Mrs. Loy Rowling Hostess At Luncheon

A very pretty luncheon was that given today by Mrs. Loy Rowling at her home as the first of a series of social functions which she is planning for the coming weeks. Four small tables were set, burning red candles, and bowls of pussy willows and red carnations being arranged as the centerpiece for each. Assisting Mrs. Rowling were Mrs. Alfred S. Peterson and Miss Della Peterson. During the afternoon hours the guests played bridge.

Guests bidden were Mrs. Chester Stevenson, Mrs. A. F. Rapp, Mrs. Harry Holden, Mrs. Lynn S. McCready, Mrs. W. E. Moxley, Mrs. Frederick G. Stickle, Mrs. Herbert Rooms, Mrs. George Coffey, Mrs. George Hutton, Mrs. Jack Bennett, Mrs. Orville Walker, Mrs. M. M. Tuft, Mrs. Arthur Morris, Mrs. Kenneth Ables, Mrs. L. B. Sigwart, Mrs. Carlton Spencer.

Mrs. John Howard provided a charmingly informal afternoon today when she invited about a dozen in for tea, complimenting Mrs. William Sargent who is an interesting visitor in Eugene for a few weeks.

One of the larger affairs of the week was the benefit bridge tea which members of the Eugene Daughters of the Nile club sponsored at the Osburn hotel this afternoon, for the purpose of getting funds to aid crippled children in the St. Johns hospital in Portland. The tea is given annually. Bridge, whist, five hundred, and sewing were the diversions offered. A large number of ladies attended the affair. Committee heads were: Mrs. E. A. Droste, general chairman; Mrs. Daisy Patterson, refreshments committee; Mrs. Roy Smith, table committee; Mrs. Fred Chess, ticket committee; Mrs. Wayne Green, reception committee; Mrs. Fred Crosby, diversion committee; Mrs. Ray Glass, entertainment committee.

At a formal dinner given at the Alpha Phi house this last week Miss Ruth Akers announced her engagement to Bert Hollaway. Both are students in the University of Oregon. Miss Akers is a senior in the school of music, and is widely known in Eugene for her vocal work. She is secretary of the associated student body this year, is a member of Alpha Phi, and Mortar Board. Mr. Hollaway is a member of Bachelorhood. Following the dinner members of Bachelorhood called for an informal dance.

Monday Book club members were entertained this week by Mrs. W. E. Miner. There was a luncheon at the Anchorage followed by the meeting at Mrs. Miner's home. The group will meet again in two weeks with Mrs. A. E. Roberts and Mrs. L. J. Temple as joint hostesses.

Miss Freda Goedrich has been in Eugene this week visiting. Her home is in Portland, and she graduated from the university last spring. She has been a guest at the Alpha Chi Omega house.

Mrs. Lawson G. Bradley is spending the week-end in Salem where she is visiting with a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kidwell left the first of the week for their home near Pendleton, after spending the past few months in Eugene.

Mrs. Lawson G. Bradley will be hostess to members of the Monday Bridge club at her home this coming week.

W. O. Swan and daughter, Miss Nellibelle, returned the first of the week from a week-end trip to Portland.

Mrs. F. L. Poindexter asked the members of Kill Kare Club to be her guests for their meeting Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. L. C. Sherman will be hostess to the Kopy Korner Klub on Thursday, February 5.

Mrs. I. D. S. Wade was hostess to Aloha club at her home Tuesday, asking as a special guest Miss Edith Dunn.

U. D. Bridge club members were guests of Mrs. W. O. Swan at her home Thursday for a one o'clock luncheon.

One of the more interesting events of each month is the meeting of the Alpha chapter of Westminster Guild. For the January meeting members gathered at the Anchorage Monday evening for a six o'clock dinner. Covers were placed for about thirty. Large bunches of pussy willows decorated with Japanese birds and butterflies were the novel decorations used. Hostesses for the dinner and program were Miss Vesta Holt, Miss Dorothy Collier, Miss Mary McCormack, Mrs.

Three Hundred Are Invited To Tea

Eugene society called at Alumni hall of the Woman's building this afternoon to honor Mrs. W. F. Graham who was guest of honor for a tea given by members of Delta Delta Delta sorority. Cards had been sent to three hundred, who came between the hours of four o'clock and six o'clock. Miss Alma Lawrence, pianist, and Miss Pauline Knowland, vocal soloist, gave a number of selections as a musical program.

