Who Want to Make Pals of Your Sons and Daughters

What man hasn't a desire to make Pals of his children?

Every man knows that only as the close confidant of his children can he advise and help them—guide them until their judgment is more mature—help them avoid life's pitfalls. The young folks are full of life. You wouldn't have them different. They enjoy music, singing, dancing—entertainment. That is quite natural—as it should be.

But wouldn't you rather find these at home than at some public place of amusement?

Put Music in Your Home

Give your children a Gulbransen Registering Piano; let their friends be your friends. You'll be amazed how much more HOME will mean to them—how much oftener they'll come to "Dad" for counsel.

No Man Can Command A Top Price By Dressing Like A Reduction!

Only the well dressed man writes his own ticket. The poorly dressed man has some-one write it for him. The first sometimes overestimates his value but the second seldom gets what he's worth. The fact is, a man must look like ready money to command it. He should dress not according to his abilities, but according to his aspirations.

He should keep in mind that being well dressed involves something more than new clothes. Even an old suit of good character is better than a new suit without a reference! And character's what we are selling! Even up to the last day you wear it, the garment you buy at this store will maintain your reputation as a WELL DRESSED MAN.
