only out-of-town appearances.

INDOOR EVENTS AT CLUB TO BE RUN

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Paavo Nurmi, greatest of the world's runners at 1500, 2000 and 5000 metres on cinder tracks, a reputation established at the Olympic games in Paris last summer, awaits the crack of the pistol in his first indoor event at Madison Square Garden tonight in the Finnish-American Athletic club meeting.

Joie Ray of Chicago, and Jimmy Connolly will be among his opponents in the mile event early in the evening, and Willie Ritous, a countryman, will be in the 500 metre field at 11 o'clock. Never did a runner face a greater test than this—two races in one night on an indoor track, to which he is unaccustomed, against superb athletes.

Against Ray, considered by Americans the greatest of indoor milers, Nurmi must show his best speed over the shorter distance. Ray, although he has declared that he needs another week of conditioning, is supremely confident. Despite Nurmi's ability to withstand the rigors of two races in one day, demonstrated on several occasions Americans look for the most stirring competition the Finn has ever known, a grueling test of stamina.

Crew followers at the University of Washington rejoiced today when University officials announced that Alvin Ulbricksen, stroke of last year's intercollegiate champions had registered for the spring quarter and was eligible for the 1925 shell. Coach Russell "Rusty" Callow has ordered crew candidates to turn out for the first practice Monday.

Steve Bjorkman, former owner of a Winnipeg kennel, has entered his name for The Dog derby to be held next Monday. He has constructed a 25-pound sleigh, similar to one used by Walter Goyne, Alaskan musher, who was killed in the north country a few years ago, after winning the derby.

BOXING TITLES TO REMAIN AS THEY ARE FOR AWHILE

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—For a time boxing titles may be expected to remain where they are, with the champions waiting for the outdoor season before facing worthy opponents.
Mickey Walker, welterweight champion, and Mike McTigue, the king of the light-heavyweights, meet tomorrow night in Newark with little danger of any crowns changing hands, although the battle should be interesting. There is nothing for McTigue to win, for he is far beyond the welterweight limit, while Walker professes to see an opportunity to annex another championship. As the match of the "no-decision" type, the only kind permitted in New Jersey, Walker must knock out his man to realize his ambition.
Ned Kaplan, of Meriden, Conn., who recently won the featherweight championship in the eyes of the New York state athletic commission, has declared his intention to participate in several matches on the Pacific coast under the new 12-round law in which he will not risk his title as he will contract for appearance over the featherweight limit of 126 pounds.

Eddie "The Cannonball" Martin of Brooklyn, who recently captured the bantamweight title has elected to become a fighting champion, but his campaign so far indicates that he also is waiting for the large assemblies out of doors before signing for a match that might disturb his honors.
Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, promises to fight in New York this summer, probably in the new stadium being erected in Long Island City, which is expected to seat 110,000 and for which ground was broken yesterday.

Henry Leonard, lightweight king, remains on the stage, and has no appointments of a fistie nature scheduled.

IDAHO WINS

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS
Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

On the Nation's Business

A SLEET storm snaps wires in New England; a blizzard fells a line of poles in the Western ranges; a flood overwhelms a valley community; a prairie cyclone sweeps away everything in its path;—wherever the emergency, men and materials are rushed to the spot in order that telephone service, vitally important at such a time, may be restored.

And the mending of every break restores to telephone users, everywhere in America, a particular path for the passage of his voice. Whether sudden calamity comes from an Atlantic gale or a Texas "twister," its damage must be repaired at once, because it cripples some part of a communications system that is nation-wide.

Because America has universal service, the telephone truck speeding to a scene of disaster is truly "on the nation's business," and the implements of its workers are weapons wielded in the nation's cause.