Receiving with Mrs. Graham were Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Bruce J. Giffen, Mrs. A. R. Sweetser, Miss Mozelle Hair, Mrs. R. A. Booth, Mrs. J. D. McKinstry, Mrs. Paul H. Kelly, Mrs. Frederick G. Jennings, Mrs. James H. Gilbert, Mrs. Eugene S. Kelly, Mrs. Carlton Spencer poured.

To welcome Mr. and Mrs. F. L.

Chambers who returned this week from the east, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Snodgrass entertained at dinner at their home Wednesday evening. Guests were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Chambers, Miss Elma Hendrick, Mrs. T. J. Hendrick, Mrs. Elma Goodrich, Miss Margaret, Mrs. Elma Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Coffey and dinner hosts last evening, entertained for Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Tuft, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Immel.

Eugene Daughters of the Nile observed the fourth birthday anniversary of the organization Wednesday afternoon when members gathered at Craftsmen clubhouse with Mrs. W. Ford, Mrs. A. L. Lomax, and Mrs. W. Branstetter as hostesses. Willows arranged with bright carnations were used as decorations. During the luncheon a large number of members at the meeting were A. L. Lomax, Mrs. E. F. Coffey.

Mr. and Mrs. George McGill will be dinner hosts this evening, asking as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Stickle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rooms.

An interesting event of the coming week will be the dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kiggins will entertain at the country club Tuesday evening preceding the Assembly club dance. Thirty-eight have been invited.

Mrs. S. J. Wilson was a gracious hostess of the week, entertaining for members of the degree staff of the Rebecca lodge at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. C. Harris on Tuesday afternoon. The time was pleasantly spent with needlework and games. Later a luncheon was served at small tables about the room. Mrs. Wilson was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Mrs. M. C. Harris.

Invitations have been sent out for a dinner dance for which Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harrett and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grady will be hosts at the country clubhouse Valentine's night. They have asked twenty-eight.

Miss Helen Andrews was hostess for a merry party of younger people at her home last Saturday evening, complimenting Miss Maxine Lamb, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Between thirty-five and forty guests were asked. The evening was spent in working cross-word puzzles and playing numerous games. One puzzle to work out at the design of M in the center, and when out announced that the day was the birthday of Miss Lamb. Late in the evening Miss Andrews assisted by her sister Miss Winifred Andrews, and Miss Hazel Johnson, served a luncheon.

An eventful and pleasurable dinner of Wednesday night at the Inter Se club, members of which held their annual evening party in the Osburn hotel tea room, having their husbands as guests. Pink and yellow candles set in crystal candlesticks, pink carnations, and rose-pink cyclamen together with trailing smilax were the attractive centerpieces for the long table used. Covers were placed for twenty-eight. Mr. and Mrs. M. Gerow were special guests for the evening. After dinner bridge was played, card honors going to Mrs. William Barker, Mrs. John Seavey, W. W. Calkins, Charles Wirth. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gerow, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. William Barker, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Immel, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ingalls, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Laraway, Mr. and Mrs. David Linn, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Powell, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Schwering, Mr. and Mrs. John Seavey, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Starbuck, Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wirth, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor White.

On Wednesday evening members of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Eugene chamber of commerce will meet at the chamber of commerce rooms for an evening of cards and a program. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. V. D. Seibert, Mrs. Rose Stacks, Mrs. M. F. Swigert, Mrs. C. W. Starr, Mrs. G. F. Skipworth, Mrs. T. H. Spooner, Mrs. O. C. Schmidt, Mrs. A. R. Tiffany.

Eugene friends were greatly delighted to hear this week that Mrs. Flora Livermore and daughter, Miss Gertrude Livermore, are expected to return to Eugene about February 1, after an extended stay in the east. Miss Livermore and Miss Marian Linn studied at Harvard for a time, but recently Miss Livermore has been taking an executive buying course in the Jordan-Marsh firm of Boston, and she and her mother have been living at Cambridge. They plan to return by the southern route, taking the boat from New York to New Orleans, and will visit at various cities on the way.

A merry gathering for a group of children was the breakfast given last Saturday for which Althea Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Peterson, entertained at her home, inviting six of her little friends in for the occasion. Valentines and other gay favors of that day were used for the table decorations.

Ex-Soldiers Will Be Given Aid By Auxiliary

Interesting of mid-winter's benefits will be the bridge and whist benefit tea for which Eugene Unit, No. 3, American Legion auxiliary will entertain at the Osburn hotel, Saturday, January 31 from two o'clock to five o'clock.

