WORK PUSHED ON LINKS OF EUGENE CLUB'S GROUNDS

With but a few minor improvements to be completed on the first nine holes of the Eugene Country club, work on the second nine is being pushed rapidly as possible. It is hoped to have the eighteen holes ready for play by the Fourth of July.

Persistent inclement weather is slowing up progress materially, and unless a respite from the rain is afforded members will be compelled to forego the pleasure of playing upon the second nine until later in the summer.

The rain is also holding up the construction of ten or twelve bunkers to be placed at various points on the completed course where natural hazards are lacking. New tee grounds will be installed on the second, fourth, sixth and ninth holes when weather conditions permit.

At the present time winter greens are being used by the members to permit the sod on the permanent greens to become firm. No playing will be permitted on the permanent greens until the latter part of April of May, when the putting grounds should be in first class shape.

Under the direction of Ralph Martin, chairman of the green committee, a number of small fir trees are being transplanted to points of vantage on the first nine holes. About ten trees are being placed between the first and third greens and another ten between the fourth and fifth greens. These trees will be placed along the edge of the fairways where they will greatly enhance the beauty of the links in future years without acting as undue hazards. Natural growth supplies sufficient foliage at other points on the course.

Nurmi Again Sets World's Records

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Defeats rather than conquest, featured the second night of the annual Millrose A. A. Indoor meet, that of Ugo Frigerio, Olympic champion, by Willie Plant, of New York, standing out.

Paavo Nurmi, apparently unconquerable, accomplished the unexpected, establishing two world records in a two and one-half mile event for the John Wanamaker cup, which won for three successive times by Joie Ray of Chicago. Ray dropped out of the race last night after a few laps.

Nurmi has gathered 15 world's records since he came to America. Last night he outran marks set by Ray by reaching the mile and a quarter in 5:-30 1-5 and the mile and a half in 8:-39 2-5.

Plant, facing the other European invader, Frigerio, walked to what seemed an easy victory over a distance of three miles and 185 yards. Frigerio congratulated the victor by kissing him on both cheeks. Plant's time, 22:06 3-5 established an indoor record.

The Nutcracker

By BILLY EVANS

THE value of a star shortstop to a ball club was never better demonstrated than in the world series.

The injury that put Roger Peckinpaugh out of the running almost cost Washington its chances for the pennant.

While Bluege, who shifted from third to short, filled in very acceptably at Peck's position, it made a hole in the infield that just couldn't be plugged.

If Washington, world champs, can stay in the running this year, it means a big season financially.

In figuring Washington's chances the case of Peckinpaugh must receive serious consideration.

• • •

Will the leg injury that kept Peck out of several world series games, including the all-important final one, handicap his play the coming season?

• • •

Peckingpaugh's Case.

I met Peckinpaugh on the streets of Cleveland the other day and had a long chat with him.

"How about the leg?" I asked.

"Feels just as good as ever," he replied, "but of course I won't know how good it is until I put it to the big test.

"I have done much walking this winter, also a lot of skating. Incidentally, I have done some indoor running. So far it hasn't bothered me in the slightest.

"I have given the leg a good rest and every attention. Have taken only enough exercise to keep feeling well.

"However, it's the sudden starts and stops that play havoc with a leg injury such as I have suffered and not until I start regular play will I know just how strong it is."

• • •

The rumor is going the rounds that there is a holdout club among the veterans of the Washington team. The fact that only a few of the stars have signed is the cause.

• • •

Still Unsigned.

I asked Peckinpaugh about it. "I don't know a thing about the so-called holdout club among the Washington players," he replied.

"All I have to say on the subject is that as yet I have not signed. However, that is a personal matter between myself and the club.

"The difference in salary is not so great but that I expect to agree on terms before the start of the spring training trip.

"I had a good season last year. The club won the world championship. I may not have many years left in my system and naturally I am trying to get the money while the going is good."

• • •

The trouble that the Washington club is experiencing is one that comes to every team that wins a world championship.

