

OREGON QUINTET FACES BEARCATS IN FIRST GAME

Oregon's 1925 basketball team will receive its first test tonight on the Arroyo floor when it meets Williamette University at 7:30 o'clock. The Bearcats have a well-rounded aggregation of veterans, and have been going strong all season. Among their victims is the strong Multnomah club five of Portland.

Coach Reinhart of Oregon probably will start the same team that trounced the Marshfield American Legion a week ago. This combination includes Gowans and Hobson at forward, Claiborn at center, and Westergren and Gunther at guard. The forwards are the only lettermen, but the others have played on high school and independent teams, so are not entirely inexperienced.

Others on the teams are: Chiles, Stoddard and Flewellyn, forwards; Jost and Carter, centers; Hughes and Reinhart, guards; Gillenwaters, veteran guard from last year, has been in the east attending a fraternity convention, but is back now, and ready to go. Jost and Stoddard are last year's subs, while the rest are from the freshman outfit of 1924.

The fall term examination resulted in the usual quota of ineligibleities. Last term's victims are Flynn, center; Dalis, forward and Kiminki, guard. Kiminki and Flynn were expected to make the first team.

FRITZ LEIBER AT HEILIG TONIGHT

Furnishing a real treat for Eugene lovers of the drama, Fritz Leiber, leading Shakespearean actor of the day, is to play at the Heilig theater this evening in "Hamlet." This afternoon Mr. Leiber is playing "The Three Musketeers" at the matinee. His supporting cast consists of a distinguished company of 35, under the direction of George Ford.

When Mr. Leiber first made his debut in New York as a star in 1918 it was in "Hamlet" the role essayed by virtually every great romantic actor of the past. He achieved a tremendous success. Most of the reviewers called him the ideal "Hamlet." No less a critic than George Jean Nathan, whose severity is well known and whose judgment is taken very seriously, called Leiber not only a great Hamlet but said, "Fritz Leiber is the best interpreter of Shakespeare on the American stage."

In the years following his initiation into stardom Mr. Leiber's playing has ripened and his conception become more finished. Unlike most of his predecessors he gives the character of Hamlet a calm, human, natural performance; it is poetic, romantic, but above all, essentially human.

HOSPITAL ELECTS DR. HURLEY HEAD

Dr. George Hurley was re-elected chief of staff of the Mercy hospital at the staff meeting Thursday night. It was announced today. The advisory committee of the hospital named was as follows:

Dr. E. L. Zimmerman, Dr. F. E. Adams, Dr. Irwin Fox, Dr. R. H. Fields, and Dr. S. M. Kerron.

The guest at the meeting was Dr. H. H. Faskett, pathologist of Portland, who took part in a discussion on the routine X-ray methods used by hospitals in Portland and Eugene. The Mercy hospital staff meets on the second Thursday of every month.

Golf Ball to be Topic at Meeting

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—One of the smallest factors in the game, yet one of the most important, will receive the major portion of attention today at the annual session of the United States Golf association. The ball to be used in future is the topic and a report will be made by the association's committee.

Much of the opposition to the larger sphere which has been recommended in the United States is said to have come from Great Britain where golf originated. The Scotch and English will retain the old style.

Golf enthusiasts recall that objections to ribbed clubs also came from the other side of the ocean. The ribs develop the "spin" which brings about the "dead stop" necessary to the play of a contender when he encounters an "island" green, one surrounded by traps.

Golf Course Good For Play, Is Word

With the golf course at the Eugene Country club in fine condition, so the club officers declare, there is expected to be a heavy attendance recorded on the greens tomorrow as many of the ardent golf enthusiasts have been deprived of their favorite pastime as a result of a long period of adverse weather. With the grounds in shape for play now it is expected that tournament plans will soon be under way, according to E. O. Immel, president. The annual meeting and election of officers will be held at the club house Monday evening.

Roseburg to Hold Eugene Hoop Game

Arrangements will probably be completed for the Roseburg national guard team to meet Company C of Eugene in a basketball game at the local armory as the big feature of the smoker and program to be staged by the guardsmen January 27, according to announcement of those in charge. It is possible that General George A. White will attend the affair.

REGENTS OFFERING SITE FOR HOSPITAL

Expansion of the medical center and for affiliated or beneficial institutions, and for more adequate research into the causes and methods of prevention of disease in Oregon.

The board acknowledged the gift of $5,000 from Dr. Noble Wiley Jones, a Portland physician, for the establishment of a fellowship in the department of pathology of the medical school, the income from which is to be used to aid deserving and diligent students carrying on special work in that department.

Dr. Jones has already provided such an income annually for five years, and now desires to perpetuate the annuity. In addition, he has given $300 annually to bring some distinguished scientist to the medical school for a series of lectures.

Annual Report Given
In his annual report to the board, Dean R. B. Dillehunt reported the June league of Portland has appropriated $5,000 for the equipment of the out-patient department of the $200,000 Doernbecher Memorial hospital for children. Ground will be broken for the hospital on the medical school campus shortly.

Dean Dillehunt also reported: During the past year 15,000 individuals have been ministered to at the Portland free dispensary, representing ambulatory cases not only from Multnomah county but from all parts of the state. The dispensary is operated jointly by the medical school and other medical, state, and ameliorative organizations.

About 4,000 persons have been cared for by the school of medicine staff at the Multnomah hospital during the year and more than forty have been committed for care under the state children's hospital service law.

The medical school held two extension clinics for sick and disabled children. At Pendleton, forty-eight children were examined and treatment outlined; at Medford, sixty-six were given similar attention. In several instances, the children were committed to the medical school for treatment.

Business in Coos Bay Region Better

Business conditions are getting better in the Coos bay region, according to L. L. Graham, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific railway, who, with F. H. Holmes, newly-appointed traveling freight and passenger agent in the Eugene district, returned yesterday from a trip over the company lines.

"All the big mills in the Coos bay section are running full blast, and railroad travel, which is always a good barometer of business conditions, is picking up," said Mr. Graham. "Business men are preparing for a banner year in 1925."

Eugene Motorists Send For Licenses

That Lane county car owners are obeying the law and obtaining their 1925 automobile licenses at once was indicated last evening when a total of about 150 cars were halted on the Blair boulevard by Earl Humphrey, state traffic officer, and Melvin Turnbull, county officer.

"Of this number only four did not have a yellow license or a receipt showing that they had sent in an application," the state officer said. After January 15 arrears will be made for failure to have the new license, is the edict.

SECRETARY HUGHES QUITS HIS OFFICE

Mr. Kellogg, who will succeed him also is a lawyer of outstanding prominence. Before he became ambassador to Great Britain at the beginning of the Harding administration he was a senator from Minnesota and in that capacity was one of those republicans who favored ratification of the league of nations with reservations less sweeping than the Lodge reservations.

As ambassador, Mr. Kellogg has represented the United States in several different post-war negotiations. He now is in Paris, acting with Ambassador Heerick for the United States at the conference of allied finance ministers.
