

COME IN OUT OF THE WET

Here's a new rainy day suggestion. Instead of sitting around the house in a state of extreme boredom...

For here is new merchandise daily regardless of the weather and on rainy days the store isn't crowded and you have all the time in the world...

THERE'S SOMETHING NEW AND NOVEL HERE EVERY DAY

McMorran & Washburne Store

GLORIA SWANSON STILL IN DANGER

Continued from page one. In the offices of the Famous Players Lasky corporation...

Cut This Out—It Is Worth Money. Send this ad and ten cents to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly...

ablegram, but when the Zukor office was called a few moments later and this was requested, it was discovered that the story was false.

Phi Beta Kappa at Whitman Initiates

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Feb. 24.—Whitman college chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary society, initiated new members Monday.

Showanda, the choice of the smoker.

CITY NEWS

(Continued from page one) states that he is confident that the Walker teams will come off victorious.

Ruth Hoffer Married.—Marriage of Miss Ruth Hoffer, formerly of Eugene, to Edward S. Biehman of Salem, was announced yesterday.

Farmers to Gather.—Construction and maintenance of rural lines will be the topic for discussion at a meeting for farmers Friday evening, called by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Car Licenses Increase.—Applications for 35 temporary automobile licenses at the office of Sheriff Taylor set a record Saturday for the total number since the applications have been received there this year starting December 24.

Survey Is Asked.—Requests have been received at the Eugene chamber of commerce from the chamber at Ruston, Louisiana, for copies of the industrial survey completed by the Eugene chamber.

Smith Taylor Leaves.—Smith Taylor, senior district ranger on the Cascade national forest staff, left the first of the week for McKenzie bridge, where he will deliver a series of lectures on forest protection and fire prevention the coming week.

Bridge Is Closed.—Detour around the new bridge on the Eugene-Cottage highway is still in use, and the bridge will not be available for traffic for some time, announces Clinton Hurd, county commissioner.

Pays $20 Fine.—F. W. Nettleship was fined $20 for obtaining a dog license from Judge George A. Gilmore for a female dog when the animal was in reality a male.

Funeral Is Held.—Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah A. Barringer, who died at her home in Eugene Sunday, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Veach chapel.

Marriage Licenses Issued.—Two marriage licenses were issued today at the office of the county clerk. The licenses were granted to Percy J. Houser of Grants Pass and Alice Hazel Tunis of Eugene.

Divorce Is Asked.—A divorce complaint was filed today in circuit court by Beatrice Lorraine Mann against her husband Jesse Lloyd Mann charging cruel and inhuman treatment.

Letterheads Attractive.—New stationery, including letter paper and envelopes, bearing the new design of the Eugene chamber of commerce have been printed.

Deserter Returned.—G. W. Slauson, charged with desertion from the United States army, was taken by W. G. Jenkins, chief of police, to Camp Lewis, Wash., today, after charge was filed by local army representatives.

Bradleys Return.—Mr. and Mrs. Lawson G. Bradley have returned from Portland where they attended the ball Saturday night given by native game companies for Adjutant-General and Mrs. George A. White in honor of their twentieth wedding anniversary.

New Station Added.—A new sidetrack has been built by the Southern Pacific railway between Veneta and Noti to the lumber mill operated by Neil Roberts, assistant P. L. Graham, district freight and passenger agent of the railroad.

Leave for Meridian, Idaho.—Mr. and Mrs. David Biddle and baby son Keith were called to Meridian, Idaho, this week on account of the serious illness of Mr. Biddle's mother, Mrs. W. W. Biddle.

Motorist Fined.—Lawrence Burback was fined $10 for reckless driving when he appeared before Judge George A. Gilmore in city court this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of the city traffic officer.

Returns From Klamath.—E. B. Kingman, local timber dealer, who has been at Klamath Falls for the past several days on a business visit has returned here, Mr. Kingman made the trip by motor.

Visits Summer Home.—Bruce B. Brundage went to his summer home on the upper McKenzie during the week-end and states that no more reports of summer cottages being entered and stripped of their equipment have been reported.

Leaving for Seattle.—T. E. Furnish, who has been operating the ferry across the Siuslaw between Florence and Glenada for the past two years is soon to leave for Seattle, U. J. Callier, recently awarded the contract for the ferry, is expected to take over the operation on March 1.

Returns From California.—E. J. Caruso of the Chris-Freeman company, tailors and importers, has returned from a trip to California, and plans to remain in Eugene permanently.

W. C. T. U. to Meet.—The W. C. T. U. will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. C. Sanderson, A. Frances Willard program will be given.

Mrs. McCracken Better.—Mrs. F. M. McCracken, operated upon at the Eugene hospital three weeks ago, is reported improving rapidly. She expects to be taken home Thursday.

Attends Portland Banquet.—P. M. Morse, county engineer, is home from Portland, where he attended a banquet of Sons of the American Revolution. His two boys, from Tacoma and Portland, were present.

