Customs Of Old England Kept At Banquet

Customs and ways of Old England in all their quaintness were revived in part Tuesday evening when members of Shakespeare club and guests to the number of sixty or more gathered at the Osburn hotel for the Twelfth Night banquet of the group. The affair is the one social function of the year for the club which gives its efforts exclusively to the study of Shakespeare's writings. Mrs. S. D. Allen as president of the club presided at the meeting. Much merriment came when rollick was given with Shakespearean quotations which applied or not applied to the individuals. Particularly appreciated were the Shakespearean songs which Mrs. J. E. Richmond sang.

A very interesting and comprehensive account of Twelfth Night customs was given by Miss Mabel Potts. The cake and wassail bowl were carried around the table, according to custom, to each member. As a final part of the program a scene from "Much Ado About Nothing," was presented by Mrs. Henry Tromp, Mrs. Frederick G. Jennings, Mrs. Ernest Gilstrap, Mrs. W. K. Newell.

At each year's Twelfth Night party the club has been fortunate in having one of the members or a guest who has visited Stratford-on-Avon, birthplace of Shakespeare. This year Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Allen, the latter the president of the group, visited the place, and Mr. Allen gave an interesting account of his impressions at the banquet this year.

Short talks were given by a number of club members and guests. Mrs. Flora Macdonald gave a talk representing the members who have been afflicted with the group the longest. Mrs. Lottie Mowery, representing the members newest in the club; W. K. Newell gave a very witty and interesting talk representing the husbands of club members; Rev. Fred J. Clark represented the guests, and Mrs. Gertrude Dillon representing the honorary members.

Dr. W. P. Boynton sang a humorous take-off on "Romeo and Juliet," which was done by Frederick G. Jennings, the one getting the part to be queen which was Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff, and the one getting the clove, the knave which was Rev. Henry W. Davis. Following this they reigned for the remainder of the evening.

The banquet was given in the oriental room of the hotel, and the table was appropriately and uniquely decorated with the various Christmas green and red candles. At the end of the festivities the "burning of the green" was held as the significance of Twelfth Night, or the end of the Christmas holidays. Covers were placed for Mrs. Emma Chase, Mrs. David Dobie, Dr. and Mrs. Harry B. Yocum, Rev. and Mrs. Frank Fay Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Stafford, Miss Edith Dunn, Mrs. Harriet Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prescott, Mrs. C. W. Hawkesworth, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hovey, Rev. and Mrs. Bruce J. Giffen, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gilstrap, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Richmond, Rev. Fred J. Clark, Miss Florence Magowan, Mrs. Margaret Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Allen, Mrs. Nelson F. place at the home of the bride in Corvallis New Year's day. The ceremony was very simple, with only the immediate relatives attending. Rev. Daniel Bryant of Corvallis officiated. Mrs. McGinnis is a former University of Oregon student. Mr. McGinnis is majoring in entomology at Oregon Agricultural college. They will make their home at 710 North Fifteenth street, Corvallis.

After an absence of four months in California Mrs. W. P. Boynton returned to Eugene the past week. While away she was in Long Beach, Los Angeles and Whittier. At the latter place she visited with her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Wagner (Dorothea Boynton). And while in Los Angeles she visited with relatives of Mr. Boynton who came down for the Christmas holidays, returning home with Mrs. Boynton.

Friday Bridge club members were guests of Mrs. Wayne Green at her home yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. J. H. Dumphrey was hostess at this week's meeting of the Kill Kare Club at her home Thursday.

Miss Bessie Day entertained Thimble club members at her home Thursday.

Mrs. R. A. Booth was hostess to the Sunshine club at her home Friday afternoon, asking as a special guest, Mrs. Edna L. Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fell entertained the Wednesday Dinner club at their home last evening, having as a special guest their daughter, Mrs. V. W. Hammond.

Mrs. Frederick G. Jennings was hostess to Aloha club members at her home Tuesday for a one o'clock luncheon. Additional guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Ernest Stroud, Miss Edith Dunn.

Sewing Party Is Given For Visitor

Mrs. Harold Moore entertained for Mrs. E. P. Chambers, who is visiting here from California, at her home yesterday afternoon, thoughtfully inviting a group of the honor guests' most intimate friends in for an afternoon of sewing. Orange and yellow blooms were attractively used about the rooms, with a center piece in the same color scheme decorating each of the small tables around which the guests gathered for the late afternoon luncheon. A novel and pleasant way of breaking any tinge of formality was the pouring of tea at each of the tables. Mrs. Carl Knudsen assisted the hostess.

Guests invited to welcome Mrs. Chambers were Mrs. Carlton Spencer, Mrs. Fred Moxley, Mrs. Edward Bailey of Junction City, Mrs. Earl Ludford, Mrs. Rollo Potter, Mrs. Edgar Kellems, Mrs. Virgil Parkers, Mrs. Hubert Moore, Mrs. Carl Knudsen, Mrs. George Basford, Mrs. Herald White, Mrs. H. E. Richardson, Mrs. Lawrence Manerud, Mrs. Floyd Westerfield, Mrs. J. L. Hesse, Mrs. Karl Kellogg.

