

City News

THE WEATHER
OREGON: Cloudy and unsettled tonight and Wednesday; probably local rains; continued moderate variable winds.

Charters Asked—
New county clubs have been organized under the direction of Arnold...

Building Easy—
How to build a new county jail at low expense was explained to the city court today by Thomas K. McCall...

Stills Gather Gold—
William Simons, of Springfield, an old miner past 70 years old, and George Carson, Springfield young man, left this morning for the mountains above Marcola to make their statures...

Stills Added—
With two more stills added today to the collection stored in the vaults of the sheriff's office the room is bulging on the appearance of a foundation...

Car Reported Stolen—
W. A. Hinton, 975 Alder street, has reported to the sheriff's office that his car has been stolen. The car is a Ford touring model, 1925, with Oregon license 122-257.

Back Gets Flowers—
Several large and attractive bouquets of cut flowers were presented to the United States National bank today by L. O. Beckwith and the flowers...

OPPORTUNITY is Always knocking if you read the WANTED ADS

Eugene Guardian

VOL. 68 TODAY'S NEWS TODAY EUGENE, OREGON, TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 31, 1925 TODAY'S NEWS TODAY No. 72

HOME EDITION

M'KENZIE MAN SHOT

Jazz Case Hints New Trend

ATTORNEYS IN CASE IN NEW CONFERENCES
Dorothy Ellingson Displeased With Inquiry Into Sanity, is Word

Plea to Some Charge Satisfactory to Both Sides is Considered Likely
SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—(AP)—Judge Harold Lunderback adjourned the murder trial of 16-year-old Dorothy Ellingson from this afternoon until April 6. A hearing into the sanity of the child matricide was begun.

JUDGE REFUSES SHEPHERD'S BAIL
CHICAGO, March 31.—(AP)—Judge Jacob Hopkins today refused to hear witnesses in support of William D. Shepherd's fight for a reconsideration of the question of his release on bail because the witnesses were not named in the defense affidavit charging that the principal testimony against Shepherd had been framed. Further hearing was continued until Tuesday.

Man of 70 Spends Life in Search to Locate Relatives
LOS ANGELES, March 31.—L. N. Vaneger, 70, who says he has been searching the United States for relatives since he was 20, is going through the directories and telephone books of Los Angeles and surrounding cities today in the hope of finding some representative of his line, if only a distant relative. His search has taken him to every state in the union, he says.

Movie Hair Dresser Dies in Hollywood
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 31.—Hattie Tabourne, negro hair dresser whose deft fingers have been credited with creating the exotic coiffures of Gloria Swanson, Polo Negri and other screen celebrities, died in a Hollywood hospital yesterday, utterly unknown to millions of movie fans who have admired and perhaps imitated her finished work on the screen.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

Papa Foiled; Daughter is Hubby Ahead
SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Fred Barrowman of Berkeley had a daughter and the daughter had a suitor, one Frank Clark, a student at the University of California. Now Barrowman has a black eye and the daughter has a husband.

FIRE FIGHTING IS TOPIC OF RANGERS IN SESSION TODAY
How to suppress forest fires is the subject of active discussion at the forest rangers' conference in Eugene this afternoon in the postoffice building. Having considered the factors influencing the action of fires the visitors are taking up the details of actually fighting the flames after they are started, and will continue with discussing errors of judgment made in the past.

Man of 70 Spends Life in Search to Locate Relatives
LOS ANGELES, March 31.—L. N. Vaneger, 70, who says he has been searching the United States for relatives since he was 20, is going through the directories and telephone books of Los Angeles and surrounding cities today in the hope of finding some representative of his line, if only a distant relative. His search has taken him to every state in the union, he says.

Five Killed by Morocco Natives
CHICAGO, March 31.—Word that Dr. Hans L. Hammerstein, his three children and their governess were killed by natives in Spanish Morocco has reached Chicago relatives from Barcelona, where, it was said, his wife, seriously wounded, is in a hospital.

