Naturally You Expect New Patterns for the New Season

New styles, too. So there is nothing startling in the announcement that we have them. But the big thing about the spring showings is the values straight through the line. The styles are the new English ideas—wide shoulders, slightly closer fitting over the hips, roomy trousers.

Come see them—we're ready now!

increase taken into consideration and the elimination of certain funds, the governor told the committee there was a surplus of $181,778.82 over the institutional requirements. The budget estimates that the governor said should be eliminated were: $30,000 for battleship Oregon; $175,965 for state accident commission; $20,000 for market agent, and the quarter mill road tax amounting to about $529,400. The governor also urged diversion to the general fund of half a mill from the one mill veterans' state aid tax, which would amount in two years to about $529,440.

Increases Planned
The governor called attention to increases in certain state revenues which he said would be realized if certain pending legislation is enacted. An increase in the poundage tax on fish he said would yield $300,000 in two years; cigarette tax $100,000; motion picture tax $300,000 and a severance tax on timber $1,500,000. Fees from the corporation department, he estimated, would show an increase of $100,000 in the two years. Considering all these he estimated that the surplus would be $2,600,000 over budget estimates.

Both the governor and Senator Taylor of Umatilla, Morrow and

WATER BILL PASSES

STATE HOUSE, SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—Senate bill 65, providing for a water supply for the city of Bend by exchanging water from Deschutes river for a similar amount of water from Tumalo creek, was passed by the senate today. It was introduced by Senator Upton and Representatives Hamilton, Collier and Bordick. Chairman Garland announced that there will be a public hearing next Monday night in the senate chamber in the investigation of the state prohibition department. Anyone who wishes will have the privilege of being tion commissioner for Oregon is expected to be called tonight before the prohibition investigation here to testify.

LICENSE BILL ASKED

STATE HOUSE, SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—Vancouver, Wash., as a green green for Oregon folk will suffer if a bill passed today by the house of the legislature becomes a law. The bill would do away with the county resident requirements for a woman seeking a license to marry. Representative Bailey of Multnomah county explained that women coming from other states or counties to Portland intending to wed, now dash for Vancouver for a license and a minister.
