ALIENATION ACTION FOR $10,000 FILED

Alienation of the affections of her husband is charged in a complaint filed by Mrs. Kate Driscoll against Elsie Anderson, 711 Eleventh avenue west. The plaintiff is suing for $10,000 and in her complaint states that the defendant has been friendly with her husband Daniel Driscoll and that this has caused mental anguish to the plaintiff. The plaintiff states in her complaint filed by her attorneys Potter, Foster and Immel that the defendant and Daniel Driscoll have been friendly since August 1 last. Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll were married in 1903, the complaint states. One specific charge is made by the plaintiff naming March 17 as the time.

Delegations Will Talk Farm Action

Several additional delegates to attend the meeting of the Lane County Agricultural council have been named by the delegates. The meeting will be held at the rooms of the chamber of commerce next Tuesday, starting at 10:30 a. m. A discussion on the agricultural program for Lane county will be held, according to C. W. Allen, president of the council. Delegates from each Grange and Farmers' union in the county as well as the agricultural committees of the chamber and the Lane County Bankers' association and other organizations interested in farming are expected to be present.

The additional delegates from the Granges are: Four Oaks, M. F. Stewart; Deadwood, G. L. Prindel; Irving, S. G. Harden; Willamette, P. B. Harlow; West Point of Colberg, Herbert Stanley.