OREGON TO CLASH WITH MONTANA AT ARMORY TONIGHT

University of Oregon will open its Pacific coast conference basketball season tonight against University of Montana at the armory, starting at 7:15 o'clock. Montana has a strong team, having defeated Idaho last Saturday, 31 to 27.

Oregon will start its regulars. Coach Reinhart intimated last night that they would play the whole game, unless the Webfooters pile up an unexpected large lead early in the game.

Scores of the rival teams follow:

Coach Dick Smith To Meet Candidates

Dick Smith, Oregon's new football coach, will meet the candidates for the team at 4 o'clock this afternoon at room 105 Commerce building. Coach Smith asked all those who wish to try out for the team to be present so that he could get an idea of what his prospects would be.

Should all players who are expected to turn out report, there probably will be 15 lettermen among them, Mautz, Bliss, Gooding, Kerns, Johnson, Wilson, Anderson, Vitus, Terjeson Jones, Mimnaugh, Shields, Bailey and Smith of the 1924 team, and Sinclair of the 1923 team. Sinclair, however, has not yet decided whether he will go out for the team, but it is expected that Coach Smith will be able to pursuade him to don a uniform as he is a valuable man.

CHICAGO CUBS TO BE STRENGTHENED FOR 1925 SEASON

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Acquisition of three sterling veterans from Pittsburgh the recovery of a trio of Cub players, whose injuries crippled the team last fall and the signing of George Gibson as coach and assistant manager to handle the 16 pitchers on the club's roster has boosted the pennant prospects of the Chicago Nationals for the 1925 season, according to President William Veeck.

The three players who came to the Cubs in exchange for George Grantham, second baseman, Vic Aldridge, pitcher, and First Baseman Bert Neihaus, are Wilbur Cooper, pitcher, "Rabbit" Maranville, second baseman, and Charley Grimm, first baseman.

Grimm plugs the hole at first base for the first time since the passing of Ray Grimes, who was sent to the Pacific coast. With Maranville at the keystone sack and acting as field leader, the infield has a stability it has not had in recent years. The addition of Cooper gives the club services of one of the best southpaws in the game.

Charles Hollocker, shortstop, ill last year, says he will be able to return to his old position this spring. Barney Friberg, third baseman, who had a broken leg last season, has fully recovered. The Cubs also obtained Clark A. Pittenger, a rangy infielder from the coast league, and he may be inserted at short or even at third. "Sparky" Adams, diminutive shortstop, also is available for the inner defense. Friberg may be sent to center field, the other two regulars probably will be Denver Grigsby, and Cliff Heathcote. Hack Miller and Arnold Statz will undoubtedly be retained to fill in.

Cooper, Grover Alexander, Vic Keen and Tony Kaufmann give the Cubs a strong quartet of moundsmen. In addition to these four twirlers, the Cubs has about a dozen others, the largest number ever taken on a training trip.

Gabby Hartnett and Bob O'Farrell will do the bulk of catching.

For Pure Prejudice

That's what you're paying—and so needlessly—you who prefer eastern to western motor oil.

Actually, the only difference between the two is one of price. The western product costs less for two reasons: Volume production and low freight rates.

All motor oils, in time, leave a carbon deposit. One is hard and gritty. The other, soft and fluffy. One is harmful. One is not.

The hard gritty carbon tends to cling to metal. It clutters valves and pistons, causing power losses. If left too long it scratches and scores cylinders. It must be removed every few thousand miles.

Not so with Aristo Motor Oil—a product from the finest western crude.

The soft, fluffy residue from Aristo Motor Oil does not tend to cling. Most of it blows out with the exhaust. It cannot scratch or score a metal surface.

10,000—20,000—30,000 miles without a sign of carbon are records that Aristo users frequently report to us.

Aristo in addition, is a perfect lubricant—the product of one of the largest and best equipped refineries in the world. That is quality insurance.

So use Aristo regularly if you want protection and less carbon trouble at a minimum of cost. You can pay twice as much for "Eastern," and not get as good an oil.