Dance at 9 o'clock.—The hour for the Amusement club dance to be held in Dreamland hall this evening will be 9 o'clock. It was announced today. The time is later than the usual hour scheduled.

Fire Call Made.—The Eugene fire department made a fire run to the vicinity of Third and High street this afternoon, but no blaze was discovered.

other proposed changes in county school boundaries.

Dealers in General Petroleum products in Lane county gathered at a banquet in the Osburn hotel last night as guests of the Acro Oil company.

At Home Planned.—Orchestra, honorary dancing society for women in the physical education department for women in the University of Oregon, will be at home Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the gymnasium of the Woman's building.

Still Leads To Sentence.—George Watson, arrested last night by Sheriff Taylor on a charge of possession of a still appeared in justice court this afternoon and was fined $150 and sentenced to four months in the county jail.

Gives Demonstrations.—Grace H. Hogue, with the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company of Seattle, is here for a four-day demonstration, beginning today, in the new Laraway building.

Smith Taylor Leaves.—Smith Taylor, senior district ranger on the Cascade national forest staff, left the first of the week for McKenzie bridge, where he will deliver a series of lectures on forest protection and fire prevention the coming week.

Bridge Is Closed.—Detour around the new bridge on the Eugene-Cottage highway is still in use, and the bridge will not be available for traffic for some time, announces Clinton Hurd, county commissioner.

Pays $20 Fine.—F. W. Nettleship was fined $20 for obtaining a dog license from Judge George A. Gilmore for a female dog when the animal was in reality a male.

Funeral Is Held.—Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah A. Barringer, who died at her home in Eugene Sunday, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Veach chapel.

Marriage Licenses Issued.—Two marriage licenses were issued today at the office of the county clerk. The licenses were granted to Percy J. Houser of Grants Pass and Alice Hazel Tunis of Eugene.

Divorce Is Asked.—A divorce complaint was filed today in circuit court by Beatrice Lorraine Mann against her husband Jesse Lloyd Mann charging cruel and inhuman treatment.

Letterheads Attractive.—New stationery, including letter paper and envelopes, bearing the new design of the Eugene chamber of commerce have been printed.

Deserter Returned.—G. W. Slauson, charged with desertion from the United States army, was taken by W. G. Jenkins, chief of police, to Camp Lewis, Wash., today, after charge was filed by local army representatives.

Bradleys Return.—Mr. and Mrs. Lawson G. Bradley have returned from Portland where they attended the ball Saturday night given by native game companies for Adjutant-General and Mrs. George A. White in honor of their twentieth wedding anniversary.

New Station Added.—A new sidetrack has been built by the Southern Pacific railway between Veneta and Noti to the lumber mill operated by Neil Roberts, assistant P. L. Graham, district freight and passenger agent of the railroad.

Leave for Meridian, Idaho.—Mr. and Mrs. David Biddle and baby son Keith were called to Meridian, Idaho, this week on account of the serious illness of Mr. Biddle's mother, Mrs. W. W. Biddle.

Motorist Fined.—Lawrence Burback was fined $10 for reckless driving when he appeared before Judge George A. Gilmore in city court this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of the city traffic officer.

Returns From Klamath.—E. B. Kingman, local timber dealer, who has been at Klamath Falls for the past several days on a business visit has returned here, Mr. Kingman made the trip by motor.

Visits Summer Home.—Bruce B. Brundage went to his summer home on the upper McKenzie during the week-end and states that no more reports of summer cottages being entered and stripped of their equipment have been reported.

Leaving for Seattle.—T. E. Furnish, who has been operating the ferry across the Siuslaw between Florence and Glenada for the past two years is soon to leave for Seattle, U. J. Callier, recently awarded the contract for the ferry, is expected to take over the operation on March 1.

Returns From California.—E. J. Caruso of the Chris-Freeman company, tailors and importers, has returned from a trip to California, and plans to remain in Eugene permanently.

W. C. T. U. to Meet.—The W. C. T. U. will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. C. Sanderson, A. Frances Willard program will be given.

Mrs. McCracken Better.—Mrs. F. M. McCracken, operated upon at the Eugene hospital three weeks ago, is reported improving rapidly. She expects to be taken home Thursday.

Attends Portland Banquet.—P. M. Morse, county engineer, is home from Portland, where he attended a banquet of Sons of the American Revolution. His two boys, from Tacoma and Portland, were present.

Dance at 9 o'clock.—The hour for the Amusement club dance to be held in Dreamland hall this evening will be 9 o'clock. It was announced today. The time is later than the usual hour scheduled.

Fire Call Made.—The Eugene fire department made a fire run to the vicinity of Third and High street this afternoon, but no blaze was discovered.

Return from South.—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Parkhurst, proprietors of Nimrod Inn on the McKenzie, are back from a winter in San Francisco, and will soon open their resort for the 1925 season.