The affair is given each year, the funds being used to aid ex-soldiers and families, and disabled veterans in the veterans' hospital, No. 77, Portland.

Bridge will be played in the palm room of the hotel, and whist and five hundred in the tea room. The committee in charge for the affair is Mrs. W. W. McCormick, Mrs. Lawrence Jensen, Mrs. E. S. Tuttle, president of the auxiliary.

Reservations for the tea should be phoned to Mrs. Tuttle, 1070-Y, or to Mrs. McCormick, 1221-Y.

Childrens' Party Given Friday Afternoon

A third birthday anniversary was the happy event yesterday for little Abbey Jane White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herald White, when she celebrated the day with fifteen little friends whom her mother invited to their home for an afternoon party. Balloons and the many other favors so precious to little folks were made a part of the decorations. Games were played, and later in the afternoon came the ever beloved birthday cake with its significant array of candles.

Those observing the great occasion with the small hostess were Billy Moxley, Sara Spencer, Janet Morris, Patsy Anne Stannard, Patricia Parker, Burton Moore, Richard Post, June Hitchcock, Frederick Waller, Culvert Waller, William Jenkins, Emerson Ables, Kenneth Ables, Virginia Toozie, Lamar Toozie Jr.

Assembly club members are very busy planning for their "youngsters ball," which will be an eventful affair this coming Tuesday evening in the Laraway ball. As this is the first dance of this nature to be held by the club there is anticipation for much merriment as members come strolling in garbed in their rompers, overalls, kiltie aprons, and the various other styles of childrens' dress. A number of dinners are to be given preceding the dance and they will be rather novel and interesting as the guests come dressed in their costumes. Hosts for the dance will be Dr. and Mrs. Waldo Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Oberthoffer, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ruth, E. Large.

Mrs. Addie Osburn was hostess to members of the Tourist club for a dinner at the Osburn hotel Monday evening, asking as her special guests Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. William Sargent.

Upper, Mrs. Leland Johnson who has come to Eugene to make her home from Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin.

Lower left, Mrs. E. A. Droste, chairman of the Eugene Daughters of the Nile club benefit bridge tea which was a large affair at the Osburn hotel this afternoon.

Lower right, Miss Helen Andrews who was hostess for a party of young people at her home last week.

Club Affairs Are Numerous And Varied

A club week it was. With many club luncheons, club parties, club benefits, and the usual club meetings, other social functions were not so numerous. And a stray day or so of almost spring brought a tinge of restlessness into the spirit of mid-winter gaiety.

Notable of the club affairs this week were the yearly Inter Se dinner Wednesday evening, the Oregon Products luncheon of the Fortnightly club Thursday, and the Kill Kare Club annual party Wednesday evening. And now the various organizations enter into a series of juvenile parties and dances that bring one of the merriest club seasons. Of course the Assembly club childrens' dance will be attended by a large troop of society folk this coming week, and members of Amusement club are preparing for another jolly juvenile jamboree following soon afterwards. While outstanding in fraternal social programs will be the kiddies party which members of the American legion and the legion auxiliary are to sponsor in February.

Eugene society is in the midst of honoring numerous visitors, and many of the larger affairs are being given for these guests. And now with the thoughts of spring come back the Eugeneans who have been spending a part of the winter in other cities. Among those being welcomed back are Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wetherbe, who return about February 1 and Mrs. Flora Livermore and Miss Gertrude Livermore who also plan to come about February 1.

Distinctive of February's functions will be the colonial ball which is given annually by the Oregon Lewis and Clark chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. The ball is one of the winter's largest affairs. February ushers in the more formal parties of the year, and already cards are out announcing a number of dinner dances that bring a spirit of anticipation. The coming of Valentine's day is also to be the occasion for numerous social activities, and already red hearts, and the varied Valentine favors dashingly make their way into the color schemes and decorative arrays of winter blooms and spring's early pussy willows and arbutus.

Teas, house dances, formal, class parties, and other gayeties are coming in rapid succession for university students with the winter term of school well under way. Interesting

Club Affairs Are Numerous And Varied

Mrs. George Schaefer and Mrs. F. X. Schaefer were hostesses for a lovely luncheon and afternoon of cards at the home of the latter today, covers being placed for twelve. It is one of a series of functions being planned by the two. Lilies of the valley and other spring time blooms were gorgeously arranged in the setting for the affair.