An interesting meeting of Monday evening was that of the Eugene Unit No. 3, American Legion auxiliary, which was held in the chamber of commerce rooms. The new officers for the year were installed and are Mrs. E. S. Tuttle, president; Mrs. Olivia Manerud, vice-president; Mrs. Della Borin, secretary; Mrs. Mabel Biddle, treasurer. Mrs. E. P. Dorris was installing officer.

The group is planning for a potluck supper for members of the American legion and auxiliary, to be given January 20.

Another outstanding event on this month's calendar for the auxiliary will be the benefit bridge tea to be given January 31. Proceeds from the affair will be used in continuing relief work of the organization.

The ten divisions of the Ladies Aid society of the First Methodist Episcopal will meet Tuesday, January 13, at two-thirty o'clock at the following places:

On Saturday, January third, from three to five o'clock at the post rooms of the army the birthdays of comrades of the G. A. R. and their wives were celebrated, each one of them being presented with a birthday cake, and each one giving a response. Those who had birthdays in January were Comrades Joseph Wood, Miner E. McIntyre, L. J. Robertson, F. P. Mason, Mrs. Charles Dickerson, Mrs. Sidney Stickle, Mrs. Nina Blakely. A short program was enjoyed. Mrs. Mable Black and Miss Laura McIntyre gave several piano selections, and then a community sing was enjoyed. Wanda Leslie and Melba McDonald gave readings which were well received. At five-thirty the annual banquet was held in the spacious dining room, the tables being tastefully decorated in streamers of red and yellow. Comrade T. W. Plank gave the invocation and a

KIMBALL PIANO OFFER

History of pianos point with pride to the fact that the Kimball is the greatest piano value the world ever had and has proven this conclusively over a period of 70 years for the reason that nearly 500,000 Kimballs are now in use—twice—There's a Kimball for every home!

THE KIMBALL LASTS A LIFETIME

Did you ever see or hear a "worn out" Kimball piano? It is a recognized fact that it is positively impossible to "wear out a Kimball piano"—they are built to improve with age—the value of a second hand Kimball is twice that of any other make.

CASE and all panels made of five thicknesses of the best thoroughly seasoned lumber, glued together, the grain of each thickness running at right angles to the one next thus rendering it impossible for any portion to shrink, swell or split, in any climate or through any variation of temperature. BRACKET, mouldings and the entire arm are veneered the same as the case, the usual method being to make these of white wood and grain them to match the case. PIN BLOCKS are composed of many layers of thoroughly seasoned hard maple, so joined together that the grain of each layer is at right angles to the grain of the adjacent layer, thus providing a pin-block that cannot be split and affording absolutely rigid support for the tuning pins.

Past Week Has Few Large Affairs

Resting in the quietness of the post-holiday time like the proverbial cat basking in the sunlight, society seemed to pass by the past six days in leisurely fashion, and without the strenuous furor that had come with the giving of functions the few preceding weeks. Parties and such affairs have to be planned and arranged in detail, and so the party time is yet delayed as those who entertain have only recently participated in the gaiety of the traditional ceremonies and time has not been allowed for the more regular routine. Outstanding among the week's events have been the Shakespeare Twelfth Night banquet, and the wedding of Miss Alma Agee. An interesting visitor is Mrs. E. P. Chambers (Ruby Bogue) who is here for a few weeks from Ridley, California. A number of small sewing parties and social afternoons are being given in her honor by her many friends here. The presentation of Hamlet by Fritz Leiber this evening at the Heilig theater is attracting scores of folks, while the large tea given by Delta Zeta this afternoon was another important week-end affair.

Mrs. Carlton Spencer entertained informally at her home Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. E. P. Chambers, asking a group of the younger matrons, who went to high school with Mrs. Chambers, for tea.

U. D. club members were pleasantly entertained Thursday with a one o'clock luncheon at the Osburn hotel by Mrs. Henry Hollenbeck.

Mrs. E. R. Bryson entertained at an attractive luncheon in the tea room of the Osburn hotel Thursday, honoring her mother, Mrs. Harriet Veazie, who is visiting here for several weeks. Covers were laid for twelve including a number of old friends of Mrs. Veazie who formerly lived in Eugene.

Mrs. V. W. Hammond of Medford is a visitor in the city as a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fell.

One of the delightfully informal afternoon affairs given for Mrs. E. P. Chambers was the sewing party for which her mother, Mrs. George Bogue, entertained at her home Wednesday afternoon, inviting as guests former neighbors on Harvard street where Mr. and Mrs. Bogue made their home for many years. Following the afternoon of needlework a luncheon was served. Guests for the affair were Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. W. T. Gordon, Mrs. J. S. Gulliford, Mrs. F. W. Comings, Mrs. Marian Fields, Mrs. E. E. DeCon, Mrs. Raymond Wheeler, Mrs. Fannie Harre, Miss Mabel Potts, Mrs. Frank Carter.