C. C. Crow Here.—C. C. Crow, editor of Crow's Pacific Coast Lumber Index, and Mrs. Crow, were visitors in Eugene last night.

Here from Blue River.—Felix Sparks, resident of the Blue River district, in the city today having been called for jury duty.

To Live in Eugene.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barger (Frances Summers) are to reside at 1558 Lincoln street, Eugene.

The Ensemble Suit for Spring

The vogue of the ensemble suit increases! No wardrobe can call itself complete without at least one of the new ensemble suits. And nowhere in Eugene will be found a finer showing than here.

FOR SPORTS WEAR—One chooses the ensemble with all cloth frock. In kasha half and half French flannel and Botany flannel. In the youthful shades so strongly favored for spring.

FOR THE TEA HOUR—One wears this ensemble with all silk frock. Delightfully frivolous affairs in lorcheen or charmeen with printed silk frock. The godet skirt is prominent in these silk ensemble suits.

FOR AFTERNOON STREET COSTUME—The woman who wishes to achieve smartness chooses the ensemble with cloth and silk frock. Charming afternoon apparel. In twill, charmeen, kashas and jerseys. Practical shades of navy, black and gingersnap.

ENSEMBLE COSTUMES PRICED AS LOW AS $34.75 OTHERS TO $135

McMorran & Washburne Store FOR STYLE QUALITY & ECONOMY

NOMINATION OF MR. WARREN VOTED

(Continued from page one) braska, and Stanley, democrat, Kentucky, were absent. Supporting Mr. Warren were seven republicans and two democrats. The republicans were Cummins, Iowa; Sterling, South Dakota; Ernst, Kentucky; Shortridge, California; Spencer, Missouri; Butler, Massachusetts, and Means, Colorado. Overman, North Carolina, and Shields, Tennessee, were the democrats. Senator Butler of Massachusetts, chairman of the republican national committee and close friend of President Coolidge, is expected to take charge of the nomination on the floor. Consideration probably will be in open session. Some opponents of confirmation, upon learning that two democrats had voted to report out the nomination, said they believed the administration commands the necessary majority for confirmation.

the side of the church building. A pane of glass in one of the windows fell out as he touched it, crashing loudly to the floor inside.

He climbed through the window and went into a closet where he set fire to some rubbish. He later returned and watched this fire, according to statement.

Buchtel said he entered the Kiser studio through an open door, went back to the stage and set fire to the scenic canvas and some rubbish. When he started to leave he fell off the stage, his head striking the floor. His face was injured slightly, he asserted. He left through the front door.

At the Northwest Planning mill, Buchtel went under the building and set fire to some litter.

In explaining the Grange hall fire at Milwaukee, Buchtel said he drove his motorcycle to Johnson creek, left the machine there, and walked to the building.

He started a fire in a closet in the building, went back to his motorcycle and sped away.

Insure with Henry Tromp, 33 W. 9th

Hall's Catarrh Medicine will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or Desires caused by Catarrh.

Sold by druggists for over 40 years F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio

FIREMAN ADMITS MORE SET FIRES

(Continued from page one) the rubbish and touched a lighted match to it. On leaving the building, he said, a man followed him down Twelfth street. He went into a theater to see a show.

Buchtel said he entered St. Charles Catholic church, East Thirty-third North and Webster streets, through an open door, inside he found some paint cans and rubbish, to which he set fire.

On leaving the building, he declared, he saw a man warring a lawn across the street. He left on his motorcycle and did not return.

At the Grace English Lutheran church Buchtel said, he walked along

Who is Chriss?

Chriss is a cutter and designer, also one of the firm of the Chriss-Freeman Co., Men's Tailors of Chicago, he is making Eugene his permanent home at Hotel Osburn.

The Chriss-Freeman Co. has gained quite a reputation in Chicago for making up-to-date young men's clothes with plenty of style, also conservative clothes with individuality cut into them, for the conservative business men.

The Chicago prices range from $35.00 to $90.00—this has been reduced to get trade started in Eugene to range from $30.00 to $75.00, which will give the customers something special at the price.

Mr. Chriss will be in all day Saturdays and Mondays, other days by appointment. If you cannot come on Saturday or Monday, phone for appointment.

Order now for Easter which is April 12th. 400 new Spring patterns to choose from. Salesman No. 311, Hotel Osburn, Eugene, Oregon.

Spring Styles!

WE feel so good about the new Stetsons—just received—that we'd like to telephone an invitation to everyone to come in and see them.

New colorings—New styles—embodying the newest ideas of the Stetson designers who are alert to the changes in fashion all over the world.

Come in now—We may run out of sizes.

New Spring Arrivals: FANCY INTERWOVEN HOSE COLLAR ATTACHED SHIRTS REGIMENTAL STRIPE TIES

WADE BROS. Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes