"You And I" Scores Real Hit at Boise

"You and I" which comes to the Heilig next Tuesday evening, leaves a delighted audience in Boise, Idaho, where it played to a packed house this week. This was the second appearance of the Olsen company in that city. In reference to the company, "Boise has seen few artists which are their equals." And one reviewer, "Olsen and Miss Young are true artists. Personality, charm, and ease of action were blended lovely into their interpretations. Nothing 'stagnant' or suggestive of it was found in their portrayals of life just above the Babylon."

"You and I" the play which won the 1922 Harvard prize, while classed as a comedy, holds a tragedy—the common everyday tragedy of a man's life. It will be staged for the benefit of the University of Oregon gift campaign fund.

License For Dance Halls Increasing

Applications for dance hall licenses in Lane county are increasing and several of these have been issued within the past week by the county court.
