

HOME OWNERSHIP IS EASY, DECLARE LOCAL REALTORS

Eugene realtors took advantage of "Own Your Own Home Day" on their work calendar to promote campaign of education of this phase of household economy.

Not only is it cheaper to own your home, but it is better business, really men assert, and many of the produce figures to prove that it just as well as paying the same out as his own property.

The favorite method of financing is to put up from 10 to 20 per cent cash, 60 per cent first mortgage and the rest a second mortgage. This is particularly popular for the following table prepared by Architects' Small Home Service Bureau, showing how the payments may be arranged on this basis:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes total cost of house and lot, first mortgage, second mortgage, and other expenses.

However, if you would-be home owner wishes to purchase a home which has already been built, this is much more simple, inasmuch as the seller in many instances will dispose of his property on the basis of a small payment down and remainder like rent. With the many homes which are being sold at as low as $100 down there is no reason why one should not own a home.

Joseph Ellingson Appears in Court AN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—Joseph Ellingson, 16-year-old boy, was brought into the court today to determine whether she would be tried by a jury or a criminal court for the murder of her father.

to regain Strength VERY man, woman and child wants to have strength and perfect weight. It means the joy of living. To be minus strength and underweight often proves low living-power in the body. It means you lose cells in nerve, minus red cells in your blood, serious to be minus, but the more you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S.S.S., since 1828, has meant to thousands of men and women a return to their strength. Your body becomes firmer, the age lines from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, you feel it, too, all over your body.

SENATORS ARGUE OVER BANKS BILL

prohibition department for undertaking to tell local officers how to enforce the laws.

"This bill," he said, "is not in the interest of law enforcement, but is for proper law enforcement."

Opposed by Mr. Toozie. Senator Toozie spoke in opposition to the bill, deploring the tendency of the courts to "drag along" their cases.

Senator LaFollett took a fling at Banks. "I remember 22 years ago, senator," said LaFollett, "when you were a certain United States senator, you would be sleeping in a barn. I have seen you many times since, but I have never seen any straws sticking in your hair."

Senator Joseph Speaks. Senator Joseph, in vigorously opposing the bill, pictured the old North end "from the old days to the present."

"Women whom I saw in those days I have seen since they grew old," he said.

"Many of them are running rooming houses, and to do that they must have licenses. They become bootleggers. I care not whether it is these poor unfortunates or that grand party on Portland heights where the women's backs were painted with peculiar characters and their bosoms were painted likewise; where the women dined in mandarin dress, and where the owner was so drunk he didn't know what it was all about when the officers came."

Raiders Are Rapped. Banks had rapped raids made on homes and establishments without proper warrants.

"When officers raid such places," shouted Joseph, "I care not whether they have search warrants or not. I care not if they break down the doors to get in. I say they are to be commended for it."

BILLS PASSED. STATE HOUSE, SALEM, Ore., Jan. 21.—Tackling a rapidly accumulating pile of bills the Oregon legislature today put several through the mill. Among the measures passed were:

Strayer's bill providing for extermination of ground squirrels and other rodents.

The measure would divide counties into districts where residents may petition the county court to poison the pests. It would be mandatory on the court to act.

Bill introduced by senate education committee at request of State Superintendent J. A. Churchill, providing for legalizing of contracts between teachers and school boards.

Davis-Strayer bill to make definite the boundary line between Grant and Baker counties. It is designed to eliminate difficulty in assessing property along the boundary line.

House: House bill 58, repealing the six and a half mill limitation on Portland school district number 1. Roberts of Vance and Shumway of Morrow and Umattila counties, cast the only dissenting votes.

House bill 45, by Woodard, providing for physical inspection of public school children in the elementary schools. Wheeler of Lane cast the only opposing vote.

House bill 52, making it unlawful for stock to run at large in parts of Hood, River county not within the Mount Hood forest reserve.

When the Davis-Strayer bill to adjust the boundary between Baker and Grant counties was up for final passage today Senator Strayer said: "Although I am one of the sponsors of this bill, I am rather jealously guarding my career. Grant county is overwhelmingly republican. This bill will add a few rods to Baker county, which militates against me."

EVICTON RESULTS IN ASSAULT CASE A dispute arising out of a case of eviction resulted in the arrest of K. K. Robinson on a charge of assault and battery against Mrs. Bertha O'Donnell, 1278 Agate street, this morning. Mrs. O'Donnell appeared in municipal court and declared that the defendant caught her by the arm and jerked her to the ground, treating her in a rude manner.