As the conclusion of an interesting study of China, its people and its customs, members of the Matrons' Guild auxiliary of the Central Presbyterian church gathered at the home of Mrs. Bruce J. Giffen Wednesday afternoon from where they went to the Warner museum of oriental art in the Woman's building. The afternoon was also guest day

Miss Alma Agee, P.A. Given Are Wed

Before an altar elaborately banked with carnations, roses, and cyclamen in varying shades of pink and white, Miss Alma Agee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Y. Agee of this city, and P. A. Given, son of Mrs. L. T. Given of Los Angeles, were married at the Central Presbyterian church Thursday noon. Rev. A. H. Saunders, pastor of the church officiated at the ring ceremony with only the immediate families of the couple present. The bride was given away by her father, P. Y. Agee.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white crepe satin, made very simply, and all beautifully hand beaded in crystal beads. In place of the veil she wore a tight-fitting silver band about her hair. Her flowers were a French bouquet of lilies of the valley, sweet peas and pink rosebuds.

Miss Edith Robb, of Palo Alto, California, attended the bride as maid of honor, and was most becomingly gowned in a satin dress of the striking shades of rose shade. Her bouquet was like that of the bride. Attending the bridegroom was James Agee, brother of the bride.

At the conclusion of the ceremony Mrs. Ruth Cleaver played Lohengrin's wedding march, and "Oh, Promise Me," on the pipe organ. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Osburn hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Given leaving at once for Los Angeles, California, where they will make their home and where the former has extensive property interests.

Mrs. Given is a talented violinist. Both she and Mr. Given are graduates of the University of California. The former is a member of Theta Tau, and Mrs. Given is a member of Kappa Delta.

C. J. Walter, of Los Angeles, and an uncle of the bridegroom, was another out-of-town guest for the wedding in addition to Mrs. L. T. Given and Miss Edith Robb.

Miss Rita Ridings left this week for Granger, Wash., after spending the vacation time in this city with her parents. She teaches in Granger.

Many here were interested this week in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Josephine Evans to Everett Harpham. It was announced in Portland this last week. Miss Evans is the daughter of Kenneth Evans of The Dalles, and has been in Eugene for the past several years where she attended the University of Oregon and where she is a member of Alpha Delta Pi and Mu Phi Epsilon. At present she is a member of the faculty in the university school of music.

Mr. Buedall is a graduate from Luther college at Decorah, Iowa. He later attended the University of Chicago where he received his M. A. degree. He is head of the commercial department of the high school in Raymond, Wash.

The wedding will be an event of the summer months.

Mrs. J. H. Koke was hostess at a one o'clock luncheon Monday for the Domestic Art club. Mrs. A. L. Ingalls, Mrs. Alfred Powers, Mrs. Eric Merrell, Mrs. E. F. Carleton, Mrs. Moor were assistant hostesses. Mrs. J. B. Bell will entertain the group in two weeks.

Portland Visitor Entertained At Luncheons

Mrs. Harold Grady was a gracious hostess at two luncheons, given Thursday and Friday at her home in Bartle court in compliment to Miss Irene Moomaw of Portland who is a guest at the home of Mrs. Grady over the week-end. Pink carnations and other favors in the same color scheme were effectively used as decorations. For each occasion covers were placed for eight.

On Thursday afternoon bridge was played and guests were Miss Moomaw, Mrs. Frederick G. Stickle, Mrs. George Hitchcock, Mrs. Wilson Coffey, Mrs. George McGill, Mrs. Lynn McCready, Mrs. Jack Benefiel, Mrs. Kenneth Ables.

Mah jongg was played Friday afternoon and those invited were Mrs. Arthur Morris, Mrs. J. T. Barrett, Mrs. Lawrence Manerud, Mrs. C. A. Huntington, Mrs. Orville Waller, Mrs. Seth Kerron, Mrs. George McGill.

Honoring Mrs. William Sargent who is a visitor here from Boston, Mrs. Sam Warner entertained at a luncheon at the Anchorage Thursday, inviting nine.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. William Sargent of Boston, Mass. Mrs. Sargent is a sister of Mrs. Sheldon.

Eugene friends were greatly interested in the news that Miss Beulah Lorraine Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Clark of Portland, and a well known musician of this city, had announced her engagement to Anton Buedall of Raymond, Wash. Miss Clark is most active in musical circles, having traveled extensively as a flutist and pianist in chautauques and lyceum work. She has been in Eugene for the past several years where she attended the University of Oregon and where she is a member of Alpha Delta Pi and Mu Phi Epsilon. At present she is a member of the faculty in the university school of music.