Movie Hair Dresser Dies in Hollywood
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 31.—Hattie Tabourne, negro hair dresser whose deft fingers have been credited with creating the exotic coiffures of Gloria Swanson, Polo Negri and other screen celebrities, died in a Hollywood hospital yesterday, utterly unknown to millions of movie fans who have admired and perhaps imitated her finished work on the screen.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

MAYOR POINTS OUT CITY NEED OF BOND ISSUE
E. E. Parks Makes Appeal to Eugene Voters to Approve Projects
Necessity for Each Item on Special Ballot is Explained

As mayor of the city and one of her citizens I feel it my duty at this time to make a few statements in regard to the bond measures that are to come up before our citizens on April 15," the mayor said. "We are all more than proud of our city and its rapid and substantial growth during the past few years, and of the fine type of American citizens that are coming to cast their lot with us, because of our high standards.

Man of 70 Spends Life in Search to Locate Relatives
LOS ANGELES, March 31.—L. N. Vaneger, 70, who says he has been searching the United States for relatives since he was 20, is going through the directories and telephone books of Los Angeles and surrounding cities today in the hope of finding some representative of his line, if only a distant relative. His search has taken him to every state in the union, he says.

Movie Hair Dresser Dies in Hollywood
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 31.—Hattie Tabourne, negro hair dresser whose deft fingers have been credited with creating the exotic coiffures of Gloria Swanson, Polo Negri and other screen celebrities, died in a Hollywood hospital yesterday, utterly unknown to millions of movie fans who have admired and perhaps imitated her finished work on the screen.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

FARM COUNCIL MAKES PLANS FOR ALL LANE
Officers Are Elected for Coming Year; C. W. Allen is President
Program of Policies Talked at Session at Chamber of Commerce

Bigger and better crops in Lane county for the coming year and co-operative endeavors toward this end were the outstanding features stressed at the meeting of the Lane County Agricultural council held today at the chamber of commerce. Officers for the coming year were elected and a program of farm products betterment was adopted. Representatives attending the session from various agricultural bodies of the county were a unit in expressing their faith and belief that the council will be of great benefit to the agricultural interests during the coming year.

Man of 70 Spends Life in Search to Locate Relatives
LOS ANGELES, March 31.—L. N. Vaneger, 70, who says he has been searching the United States for relatives since he was 20, is going through the directories and telephone books of Los Angeles and surrounding cities today in the hope of finding some representative of his line, if only a distant relative. His search has taken him to every state in the union, he says.

Movie Hair Dresser Dies in Hollywood
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 31.—Hattie Tabourne, negro hair dresser whose deft fingers have been credited with creating the exotic coiffures of Gloria Swanson, Polo Negri and other screen celebrities, died in a Hollywood hospital yesterday, utterly unknown to millions of movie fans who have admired and perhaps imitated her finished work on the screen.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

Gerald Chapman, Noted as Crook, on Trial

Gerald Chapman, the big business man of crookdom, is shown above, handcuffed to a sturdy deputy sheriff, being taken back to his cell after the day's hearing. Armed guards surround him. At the right is a close-up shot of Chapman. He has pulled his sleeve over his handcuffs and half smiles at the camera man.

WITNESSES WEAVE NET FOR CHAPMAN

HARTFORD, Conn., March 31.—(AP)—Six of eleven witnesses who took the stand for the prosecution yesterday were innumerable strands of testimony intended to bind Gerald Chapman, mail robber and federal jail breaker, close to the murder of Patrolman James Skelley in New Britain last October 12.

Man of 70 Spends Life in Search to Locate Relatives
LOS ANGELES, March 31.—L. N. Vaneger, 70, who says he has been searching the United States for relatives since he was 20, is going through the directories and telephone books of Los Angeles and surrounding cities today in the hope of finding some representative of his line, if only a distant relative. His search has taken him to every state in the union, he says.

