The NUT CRACKER BY JOE WILLIAMS

BOB QUINN of the Red Sox admitted today he was tired kidding the customers. "I've got an awful aggregation of pond lilies and I'll be sorely disappointed if I finish any better than eighth," he said.

Judge Landis today shot the Squirmy-Wormy course in 118. "It's the best score I ever made," confessed the judge, who spends 12 hours a day on the Florida links dignifying baseball.

Miller Higgins plans to start the season again with Babe Ruth in the lineup. "He's just a big fat clown but the fish in the provincial cities like to see him strike out."

Stanley Harris told reporters today all the stories about his being a youthful genius was just pure rot. "I had more luck than a goat in a rag-picker's storeroom last year and that's why Washington won."

Olaf Simp, who hit 500 in the O. and P. league, joined the Tygers today. Cobb predicted great things for him as a waiter or a freight elevator man. Olaf will come in for a great deal of inattention while here and deserves it.

This burg is one of the greatest training spots in the world. You can get real beer right over the bar, the golf courses are well conditioned and the janes make Peggy Joyce look like the harassed heroine in a white plague drama.

Short Stop, famous baseball expert today made public his annual selections in the two big league races. "I don't think I'm any further wrong than usual," writes Short Stop. Last season, it will be recalled, he picked the White Sox to win in the American and the Braves in the National.

One Punch O'Goofy has been appointed assistant manager and third base coach of the Glants. Mr. O'Goofy doesn't know a delayed steal from a standing, sitting, dive, but he's a great friend of the club owner and that's why he's in.

Speed Ball McGlinity pulled up with a lame arm today, and it was announced he hurt it trying out a new curve. The truth is Speed Ball strained the arm in his room trying to make a pass for 10 smackers. Ten's a tough point.

COMMERCIAL BULLETIN BOSTON, March 13.—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: "There is a growing impression in the wool trade that the market is 'dragging on bottom' and that increased business in decent volume is just around the corner. This impression has been strengthened to some extent by the course of the London sales, which have shown a slightly better tone as the sales have progressed. Australia also keeps firm at the low level.

"Manufacturers are looking to the market over more or less carefully and evidently are feeling a little more cheerful; in fact there is no doubt that there is slow improvement in the demand for goods. Current business in wool is in limited quantities and at slightly lower prices for the most part. Mohair is in limited request and barely steady."

The Commercial Bulletin will publish the following wool quotations tomorrow: Scoured basis. Oregon—Eastern No. 1 staple $1.55 @1.60; fine and fine medium combing $1.45@1.50; eastern clothing $1.50@1.57; valley number one $1.35@1.40. Mohair—Best combing $8.00@8.50; best carding 7.5@8.00.
