

PITTSBURGH CLUB OF 1925 WILL BE STRONGER TEAM

PASO ROBLES, Cal., March 19.—(Special)—The Pittsburgh club of 1925 with two new faces in the infield will be a better team than the Pirates of last year's season, said Manager W. B. Keckie today in discussing the outlook for his team.

"No other club in the league possesses an equal amount of speed" he asserted, "and according to the average of the various players, it should, as a unit, hit well over the 300 mark. Headed by Max Carey, who over a long career of years has been leading base stealer and one of the smartest outfielders in the league, its lineup contains such men as Bigbee, Moore, Grantham, Niehaus and Wrights.

Several important cogs in the machine last season, thrown off their stride by illness, have reported in better physical condition this year. This is especially true of Third Baseman Traynor, who slumped so noticeably last season that he had to be taken out of the lineup for a time. Bigbee at present gives no sign of the trouble which dimmed his batting eye over the past two years.

"Last winter's trade with the Cubs which brought Grantham, Aldridge and Niehaus, to Pittsburgh in exchange for Maranville, Grimm and Cooper, will benefit the club. Eddie Moore, one of the finds of last year, will supplant Maranville. He is faster, will hit better and can be depended upon in a pinch. Aldridge will win as many games for Pittsburgh as Cooper will for Chicago.

"Albert Niehaus, first baseman, last year with Chattanooga has done about enough in camp to satisfy me that first base will be well cared for and has convinced me that he is a better hitter than Grimm.

"Fred Thomas, obtained from Omaha, will add to the reserve strength of the infield. The youngster is fast and should develop quickly.

"The catching department has been strengthened by the addition of Roy Spencer of Birmingham. Joe Cronin, a sand lot infielder from San Francisco, has been the sensation of the camp. He needs seasoning and will be farmed out for future use. All signs point to the club being a pennant contender from start to finish."

—how they satisfy the "inner man"?

GOOD MORNING! Good cheer! Good nourishment! All three piled high on a man's plate when mother turns out Flapjacks!

How they satisfy the "inner man"—these fine, upstanding hot cakes! How they start the sunshine ball a-rolling! Notice the men who go in for Flapjacks in the morning. They're the men who "eat up" work the rest of the day!

And—just this word of friendly caution to mother: don't make the mistake of serving Flapjacks at the end of a hearty breakfast. They deserve first place on the morning menu.

Fruit, Flapjacks, syrup and coffee are enough for any man with a right good morning appetite. Easy to make. Economical to serve. Simply add a little water or milk and bake on a hot griddle.

Say "Flapjack" to your grocer—he'll know.
