Lower right, Mrs. William Sargent, of Boston, Mass., who is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon.

Twenty-Four Entertained At Luncheon

Pussywillows arranged with rose carnations and orange marigolds combined to make an unusually attractive color array for the luncheon at which Mrs. F. G. Stickle entertained for twenty-four at her home Wednesday, honoring Mrs. Leland Johnson. Mrs. Stickle was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Morris and Mrs. Herbert Roome. Bridge was played during the afternoon hours.

The guests were Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. George Hitchcock, Mrs. Arthur Morris, Mrs. Wilson Coffey, Mrs. Lynn McCready, Mrs. Kenneth Ables, Mrs. M. M. Tuff, Mrs. A. F. Rapp, Mrs. Harry Hobbs, Mrs. Seth M. Kerron, Mrs. W. E. Moxley, Mrs. Jack Benefiel, Mrs. Harold Grady, Mrs. Herbert Roome, Mrs. Loy Rowling, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. J. L. Heese, Mrs. L. B. Sigwart, Mrs. Chester Stevenson, Mrs. George McGill, Mrs. Orville Waller, Mrs. Herald White, Mrs. Lamar Toose, Mrs. Carlton Spencer.

Mrs. W. T. Gordon and Mrs. Walter C. Barnes sponsored two interesting parties of the week, entertaining at bridge on Wednesday afternoon and this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gordon. About thirty guests were asked for each party. Mrs. F. W. Comings assisted the hostesses at both affairs. On Wednesday Miss Dora Gordon and Miss Frances Dodge assisted in serving, and today a group of University girls assisted. The predominant color of pink came with the artistic arrangement of variously shaded pink carnations which were used with masses of greenery.

Newcomers Are Honor Guests At Parties

Among the several very pleasurable affairs being given to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Leland Johnson who have come to Eugene to make their home were the two supper parties for which Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Toose entertained at their home this week. On Sunday evening they invited fourteen and last evening entertained a party of eighteen.

Following the supper last evening cards were played. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Waller, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moxley, Mr. and Mrs. Herald White, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Benefiel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Roome, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Cullin, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Spencer. Sunday evening's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCready, Mr. and Mrs. George Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ables, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Stickle.

Fortnightly club officers and members of the past year's program committee were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Fay Eddy, president of the club, at her home, for needlework and tea.

Shakespeare club members met Monday afternoon to continue the study of the play Hamlet. The meeting was particularly interesting this week because of the discussion of the play given the preceding Saturday by Fritz Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCready, Mr. and Mrs. George Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ables, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Stickle.

Three A. L. Lomas will entertain members of the Eugene Daughters of the Nile club on Wednesday afternoon of the coming week at the Craftsman clubhouse, Fourteenth avenue east and Kincaid streets. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. E. V. Ford and Mrs. W. W. Branstetter. Members of the club are asked to telephone Mrs. Ford at 1477-R. At the meeting plans will be discussed for the benefit bridge tea which will be given this month.

Mrs. Herbert Olsen was hostess to members of Inter S. club at her home Thursday for a luncheon. In two weeks the group will meet with Mrs. E. P. Parks.

Mrs. Winifred Kuykendall will be hostess to Teacup club members this coming Friday.

A very pretty wedding was that of Miss Florence V. Thorpe and Edwin G. Boehnke who were married at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dale, 675 Eleventh avenue east, Sunday afternoon. The ceremony was witnessed by a few friends and relatives of the couple, and Rev. Randall Scott of Springfield officiated. Little Georgia Dale preceded the bride down the stairway as ring bearer, carrying a pillow of lilies of the valley. The bride proceeded unattended to the altar which was simply but effectively arranged before the fireplace, banked with palms, ferns and white gardenias. Preceding the ceremony Ruben C. Goffriere played Mendelssohn's wedding march, and Miss Johanna James sang "Because."

The bride wore a lovely yellow gossamer crepe, elaborately beaded, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and ophelia rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served, the table being most beautifully decorated with a centerpiece of white tuber roses, lilies of the valley, and gypsophila. During the luncheon Miss James sang "I Love You Truly," "For You Alone," "At Dawning," and "Song of Love."

Mrs. Boehnke has been in Eugene for several years, is a graduate of the University of Iowa, Iowa Falls, Iowa, and of Walter Reed hospital. Mr. Boehnke was a member of the 35th Division in France, and is with the Eugene Guard Printing company. They left for points north and will be at home at St. Francis apartments, after February 1.

Mrs. W. O. Starbuck entertained the Eighth Division of the Methodist Ladies' Aid society at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. W. K. Newell and Mrs. B. J. Jenkins were assistant hostesses.

Mrs. Ernest Stroud, Mrs. Barkley, and Miss Beattie Day were guests for the meeting of the Wednesday Bridge club which was entertained this week by Mrs. Jerry Horn at her home. Mrs. J. W. Hobbs will be hostess to the club in two weeks.

The first meeting of the L. O. E. club for the new year was a most pleasant affair Thursday afternoon at the Elks temple. Mrs. Maude Bryn assisted by Mrs. Edith Larimer and Mrs. Alice Vincent were hostesses in the card rooms. Honors at bridge went to Mrs. R. R. Biddle, Mrs. Oscar Faust and Mrs. E. A. Lewis. Late in the afternoon a delicious luncheon was served, the hostess in the dining room being Mrs. A. J. Perkins, Mrs. Riley Snodgrass, Mrs. Isaac Larimer. At the meeting the resignation of Mrs. Earl Fonda, who is moving to Portland, was read and accepted, and Mrs. J. B. McFall elected to fill the vacancy. In two weeks the L. O. E. ladies will meet again with Mrs. J. R. McKy as hostess in the card room and Mrs. Bert Vincent as chairman of refreshments.

