

MRS. PIERCE DIES AT SALEM HOME

is now Wheeler county, near Monument, in central Oregon. May 30, 1871. Her parents were pioneers, her father, Peter Rudin, crossing the plains in 49 to the coast. Her mother came in '52. In early girlhood she moved with her parents to Milton, Ore., where she attended the public schools. Her parents moved to Walla Walla in 1887. She graduated at Whitman college in the class of '91, preparing herself then for a teacher, and graduated from the Ellensburg State normal school in the class of '92.

Married in 1893.

She was married to Walter M. Pierce in September, 1893, and moved to Pendleton, where her husband was then county clerk of Umatilla county. She lived in Pendleton, where four of her children were born, until 1907, moving then to the Grande Ronde valley, where she and her husband lived until he was elected governor in November, 1922, since which time she has been a resident of Salem, Oregon.

She was the mother of five children. Lloyd H. Pierce, aged 30, the only son, who went as a volunteer and served nearly two years in the World war; her oldest daughter, Mrs. Lucille Hall, lives in Salem, and is the wife of Harold Hall. Her second daughter, Helen Wilson, is the wife of Ray Wilson, a research chemist in the employ of the Western Electric company, New York city. Her third daughter, Edith Pierce, is now a junior in the University of Oregon at Eugene, and her youngest daughter, Lorraine, is a senior in the Salem high school. She also reared Clara Pierce, daughter of her husband by a former marriage.

Three Grandsons. There are three grandsons. There are three older sisters and one brother living. She was the youngest of nine children. She was a devoted mother, giving her whole soul and energy to the rearing of her children, caring little for society. She was a member of the Methodist church, becoming converted at Walla Walla in 1888.

CHARGES OF CHECK PASSING ARE MADE

On a charge of passing a fictitious check for $5 at a local store Saturday, Fred G. Mann, at the request of the Lane county sheriff's office was arrested yesterday at Corvallis. Mann is stated stopped at a fraternity house at the University of Oregon for a few days claiming to be a member from another state. This fraternity members grew suspicious and informed the sheriff. Evidence was obtained against Mann but he left the city by car before an arrest could be made. After his arrest at Corvallis it was found that the car he drove had been stolen in San Francisco February 18, will be turned over to the federal authorities at Portland on the car theft charge and not brought back here, according to announcement today of Sheriff Taylor.

Visitors Here for Lodge Ceremonies

The initiation of the Catholic Daughters of America was held in the parish hall Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock followed by a banquet at the Anchorage at 7:30 in the evening. avoid prosecution by the school authorities for non-attendance. Another girl, 15, brought into court on a charge of truancy married a 17-year-old boy to escape sentence. Six weeks later, their marriage broke up in a fight. A child, 14, married by her grandmother to a man of 40. And a long list of other tragedies. Occasionally one breaks into the public prints. Take the instance of Mrs. Marie Zello, married when she was 14. At 19 she was tried for murder of a dancing partner. The jury remembering the story of the Magdalen, freed her. She is going to the coast, to begin life over again with her husband and 5-year-old child. As she goes she broadcasts this message to all young girls: "Don't marry too young. Don't marry until you are sure you have had your play."

Her's was one of the few cases that had an ending not too unhappy. Most of the other cases are so sordid that they are unprintable.

EUGENE CHURCH IS DEDICATED SUNDAY

Condon as a youth, and as a student in one of his classes at the University of Oregon. Judge E. O. Potter spoke of Dr. Condon as a citizen and as his own personal friend. Professor H. L. Bates of Pacific university, the first regular congregational pastor in Eugene, told of the pioneer as a fellow worker in the church. Warren D. Smith spoke of Dr. Condon's scientific removal and his published books.

Mr. Evans Organist. John Stark Evans was organist at this service. The new organ was dedicated to Dr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Condon, Fanny C. Condon, Mr. and Wesley Shannon, Mrs. Lilla J. Wheeler, Mrs. Emma L. Hopkins, Mrs. H. L. Bates, Mrs. Minnie Washburne, Frank W. Osburn, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Moran, Robert McMurphy, G. D. Llan, Ruth Virginia Grant, Mrs. B. F. Stuart, and O. E. Taylor. A choir composed of Miss Clara Whitton, soprano; Mrs. C. A. E. Whitten, contralto; Dale Cooley, bass; and Hollis Cary, tenor, sang at both morning and evening services. Roy Bryson sang a solo in the afternoon.

In the evening special musical numbers were given with Miss Josephine Taylor at the organ. Miss Alberta Potter gave a violin solo and Frank Joe a tenor solo. "Open the Gates of the Temple," Rev. Clark spoke on "Beauty for Ashes," and Dr. C. H. Harrison of Portland, new superintendent of Congregational churches, brought greetings from the churches of the state and praised the architecture and character of the building. Rev. Edwards, Congregational Sunday school supervisor, also spoke.

Friday, March 13, the young people's rally and dedication of the parish house will take place at 7:30 o'clock p. m., and next Monday the brotherhood banquet will be given.

Beers Case Ready For Opening Today

Late this afternoon it was expected that the case of the state against Nelson Beers of Indian creek would be opened in circuit court. The largest crowd present for a circuit court trial during the present term was on hand. Beers is charged with an attempted attack on a young girl of 15 years of age.

Three more jurors have been drawn for the circuit court panel today as several of the former list were excused. The new jurors are Charles Colton, Mrs. Lenora Smith and Rheta Templeton.

MOOR GIVEN THREE YEARS ON CHARGES

Three years in the state penitentiary was the sentence received by C. R. Moor, found guilty by a circuit court jury Saturday on a charge of car theft, when he appeared before Judge G. F. Skipworth today. When sentence was given Ruth Moor, his wife, broke down and was led sobbing from the room. The woman was charged jointly with Moor but the case against her was dismissed on direction of the judge. Moor, who is said by the Lane authorities to have a criminal record in other states, thanked the judge for the sentence before being taken back to jail.

Harry Roseoff who was found guilty Saturday on a charge of assault and battery was sentenced to serve one month in the county jail and pay a fine of $100 when he appeared before Judge Skipworth this morning.

40 Kinds of Pain quickly stopped

There are countless pains which one can stop—stop them in a moment. The pains allied to rheumatism, to soreness, lameness and chest colds. Millions of people have done this, and for 85 years, by rubbing with St. Jacobs Oil. They have saved sons of suffering. It is folly not to do this the moment a pain appears.

St. Jacobs Oil acts in two ways. First, it causes counter irritation which relieves countless pains. Then it brings the blood to the surface to relieve the congestion which causes other pains and dangers.

Rub it on the sore spot whenever a pain appears.
