DAMAGE ACTION ON DEATH WILL START

That plans toward the starting of a lawsuit against Lane county to recover damages as a result of the death by drowning here of Charles Adler of Portland are under way is the word received here today. Mr. Adler, salesman, was drowned the night of December 23 when he stepped from his car on the Coburg road a few hundred yards north of the Ferry street bridge during the high water period. The body was recovered December 25 in a slough about 200 yards below the place of the accident. It is presumed that the case will be based on the condition of the road at that point. Lonergan and Wagner, Portland attorneys, are said to be arranging to bring the suit.

NEW CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED MAR. 1

Plans for the dedication March 1 of the new Congregational church at Thirteenth avenue and Ferry street will be laid tonight at a business meeting at the church, it is announced. Contractors erecting the building have promised that it will be ready for occupancy by March 1, and arrangements will be started for the dedicatory program tonight.

The new pipe organ to be installed in the church will be here in time for the dedication it was learned today. The organ is believed to have arrived at Portland, and will be in Eugene some time this week for installation.

County Ferry Bids Received by Court

Several bids on the operation of the new county ferry to cross the Siuslaw between Florence and Glenada have been received by the county court, according to announcement today. The bids will be opened February 10 at 12 o'clock and it is expected that by that time there will be several more bids turned in, according to members of the county court. All bids so far received have been from residents of the district adjacent to the places where the ferry will operate.

FOREST RANGERS TO CONVENE HERE

Eugene has been chosen as the center for one of the series of forest ranger meetings planned by William B. Osborne, forest fire specialist at the district office of the forest service in Portland, it is announced today at the local Cascade national forest office.

The meeting here will be from March 2 to March 5, and will be under the direction of Mr. Osborne. It will deal almost exclusively with forest fires, and ways and means of preventing them in the Cascade national forest the coming summer.

Smith Taylor, district ranger of the Cascade forest at McKenzie bridge, who is now in the local office, says that C. B. McFarland, ranger at Oakridge, and H. J. Engles, ranger at Reserve, will probably come to Eugene for the meeting, and bring their assistants. C. M. Granger, district forester, is expected to attend the meeting in Eugene.

President Coolidge's salary, traveling expenses and the upkeep of the White House cost about $425,000 a year.

AFTER BABY WAS BORN

Mrs. Miles Was Miserable a Long Time—Owes Final Recovery to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dover, Ohio.—"After my last baby was born I was up and around again, but I was sickly all the time and did not know how to get my work done. I had washed a heavy carpet and I think that was the cause of my troubles. I went to several doctors, but their medicines did not do me any good. I asked what the trouble was, for I could hardly walk and always had such pains in my left side and then in my right side. He told me I had inflammation that caused it. I had one of your text-books and was reading it, and I thought I would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After four days of taking it I began to feel better, so I took three bottles without missing a dose. That helped me more than any other medicine I had yet taken and I always have it handy now. It surely did put me on my feet again."—Mrs. JAMES MILES, 419 Cherry Street, Dover, Ohio.
