

MRS. R. STRAHORN PASSES AT HOTEL IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—Mrs. Robert E. Strahorn, of Spokane, wife of a pioneer railroad builder of the Pacific northwest, died yesterday at a hotel here.

Mrs. H. E. Lacey, Los Angeles, a sister of Mrs. Strahorn, and Mrs. Quintan Johnson of Spokane, a niece were with Mrs. Strahorn when she died.

Strahorn said he expected to arrange for the shipment of Mrs. Strahorn's body to Spokane by Tuesday.

Mrs. Strahorn was conscious up to within a few minutes of her death.

SPOKANE, Wash., March 16.—Mrs. Carrie Adell Strahorn, who died in San Francisco yesterday, was the author of numerous magazine articles and one book descriptive of her experiences during nearly half a century of travel over the west as the companion of her husband, Robert E. Strahorn, railroad builder.

Since their marriage in 1877, Mrs. Strahorn had accompanied her husband in his work as an engineer, traveling by stage or horseback. She was declared to have been the first white woman to explore completely and describe Yellowstone park and what are now Glacier and Rocky Mountain national parks. She also was one of the first women to explore and detail the wonders of Alaska.

Mrs. Strahorn was born in Marengo, Ill., in 1854. She was the daughter of Dr. John W. Green, who served as division surgeon in Grant's army of the Tennessee during the Civil war. She is survived by her husband and a sister, Mrs. Hattie E. Lacey of Los Angeles.

OREGON SCHOOL CASE TAKEN UP

attend public schools, they took the position that the court in deciding the issue should ignore the investments of private schools, holding that any loss which might result from the exercise of a pro-governmental function by the state did not constitute an unlawful taking of property.

Opponents Reply. Counsel for the appellants on the other hand, based their arguments on the contention that the new school law violated the neutral rights of liberty and property secured by the constitution; that it amounted to a denial of the rights of those following the useful occupation of conducting a school, violated parental control over children and exceeded the police power of the state.

There was a contractual right of those chartered by the state to conduct private schools, they further held which the state could not take away. The real purpose of the law was described by the attorneys for the private schools as one to completely destroy private primary schools in the state. Insisting that should this be permitted, secondary schools, colleges and universities could also be brought under state control, counsel for the school contended this would mean that only those subjects could be taught and those theories and doctrines expounded which the state approved.

The Seventh National Adventist and Domestic and Foreign Missionary society of the Protestant Episcopal church, as friends of the court, filed briefs attacking the school law.

Have Dark Hair And Look Young

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

Dr. G. S. Beardley has moved his offices from the McMoran & Washburne Building to the Eighth floor of the Miner Building.

Toll Road Proposal Will be Heard at Klamath Saturday

BEND, Ore., March 16.—The Klamath county court will hold a hearing in Klamath Falls, Saturday, March 21, on the matter of operating a toll road on The Dalles-California highway between Bend and that place, according to information received this morning by the Bend commercial club.

If the highway department will maintain the road, according to information in telegram, the Klamath county court will not enter into a contract with the Central Oregon Stage company for keeping the road open and charging tolls for doing so.

While the Klamath court has not signed a contract with the stage company, according to the message received here, the stage company has been collecting tolls on the road, according to Bend business men who have been over the road.

This will be the first talk of this year and it is expected that all farmers whether raising 20 or 2000 chickens will be present as Prof. Cosby's talks are well worth going miles to hear.

Guard Against "Flu" With Musterole

Influenza, Gripe and Pneumonia usually start with a cold. The moment you get those warning aches, get busy with good old Musterole. Musterole is a counter-irritant that relieves congestion (which is what a cold really is) and stimulates circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

Just rub it on with your finger-tips. First you will feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief. Have Musterole handy for emergency use. It may prevent serious illness. To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c, in jars and tubes.

SAM DREBEN OF WAR FAME DIES

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 16.—(Special.)—Fearless Sam Dreben, internationally known for his daredevil devilities on a score of battlefields; American World war hero and soldier of fortune in a dozen revolutions, will be buried today.

Dreben died here yesterday of paralysis after an illness of several months, aged 47. Toward sundown today the Hollywood American Legion post, of which he was a member, will take his body to a cemetery in Burbank, over the hills from here, where taps will sound the close of his colorful career.

Born in Russia of Jewish parents, Dreben came to the United States as a young man and soon afterwards joined the United States army. He became a first sergeant of infantry, saw service in the Philippines, in China, later participated in a revolution in Nicaragua as a free lance and founded out a Central American adventures with a term of service under General Lee Christmas in Honduras.

Mexico knew Dreben as a follower of Madeira and still later as a free lance with Villa. He quit Villa, however, and when General Pershing led his punitive expedition into Mexico after the Columbus raid he went along as a scout to help find Villa.

When the World war broke out Dreben enlisted and in the last big offensive of 1918 he fought with such outstanding recklessness, resourcefulness and effectiveness that the United States awarded him the distinguished service cross; France decorated him with the croix de guerre and Italy also honored him. It is said that near St. Etienne he led a small group of volunteers against a vastly superior German force, capturing four German machine guns, killing 50 of the enemy and taking two prisoners.

Many writers and soldiers of note knew and admired Dreben, and General Pershing once was quoted as referring to him as "the finest soldier and one of the bravest men I ever knew."
