STATEMENT BY MR. LARGE!

I am out of business! There is no "comeback" on my part, having sold my entire stock of Women's and Misses' Ready-to-Wear and Furnishings to Robert W. Prescott, a well-known real estate dealer of this city. I have agreed to assist Mr. Prescott in closing out this entire stock. So, beginning Friday, February 13th, and continuing daily until the entire stock is sold, you will be able to make real savings—sensational and startling—on new and seasonable Wearing Apparel. During the 13 years I have been identified with the Ready-to-Wear business in Eugene, it has at all times been my endeavor to serve the people of our community with only dependable merchandise and honest service. The friends I have made during my long business career have added much to my pleasure and I feel I must extend my thanks to these friends as well as to many I do not know personally for what measure of success I have had. And now that I have sold out and have no interest in a financial way in this stock, I wish to assure all my old customers that I will be here all during this Great Closing Out Sale and they may expect the same honest merchandise and efficient service that has made for this store the reputation for dependability so highly prized by myself.

(Signed) E. LARGE.

YOU NEVER SAW SUCH BARGAINS!

If you really knew how deeply prices are cut—if you had been present when these clever garments were marked for the sale—if you knew how many were cut far below actual cost—it would be impossible to keep you away.
