Thirty Out for Golf—

More than 20 students at the University of Oregon are out for the university golf team, according to George Bronough coach. Outstanding players are Jack Marshall, runner-up in the Oregon state coast championship tournament at Gearhart; Lloyd Byrly, player in the championship flight of the last three state championship tournaments, putting out John Hebstock, medalist, in the last one; Bill McFride, who won the first flight of the fall tournament; the Eugene country club and Tom Mahoney, Bob Neighbor and Paul Matthews. Golf as an intercollegiate sport is rapidly taking its place in Pacific coast colleges, and Washington, Stanford, California and Southern California now recognize it as a minor sport and award letters for it.

Cougar Is Giant—

A giant cougar, said to be the largest ever brought into Eugene for a bounty, was snipped to the city by auto stage this morning from McKenzie Bridge by Harry Hayes, who killed it. The animal was shot back of Foley ridge, and when Mr. Hayes attempted to carry it back to camp, he found the carcass so heavy he could not lift it from the ground. The cougar is said to measure approximately 10 feet from nose to tip of its tail. The hide is at Ubak's cigar store on exhibition until Mr. Hayes arrives in the city to collect the bounty from the county clerk.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ. Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic cough and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrh, bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga. (Adv.)

CHILD LABOR VOTE IS EXPECTED SOON IN MIDDLE WEST

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Action on the child labor amendment to the federal constitution by legislatures of 14 middle western states is expected soon, according to reports from state capitals received here today. Five of these state bodies have the measure before them and half a dozen others before the end of January are expected to vote as to whether they favor enactment of the twentieth constitutional amendment, a law regulating the labor of minors under 18 years of age.

Supporters of the effort to prevent exploitation of childhood were deemed detrimental to the child and the future of the race, are urging early action in the legislatures. Industrial and farm organizations are opposing the amendment.

Discussion possible referendum on the proposal is heard in Ohio, Michigan, South Dakota and Kansas, the governors of the latter two states having recommended its submission to the voters. Massachusetts, by referendum, disapproved the amendment.

The proposed amendment is pending before the North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska and Missouri legislative assemblies.

The proposition is expected to come up in the legislatures of Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Texas, North Dakota, Indiana and Kansas, principally in the current month.

Opposition to ratification was more noticeable in Illinois, Michigan and Texas than in some of the other states. Farm organizations in Michigan have pledged themselves against the amendment. The resolution introducing the measure in the Missouri legislature yesterday urged its rejection on the ground that it would mean an "additional army of bureaucrats."

In Illinois women's organizations and labor bodies are advocating ratification while manufacturers' and farmers' organizations are opposing such an act as part of the national basic law.

There are no indications either in Texas, Kansas or North Dakota when a ratification resolution will be introduced.

CAROLINA OPPOSES

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 14.—Without a dissenting vote and without debate, the senate of South Carolina adopted a resolution rejecting the proposed child labor amendment to the federal constitution. A similar resolution is pending in the house.

ALIBI CLAIMED FOR O'SHEA, HELD HERE

Questioning today of John O'Shea held here for the Klamath county officers on a murder charge revealed nothing further, according to Sheriff Frank Taylor. "O'Shea seems to have a good alibi although we have very little information here as to the details of the case in Klamath," the sheriff said. "O'Shea was on his way to Portland when arrested in Lane county. He came to have appeared in federal court as a witness in another case from Lake county. Whether he will be sent on to Portland and testify and then be returned to Klamath will be decided by the Klamath authorities. The prisoner declared that he was anxious to return to Klamath where he would be able to clear himself of the charge. He stated that he was able to raise $10,000 in bonds if necessary.