It was with regret that Eugeneans learned this week that Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fonda are planning to leave about February 1 to make their home in Portland.

Monthly Tea Is On Thursday Afternoon

The monthly university calling day was a delightful event Thursday afternoon in Alumni hall of the Woman's building. Between the hours of two-thirty o'clock and five o'clock a large number called. Miss Mozelle Hair was chairman for the afternoon, Mrs. William G. Hale and Mrs. L. H. Johnson presided at the tea table.

Hostesses for the tea were Mrs. Bruce J. Giffen, Mrs. J. H. Gilbert, Mrs. Margaret B. Goodall, Miss Henriette Guay, Miss Lois Gray, Miss Dorothy Gurley, Miss Arlene Gurr, Mrs. V. G. Hafon, Mrs. William G. Hale, Miss Mozelle Hair, Miss Ruth Harvey, Miss Mildred Hawes, Mrs. Robert Hall, Miss Bertha Hays, Mrs. William Hayward, Mrs. E. T. Hodge, Mrs. Glenn Hoover, Miss Vesta Holt, Mrs. H. C. Howe, Miss Harriet Hudson, Mrs. Dorothy Humphrey, Mrs. R. R. Huestis, Mrs. A. L. Ingalls, Mrs. L. H. Johnson, Mrs. J. E. Johnson.

On Tuesday evening occurred the Amusement club dance at Dreamland hall. About forty couples attended. A number of interesting features were given. Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fulton. For January 10 members of the club are planning for a dance to be in keeping with Valentine day. Patrons and patronesses for the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McAlister, Mr. and Mrs. Lonar Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Scherwing.

Mrs. Keith Kigrans was hostess to Tuesday bridge club members at her home this week for a one o'clock luncheon. Mrs. George Hitchcock was a guest for the afternoon.

Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon informally entertained at tea Thursday afternoon at her home for her sister, Mrs. William Sargent, who is visiting in Eugene from Boston.

Mrs. Burrows Is Honor Guest At Tea

Honoring Mrs. Jennie Burrows of Portland who is their acting house chaperone during the absence of Mrs. Lucy Perkins in California, members of Alpha Delta Pi entertained informally at tea Tuesday afternoon at their home. Alumnae and patronesses of the organization and other campus house mothers were guests.

Cluster bouquets of sweet peas in pastel shades were used about the rooms and gave a spring-like atmosphere. Miss Beulah Smith and Miss Cecil McKercher presided at the tea table.

Miss Grace Jewell Dunbar played a number of piano solos, Miss Cecil McKercher gave a group of recitations, and Miss Jean Harper played several piano solos as a musical program for the afternoon.

Mrs. Lawrence Mamerud was a gracious hostess for a small sewing party given at her home this afternoon for Mrs. C. A. Huntington. Following a pleasant time of sewing and conversation a luncheon was served. Guests bidden for the afternoon were Mrs. Huntington, Mrs. James T. Barrett, Mrs. Harold Grady, Mrs. Wilson Coffey, Mrs. George McGill, Mrs. George Hitchcock, Mrs. Arthur Morris, Mrs. Kenneth Ables, Mrs. Clifford Mamerud, Mrs. F. G. Stickle, Mrs. Herbert Roome, Mrs. Lynn McCready, Mrs. Harold Moore, Mrs. Jack Benefiel, Mrs. Carlton Spencer, Mrs. Orville Waller, Mrs. Herald White.

One of the more interesting meetings of the year of the Fortnightly club will be held this coming Thursday when members gather at the Osburn hotel for an "Oregon's Products Luncheon." At that time nomination of officers for the coming year will be made. Present officers of the group are Mrs. Frank Fay Eddy, president; Mrs. W. F. Gilstrap, vice-president; Mrs. Blaine Hovey, recording secretary; Mrs. Flora Macdonald, financial secretary; Mrs. E. T. Hodge, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Prescott, treasurer.

Mrs. A. A. Rogers entertained San Souci club members this past Wednesday with a luncheon at the Rain-bow and an afternoon of cards at her home afterwards.

A pretty birthday party was given in honor of little Bonnie Habel and Marjorie Cooley last Saturday afternoon when fourteen of their little friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Frank Pierce. The afternoon was spent in games and at four-thirty a dainty lunch was served.

The potluck supper and hard times party for which members of Eugene unit, No. 3 American legion auxiliary, will entertain will be an interesting event of this coming Tuesday evening in the chamber of commerce rooms. It will be given at six-thirty o'clock. All members of the American legion their wives or lady friends are invited to come.

Mrs. Gene F. Taylor entertained the Johnfield Bridge club at her home January 8. Special guests were Mrs. W. W. Branstetter, Mrs. Earl Fonda, Mrs. E. W. Price. Members present were Mrs. C. E. Fisher, Mrs. A. P. McKenzie, Mrs. Harry Whitton, Mrs. Paul Basford, Mrs. W. C. Rebbam, Mrs. Carl Olsen, Mrs. S. Ralph Dillep, Mrs. Taylor. On January 22 Mrs. A. P. McKenzie will entertain the group.

The Dorcas Needle club of the Emmanuel Lutheran church held its annual meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Esther Miller. Reports from various committees and from the treasurer were read and ac-

Ever see a washtub in a beauty shop?

You never saw a washtub in a beauty shop because washtubs and beauty don't go together. In fact the beauty shop is often called upon to smooth out the wrinkles from washday worries. But you can escape them both—the wrinkles and the worry—by using our Thrif-T-service. Your bundle is carefully washed and all flat work ironed. The remaining articles are returned damp, ready to starch, iron or hang up to dry. And the cost is only a few cents a pound. Send us your bundle this week.
