

CERTIFICATES OF CLEMENCY FILED AT STATE HOUSE

SALEM, Ore., March 12.—Nine certificates of executive clemency, not including paroles, were filed today by Governor Pierce with the secretary of state. The governor said the number was unusually large, but due to an accumulation of cases that he had not had time to act upon during the legislative session. The nine cases cover two conditional pardons, three commutations and four restorations to citizenship. The conditional pardons were:

Robert Bruce—Convicted in Lane county for attempted burglary not in a dwelling and sentenced to serve from one to five years.

Mike Gomez—Convicted in Lane county for larceny and sentenced to serve three years. Conditionally pardoned to be turned over to federal authorities for deportation to Mexico. The commuted sentences were:

Ed Canning—Convicted in Clackamas county for obtaining money and goods under false pretenses and received at the penitentiary June 28, 1922, to serve four years. Committed to three years.

William Brinkley—Convicted in Columbia county for larceny, and received at the penitentiary May 24, 1920, to serve ten years. Committed to six years.

Fred Williams—Convicted in Benton county for assault while armed with a dangerous weapon, and received at the penitentiary May 24, 1920, to serve ten years. Committed to 7 years.

The four whose citizenship was restored had all been paroled and since had lived law abiding lives. They are:

Fred Shields—Convicted in Multnomah county for assault with intent to rob, and received at the penitentiary November 27, 1915, to serve from one to ten years. Paroled October 6, 1923.

Cecil Ledgett—Convicted in Morrow county for burglary and received at the penitentiary December 15, 1923, to serve one year. Paroled May 19, 1924.

Clarence McDade—Convicted in Jackson county for assault while armed with a dangerous weapon and received at the penitentiary November 10, 1920, to serve 11 years. Paroled December 13, 1923.

Pete Chavez—Convicted in Harney county for larceny of horses and received at the prison October 5, 1923, to serve one year. Paroled March 10, 1924.

YOUTH OF 17 GETS ONE YEAR SENTENCE

One year in the state penitentiary was the sentence received by Ernest Elliot when he appeared before Judge G. F. Skippworth this afternoon following his conviction Wednesday on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

In imposing sentence Judge Skippworth deplored the fact that a state prison sentence had to be given a boy of 17 years of age but stated that this was allowed by statutes and that by good behavior the sentence could be cut down to a few months. The judge stated that the previous trouble the youth had been in did not justify a parole in the present case.

GROUP REPORTS ON NOMINATION

sion lasting an hour and a half was devoted to argument on that point.

The question was not brought to vote as senators wanted additional time to consider it. Chairman Cummins took the position that the president was within his rights.

Resolution Offered

Senator Walsh offered this resolution:

"(1) The president of the United States is without constitutional right or authority to submit to the senate a nomination for public office the contrary at the same session rejected by the senate.

"(2) The rules of the senate as well as fundamental principles of parliamentary law forbid the consideration by the senate of a nomination so resubmitted.

"(3) It is incompatible with the dignity of the senate to entertain a nomination so submitted."

With an adverse report from the committee, opponents will hold a parliamentary whip hand during the fight on the floor. Senator Walsh will present the report.

Further examination of authorities today led many senators to the belief that the president could give Mr. Warren a recess appointment after adjournment and that his acts as attorney general could not be brought into question even though the senate had twice rejected the nomination. The extent of the senate's authority, they said, would be to withhold pay.