Movie Hair Dresser Dies in Hollywood
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 31.—Hattie Tabourne, negro hair dresser whose deft fingers have been credited with creating the exotic coiffures of Gloria Swanson, Polo Negri and other screen celebrities, died in a Hollywood hospital yesterday, utterly unknown to millions of movie fans who have admired and perhaps imitated her finished work on the screen.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

WOUNDED, AT HOSPITAL, HE REFUSES NAME

Deputy Opens Fire When he Sees Rifle in Hands of Liquor Maker

Still and Mash Taken; Companion of Wounded Man Makes Escape
Shot in the back and leg when he attempted to get away during a liquor raid on the upper McKenzie at an early hour this morning a man about 27 years of age who declines to give his name is at the Pacific Christian hospital. The man is not dangerously wounded, according to a report late today by Dr. S. M. Kerron, city and county health officer.

Man of 70 Spends Life in Search to Locate Relatives
LOS ANGELES, March 31.—L. N. Vaneger, 70, who says he has been searching the United States for relatives since he was 20, is going through the directories and telephone books of Los Angeles and surrounding cities today in the hope of finding some representative of his line, if only a distant relative. His search has taken him to every state in the union, he says.

Movie Hair Dresser Dies in Hollywood
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 31.—Hattie Tabourne, negro hair dresser whose deft fingers have been credited with creating the exotic coiffures of Gloria Swanson, Polo Negri and other screen celebrities, died in a Hollywood hospital yesterday, utterly unknown to millions of movie fans who have admired and perhaps imitated her finished work on the screen.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

Discussions Held On U. S. Attitude Over Arms Parley

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Discussions looking to a shaping of the American government's attitude in its participation into the forthcoming international conference in Geneva on traffic in arms, have been initiated by Secretary Kellogg with other members of the cabinet.

Man of 70 Spends Life in Search to Locate Relatives
LOS ANGELES, March 31.—L. N. Vaneger, 70, who says he has been searching the United States for relatives since he was 20, is going through the directories and telephone books of Los Angeles and surrounding cities today in the hope of finding some representative of his line, if only a distant relative. His search has taken him to every state in the union, he says.

President Opposed To Change in Russ Policy for Present
WASHINGTON, March 31.—President Coolidge is still unresponsive to suggestions from any quarter that the administration policy with regard to Russia be changed.

Site for Range to Be Topic of Meet
To discuss with General George A. White, commander of the state national guard, several sites for a rifle range in Lane county and also plans for the annual state camp to be held in June at Medford, Major W. G. White, commander of the first battalion of the 102nd infantry, leaves for Salem today. Major White states that at present there seems but little possibility that another infantry company will be authorized for Eugene but that after July 1 there may be an opportunity for this city to show if it can recruit another unit here.

Rights Restored To Mr. Ferguson
AUSTIN, Tex., March 31.—(AP)—Full political and civil rights were restored today to former Governor James E. Ferguson, impeached in 1918, when his wife, the first woman governor of Texas, signed the amnesty bill passed by the last legislature.

Movie Hair Dresser Dies in Hollywood
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 31.—Hattie Tabourne, negro hair dresser whose deft fingers have been credited with creating the exotic coiffures of Gloria Swanson, Polo Negri and other screen celebrities, died in a Hollywood hospital yesterday, utterly unknown to millions of movie fans who have admired and perhaps imitated her finished work on the screen.

La Grande Mill Safe is Looted
LA GRANDE, Ore., March 31.—The safe of the La Grande Flouring Mills here was blown last night. About $175 in cash was stolen. Police today found no clues. The store of C. L. Forestrom of North Powder, also was entered last night. Merchandise including guns and watches was taken.

CIRCULATION YESTERDAY
In Eugene 2714
Suburban 2465
Mail 1023
Net Paid 6206
Total copies printed 6470
THE GUARD GROWS