CITY NEWS

Telephone Men Here—
To interview prospective employees of the Bell Telephone company, a delegation of the company from San Francisco spent the day in Eugene with local telephone men. Those chosen must spend six months in specialized training before beginning actual work, the officials say. Those who conferred with the prospects included R. J. Heffner, secretary of employment and Allen G. Smith, of the personnel department, both of San Francisco; C. P. Nook, traffic department; Portland; J. L. Hland, Eugene manager; and C. L. Hubbert, superintendent.

Noted Poet Coming—
Edgar Lee Masters, noted American poet and author of the famous “Spoon River Anthology,” will be in Eugene March 9 for a lecture at the women's building. It is announced by the university. His anthology has been characterized as the most thought-provoking book of poetry of modern times. While wandering through a cemetery, the idea came to Mr. Masters to interpret the epitaphs and the names of the dead. He is the third of modern poets to appear on the campus in the last two years. Carl Sandburg and Vachel Lindsay attracted unusually large audiences on their visits to this city.

Funeral Announced—
Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Jane LaDuke will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Branstetter chapel. It is announced. Interment will be in the new I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Children Inoculated—
Dr. S. M. Kerron, city and county health officer, started today to inoculate the pupils of the Frances Willard school with toxin-anti-toxin, the diphtheria preventive. Within the next week it is expected that practically all pupils of the Eugene schools will have received the inoculation.

To Attend Funeral—
Members of Rebekah lodge are asked to attend the funeral services for sister Mary J. LaDuke at Branstetter chapel, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Members of other lodges will have charge of the services at the chapel.

Stock Shipment Planned—
If there are a sufficient number of stockmen who desire to send their sheep and hogs to the North Portland stockyards a carload shipment will be made on Tuesday, according to W. H. Fowler who has charge of the shipping for the Lane County Cooperative Shipping association.

Noted Educator Coming—
Mrs. Ella Brown, national representative of the visiting teacher movement, will be in Eugene to confer with school patrons and Miss Theodore Elwell, local visiting teacher March 9 to 11. It is announced at yesterday's meeting of the Parent-Teacher association council.

Leaving for Alaska—
T. E. Furnish, who recently operated the Siuslaw ferry between Florence and Glendon, is leaving this week for the north and expects to go to Alaska where he will be employed with a salmon packing concern there.

E. J. Adams to Return—
E. J. Adams of this city, secretary to Senator Stanford, expects to return to Eugene shortly after the close of the present senate session, according to a letter from Mr. Adams received by Emmitt Howard.

Lease Renewed—
Hellig theater has renewed its lease on the theater building it now occupies, announces W. B. McDonald, manager. Although the length of the lease was not given out it is believed to be five years or more.

Road Supervisor Here—
W. A. Nylander, road supervisor in district 67 south of Crow, was a business visitor in the city today.

Bus Bill is Held Unconstitutional—
The need of an armory is recognized, but I do not regard it of sufficient importance for the creation of a state debt with no immediate prospect of payment. The governor's item veto of $20,000 in the university medical school bill relates to the payment of capital outlay. He approves the act for $100,000 for salaries and wages and the item of $34,141 for general expenses of the supreme court. The $10,000 cut from the predatory animal appropriation is the amount that was set aside for the payment of bounties in counties that elect to pay bounties. Concerning his veto of the supplementary code measure, the governor says “I am convinced that this is one saving that can be made without great inconvenience to anyone.”

REVENUE PLANS SIGNED—
SALEM, Ore., March 3.—Governor Pierce today signed two of the revenue saving measures approved by the legislature. They were house bill 500, which suspends state aid to the industrial accident commission for two years, amounting to about $17,000 and house bill 497, which reduces the millage levy for the state bonus commission from one to one half mill, amounting to about half a million dollars. The governor has signed the following appropriation bills: H. B. 470—For state and supreme court libraries. H. B. 499—For installing fire exits and repairing elevators in capitol and supreme court building. H. B. 479—Salaries and expenses of state livestock sanitary board. H. B. 478—For salaries in attorney general's office. H. B. 490—For eradication of rodents. H. B. 486—To pay sundry claim. H. B. 495—Expenses of general and biennial elections. H. B. 476—Salaries and expenses of educational department. H. B. 492—For transferring convicts. H. B. 472—Salaries and expenses of supreme court. H. B. 488—For support of homeless, neglected and abused children. H. B. 475—Salaries and expenses of labor department. H. B. 481—For O. A. C. under Smith-Levy act. H. B. 477—Salaries and expenses of O. N. G. H. B. 493—For payment of interest on irrigation district bonds. H. B. 474—For salaries and expenses of state engineer. Other bills signed today were: H. B. 170—To exempt from estate and inheritance taxes property previously taxed within five years. H. B. 132—For uniform system of accounts for state institutions.

SHELTON BILL VETOED—
SALEM, Ore., March 3.—Governor Pierce today vetoed house bill 232, introduced by Representative Shelton, which proposed to grant to holders of water rights the right to hold such rights indefinitely beyond the 40-year period provided by the present statute. “The present law gives to appropriators of water and investors in hydro-electric power plants all the rights and privileges that it seems to me should be granted, except a few minor changes to make the present law conform exactly to the federal statutes,” says the veto message. “This proposed measure, house bill 232, goes farther and by certain provisions and limitations, will I fear, create a condition detrimental to the interests of the people.”

COMMUNICATION

BRILLIANT, B. C., Feb. 20, 1925. Editor, The Eugene Daily Guard, Eugene, Oregon.

Sir—Permit me to publish the following explanation, my pleasant friends were astonished to learn that Lavin Verigin, nephew of the late Peter Verigin has been arrested at Harrisburg, Oregon, as given out by the Oregon papers. Not knowing that there is another person by the same name.

I wish to say to the good citizens that there are two Lavin Verigin under same name and surname. The person who has been convicted in an unauthorized independent Doukhobor whose full name is Lavin John Verigin, while my name is Lavin William Verigin, and in my opinion the guilty person should be punished to the full extent of the law.

This L. J. Verigin has acquired most corruptive principles of a bad

Canadian who smokes, drinks, and eats meat as food, which contradicts with the Dukobor belief.

I am a member of the Doukhobor society known as the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood Ltd. and hold the fair reputation among the Canadian people, and further wish to add that I have never been arrested in my life.

Thanking you, editor, for the space you will allow me I am,
Very truly yours,
L. W. VERIGIN, Manager
Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood, Ltd. m3

Cats are one of the few animals that cannot throw off water easily. They always “get wet to the skin.” Domestic cats originated in Egypt. The River Parana in Brazil is inhabited by fish that bark like dogs.

Glen Morrow Re-elected—
Glen Morrow again was chosen president of St. Andrew's men's society of Central Presbyterian church at its meeting last night. F. S. Appelman was elected vice-president and E. M. ### LANE POSTS ENTER DELEGATE CONTEST

“Eugene post of the American Legion which so proudly held a leading place in membership in the state last year must become active again judging by what some other posts are doing,” according to Ben F. Dorris and George E. Love, both past commanders of the local post, who were at Salem last evening to talk to the Salem legionnaires.

“We want to tell the Salem boys how we put over our big campaign here but as they have a membership of 717 and seem to have gone up one bolt as we have only 490 on the rolls now,” Mr. Dorris said.

The Eugene legionnaires report that they challenged the Marion county posts to a contest for the largest number to attend the annual state meeting to be held at Grinnell in June. “Lays against Marion” is the contest and efforts will be made to have all Lane posts participate.
