Famous Necklace Returns to Us S.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—The famous pearl necklace of Madame Thiers, widow of a former president of the republic, has been to New York where it is now in the hands of its owner, the firm of Cartiers. The necklace, which was auctioned here on June 16 of last year is said to be valued at $1,500,000.

The Thiers pearls, in the form of a necklace, composed of three strings, fetched 11,280,000 francs at the auction in Paris last year. The necklace consists of 153 pearls, weighing 2,137 grams.

GOVERNOR PIERCE DELIVERS MESSAGE

those entrusted with safeguarding of this most sacred trust." Total losses the governor said would exceed $500,000.

Enactment of a severance tax on natural resources: "It should be a law, "said the governor, "that when a tree is felled two healthy trees must be grown in its place."

Re-enactment of the law providing for a tax supervising commission for each county in such a way as to make it constitutional. Such a law was passed at the last session, but was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court.

License Reduction.

While declaring he was not in sympathy with a movement to lower the amount of revenue from licenses on automobiles, the governor said he believed it only fair that license fees on old and used cars should be reduced.

He suggested congress be memorialized to construct the Roosevelt highway through the forest reserve in Lincoln county, and the Skyline trail from Crater lake to Mount Hood.

Amendment of the blue sky law to make it more effective.

Legislation to check incendiarism, the governor said it was estimated that one-half of the property destruction by fire in the state was due to incendiarism.

Putting of the entire traffic service under the control of the state highway commission.

The governor urged that the matter of consolidation of state departments, which occupied much attention at the last legislative session be again considered.

Enactment of a law to make the present industrial accident commission compulsory in all hazardous occupations, and with no other changes.

Tax Reduction.

A constitutional amendment to be submitted to the next general election, that will reduce the tax on property from one mill to one-half mill for the use of the World War Veterans State Aid commission. A one-half mill levy for eight years will create a sufficient fund to enable the commission to carry out all the provisions of the law creating it, said the governor.

Appropriation of $100,000 to add to the $220,000 already available for the new boys training school to be erected at Woodburn.

Establishment of a reformatory at the site of the present boys training school where younger prisoners from penitentiary and older boys from the training school might be cared for.

Recommended that entire control of the wild game of the state be vested in an appropriate department of the Oregon Agricultural college under the control of the board of regents.

Passage of a law taxing all vegetable oil substitutes for butter, or a law prohibiting mixture of dairy products with vegetable oil as a substitute for butter. The governor expressed regret for defeat of the oleomargarine bill at the recent election.

Drainage Bond Interest.

Recommended a constitutional amendment repealing the state guaranty of interest on irrigation and drainage bonds.

Recommended enactment of a law creating a hydro-electric commission to investigate and report to the governor on the cost of construction of modern hydro-electric plants on undeveloped natural water power, and investigate this commission with power to form a district, establish boundaries, and giving the governor power to call a special election to vote a bond issue to build such municipally-owned plants. The governor endorsed the Clear lake project at the head of the McKenzie river.

Establishment of free labor agencies.

Recommended adoption of the child labor amendment to the federal constitution.

Favored salary increases for district attorneys and justices of the state supreme court.