Appearing before Judge George A. Gilmore, Mr. Robinson pleaded not guilty to the charge and the case was being tried this afternoon. Marguerite O'Donnell, daughter of Mrs. O'Donnell, was the only witness to the alleged offense. It was declared.

The plaintiff was behind on her rent of the house, it is alleged, and had been served with eviction papers. Officers from the sheriff's office were taking steps this afternoon to remove Mrs. O'Donnell's furniture and effects from the house, while she was prosecuting her former landlord in municipal court. The family consists of Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell and four children.

Ralph Harvey on Stand at Vale VALE, Ore., Jan. 21.—That he was strung up on the limb of a tree three times before he would confess that he had supplied the district attorney with information concerning bootlegging activities, was declared by the witness stand here today by Ralph Harvey in the trial of Bert and Melis Lawrence charged with assault with intent to kill. The alleged offense occurred October 16, at Ironside, Ore., a remote point in northern Malheur county.

GOLD DISAPPEARS IN FOREIGN LANDS IN HUGE AMOUNTS

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—What becomes of all the gold produced by the mines of the world, is a frequent inquiry, particularly with the growing importance of gold shipments, and the question may be answered as follows:

Coinage among civilized nations, which accounts for about one-fourth of the production; use in industrial arts; waste, a five-dollar goldpiece, for example, losing one and one half per cent in weight after one year's use; hoarding, by which millions of dollars are mysteriously swallowed up annually among individual peoples; and loss, as through fire, shipwreck and similar causes.

Gold mining in this country has fallen off because the industry has found it hard to turn a profit at post-war prices. The price of gold has long been fixed by the government at $20.67 an ounce. Year in, year out, it remains "pegged" at this figure.

Purchasing Value Varies. The purchasing value of gold, meanwhile, varies, fluctuating with price levels. An ounce of gold, economists compute, purchases perhaps only 60 per cent as much now as before the war. Mine costs, in consequence, could not be realized on many lower-grade workings and many have shut down.

Let gold the world over continues to come from the earth at a rate estimated in 1923 at about $200,000,000 worth a year. Gold bullion priced at $2,501,000,000 was on deposit last year in the vaults of the U. S. Assay office in Wall street, which is recognized as the chief clearing station in this country for monetary gold and gold used in fine arts.

At this closely-guarded crossroads the incoming alloyed gold is melted as such as five times in refining; five to seven assays are made from samples; the whole weighed and re-weighed; checked and re-checked.

Platinum Valuable. Platinum is a most valuable by-product of the refining at the assay office. As much as 1,500 ounces of it have been recovered in 12 months, all velvet for the government, and quoted from $250 to $300 an ounce, worth from $375,000 to $450,000.

Gold in bars was bought last year from the assay office by American makers of fine art objects at a monthly average of $5,000,000, according to one outside estimate. The director of the mint, from such data as he had available, calculated the gold used in industry in the calendar year 1923 was $69,292,245, of which $40,033,175 was new material.

Far East Responsible. The Far East and Africa are held responsible for the disappearance of much of the world's gold. India is called a great sink for the precious metal, and in the last half century it is estimated to have made away with at least one and one-half billion dollars in gold. Gold is used there in decoration, ornaments and textiles and hoarded and buried by owners who die, in many cases, without revealing the location of their caches. This drain is put at several million dollars annually.

China is said to be even more of a sponge for gold, while in Africa the gold paid in wages to Kaffir laborers at the mines goes with them to their kraals and somehow never returns, it is said. Trading posts well in the heart of the Dark Continent also report a lively demand for gold.

Sage Tea Turns Gray Hair Dark

That beautiful, even shade of brackish gray hair can only be had by drinking a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once. Rub good old Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief.

Colds are merely congestion. Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

As effective as the messy old mustard plaster, does the work without blister. Just rub it on with your finger-tips. You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c. in jars and tubes.

Opium Conference Meeting Adjourns

GENEVA, an. 21.—(AP)—In an effort to save the international opium conference from a breakdown, it was unanimously voted this afternoon to adjourn the meetings until Saturday.

It was believed that the interim would be occupied in private negotiations and the study of the American, British and French proposals for the suppression of opium smoking in far eastern countries.

Have Kidneys Examined By Your Doctor

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day; also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weak; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.
