

LANE LEGION MEN FROLIC TONIGHT IN BIG 1925 "BUST"

Tonight's the night, buddy—When every boy, doughboy and leatherneck in Eugene and Lane county, who has laid aside the mess-kit and bayonet for the pursuits of peace will assemble at the armory to celebrate the end of the war.
It will be the second annual reunion of Lane County Veterans, and will last from 7:30 o'clock until sunrise.
If you've got married since armistice day, 1918, you'll probably find it a hard job to get away from home tonight. However, if you can get friend wife to reading about her summer vacation or fooling with the radio, chances are you can sneak out.
Try anything—but don't miss the reunion!

The war will be fought over tonight—from the battle of Camp Lewis to Bois de Belleau and the Meuse-Argonne. There will be no military classes—the buck private and top kicker being on an equal standing with the colonel and the lance-jack.
If you look sharp you might see a major down on his knees shooting craps with his dog-tobber.
Compre?

Stage is all set for a large night, declares the American legion committee. The 40 and 8's decorated the armory last night, and the program is complete for 10 hours of hilarious joy-to-be-remembered entertainment.
Comedy skits of the kind that only an ex-service man can enjoy. Prize fights, War songs, Orchestra and band music, Dancing girls, Chorus girls, Oo-la-la.
Say, did you ever get a pass to Paris over the week-end? Well—you understand!

Cottage Grove sends word that the entire legion post is coming over for the celebration. Major "Pop" Huntley is leading all the ex-service men in Springfield to Eugene for the celebration—provided his new Star car doesn't break down, and he has to get out and crank it!

The only formation you'll have to stand in moss-oh! And talk about chow! The official slum-burner for headquarters company, A. E. P., prepared it himself—and there'll be no beans, gold-fish or corn-willie!
From the opening "hora d'comba" on the bill of fare to the "chef d'oeuvre" it will be a meal fit only for a vet of Uncle Sam's forces. Ah, oui!

So it looks like a big night tonight!
Arrangements are being made to accommodate a crowd of 1200, and it looks like the whole 1200 were coming. And say—Did you ever sit by the side of a pup tent "reading" your shirt? If you have, then you'll understand what George Love means when he says there will be "something doing every minute!"

Student Body May Be Asked to Back Tennis and Golf

Because of the heavy indebtedness of the University of Oregon student body, Jack Benefiel, graduate manager, and Randall Jones, president of the student body, explained that it would be impossible for the university to recognize tennis as a major sport and golf as a minor sport, unless the student body is willing to foot the bills which go with such recognition. Benefiel, Jones and Billy Reinhardt, basketball coach, were guests of the sports writers' association of the University of Oregon at a luncheon at the Anchorage yesterday, and discussed athletic conditions of the school.

Should the students be willing to tax themselves twenty-five cents a term, enough money could be raised to send the tennis and golf teams to all important Pacific coast intercollegiate tournaments. Mr. Benefiel said. Mr. Jones explained, however, that unless a demand for the elevation of these sports is created, the proposed amendment to the constitution would meet certain death.
Mr. Reinhardt pointed out the necessity of getting a new gym. At present the Webfooters have no floor on which to practice and must use the down town armory. Sometimes the armory is in use for other activities, and the players then have no place to practice. Next week, just before the Aggie game, Oregon will have to forsake three practice days as the annual automobile show will be held in the armory, Mr. Reinhardt said.

'The Ideal Husband' Presented at Guild

Witty lines and paradoxical aphorisms abound in "The Ideal Husband," the play produced by the University company last night at Guild theater.
In fact, it is a characteristically Wilde play. The plot is rather thin but creates a number of amusing situations and in the end takes a twist which leaves one with a gasp of surprise in his throat as the curtain goes down.
The play was on the whole well interpreted by the players having the principal parts although the acting of some of the minor parts seemed rather stiff. Florence Couch was charming in the part of the young English girl, Dorell Larsen had a part which suited him as Lord Goring. Mrs. Che-vey was played with fine understanding by Gerda Brown. Paul Krasie as the pompous English aristocrat, was excellent in his part. Terra Hubbard, as the man misled by ideals of materialistic success, also comes to a cropper, was also good in his part.
The motive of the play is well expressed by the quotation at the top of the program: "When the gods wish to punish us they answer our prayers," which implies that brilliant egotism which is to be found in almost all of Wilde's dramatic works.
"The Ideal Husband" will be presented at Guild theater tonight and tomorrow night.

STATE DEALERS TO BE GUESTS SUNDAY

Between 300 and 400 retail merchants of Oregon are expected to be the guests of Eugene starting next Sunday for an annual three-day convention of the organization. Plans for the entertainment of the visitors are shaping up well and everything will be in readiness for the banquet to be held at the Osburn hotel Sunday evening which will be as a greeting to the dealers, is the announcement.
Several other social features for the convention days have been arranged for the entertainment of the visitors by the Eugene merchants. The business sessions which open Monday morning will all be held at the University of Oregon.

Pioneer of Eugene Passes Away Here

John W. Christian, 73, pioneer of Eugene, died at the home of Mrs.
Anna K. Boone, 998 Eleventh avenue west, yesterday.
Mr. Christian was one of the early settlers in Lane county, living on a donation land claim that afterward became a portion of Eugene, in 1852.
He was born in Idaho when his parents were crossing the plains to Oregon.
His former home was near the corner of Twelfth and Pearl, until 25 years ago, when it was torn down.

Until 10 years ago, Mr. Christian lived in Eugene. He then moved to Neth. Survivors are a daughter, Mrs.
Joseph Japeta, Goshen; two sons, E.
L. Christian, Fresno, Cal.; and Roy Christian, Net. The deceased was a member of the local lodges of Woodmen of the World and Odd Fellows.
Funeral services will be held at the Veatch chapel Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. C. E. Dunham officiating. Interment will be in the L.
O. O. F. cemetery.

DATES FOR ANNUAL OREGON SHOOT SET

Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 29 to 31 have been definitely selected as the time for the annual Oregon state trap shoot to be held in Eugene, according to announcement today of W. R. Robertson, secretary of the Lane County Sportsmen's association.
This is expected to be the largest event of its kind ever to be staged in this city with at least 100 gunners entered in the lists. Mr. Robertson states. About 60 gunners participated in the shoot held here in September in conjunction with the Oregon field trials. The traps at the municipal aviation field will be placed in first class condition for the state event and plans for this will soon be launched by the sportsmen, is the announcement.
