

FIRST TOURNEY OF SEASON SCHEDULED SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The first golf tournament of the season at the Eugene Country club will be held Sunday afternoon, when the women will choose partners for a mixed two ball foursome.

GLENNA IN NEW SETTING

Presenting the former women's national golf champion—Miss Glenna Collet, in a rather unusual pose at Ormond Beach, Fla., where she is brushing up on her game preparatory to an invasion of England in quest of the British open championship.

News of Nearby Towns

Special Correspondence To The Guard From Various Live Districts In Its Field.

COTTAGE GROVE

COTTAGE GROVE, April 3.—(Special)—Miss Nellie Stewart visited all last week in Eugene with the Ed Fuller family.

MAPLETON

Mapleton, March 30.—(Special)—At the last meeting of Maple Lodge 159, I. O. O. F., eleven candidates were elected to receive the initiatory degree.

SAGINAW

SAGINAW, April 3.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pink arrived Tuesday from Los Angeles and are stopping with A. E. Johnston while looking for a location.

JASPER

JASPER, April 3.—(Special)—Joe Castle returned from eastern Oregon where he visited relatives.

PLEASANT HILL

PLEASANT HILL, March 31.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parks of Dexter were visitors here first of the week.

MAPLETON

Mapleton, March 30.—(Special)—At the last meeting of Maple Lodge 159, I. O. O. F., eleven candidates were elected to receive the initiatory degree.

SANTA CLARA

SANTA CLARA, April 3.—(Special)—Santa Clara church had a treat Sunday evening when E. C. Sander-

SPRINGFIELD

SPRINGFIELD, April 3.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stewart of Klamath Falls left yesterday for their home after visiting at the home of Mr. Stewart's brother, Harry M. Stewart.

CRESWELL

CRESWELL, March 31.—(Special)—William Sedwick and friend Lawrence Woodward left Sunday for Klamath Falls.

JUNCTION CITY

JUNCTION CITY, April 3.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Holmes were visiting friends in Junction City this week.

OREGON BASEBALL TEAM LOOKS GOOD AT PRESENT TIME

Prediction that the University of Oregon baseball team will be the strongest in years and a championship contender from the start, have been made by the fans who remember when the Webfooters had real teams.

The Referee

How many games did Hans Wagner play as a major leaguer?—T. H. E. Wagner performed in 2785 hits in the big show.

What's become of Ted "Kid" Lewis, former welterweight champion?—W. A. C.

Lewis is now over in England fighting ringsters.

What is the date of the Kentucky Derby race?—S. S. S.

May 16.

Young George Sieder, who skulled his way through Michigan, is still subjected to collegiate relapses and runs the ball club on an academic basis with advanced educational amendments.

Just the same, some of Mr. Sieder's thespians are not to be sneered at behind coarse, manufactured fingers. One of his most important ones is that it takes ball players to win ball games.

Some of Mr. Sieder's employes, posing as ball players could be indicted for misrepresentation of facts, but in Williams, Tolbin, McMann, Gerber and the ancient Jacobson he boasts talent of a neat and fashionable pattern.

One of the new pitchers is Joe Bush, late of the Yankees. Bush is a gentleman with plenty of stuff including a back-firing temperament. He probably takes his new situation with about as much satisfaction and enjoyment as an invalid would a second helping of typhoid germs.

Until recently Dave Danforth, one of the valued union members, was a holdout. Danforth wired Mr. Ball, the animated bank roll, he intended to enter the dental profession.

Mr. Ball distributes his money with the same freedom of movement that marks the progress of glue flowing from an open bottle. Danforth received a wire to this effect: "You'll make more money pulling teeth than trying to pull my leg."

Whether the Browns will go anywhere in particular or nowhere in general hinges to a vital extent on the department of Mr. Sieder's eyes under fire. Mr. Sieder is quite optimistic. And sometimes an optimist, in such cases, gets farther than an optimist.

The Browns have never won a pennant. They are the league's underdog. But sympathy gets little chance to break in the box score, as a pinch-hitter for Ruth or a relief pitcher for Johnson.

ROSEBURG, Ore., April 3.—In a hand-pick wrestling match here last night, Ralph Hand, Cottage Grove grappler, failed to throw Paul Amort, local mat artist. Hand had agreed to throw Amort twice in 30 minutes, but the lad was too clever for him and several times during the match almost pinned Hand's shoulders to the canvas. The two boys will be matched for a finish go soon. It was said today.

MR. ACHTERMAN PLEDGES OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, CORVALLIS, April 2.—(Special)—Leonard G. Achterman of Eugene has pledged to America, and fraternal to the U. S. A. campus,

At Birmingham, Ala.—St. Louis Browns 6, Birmingham Southern 2.

At San Francisco—St. Louis Cardinals 8, San Francisco Seals 4.

At Oakland—Chicago Cubs 4, Oakland 3.

At Baton Rouge, La.—Chicago White Sox 18, Louisiana University 7.

At Mobile, Ala.—Boston Red Sox 4, Mobile Bears 3.

At Los Angeles—Pittsburgh Pirates 2, Los Angeles Angels 1.

At Atlanta, Ga.—Cleveland Indians 13, Atlanta 2. (Night innings).

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

THE REFEREE

How many games did Hans Wagner play as a major leaguer?—T. H. E. Wagner performed in 2785 hits in the big show.

What's become of Ted "Kid" Lewis, former welterweight champion?—W. A. C.

Lewis is now over in England fighting ringsters.

What is the date of the Kentucky Derby race?—S. S. S.

May 16.

Young George Sieder, who skulled his way through Michigan, is still subjected to collegiate relapses and runs the ball club on an academic basis with advanced educational amendments.

Just the same, some of Mr. Sieder's thespians are not to be sneered at behind coarse, manufactured fingers. One of his most important ones is that it takes ball players to win ball games.

Some of Mr. Sieder's employes, posing as ball players could be indicted for misrepresentation of facts, but in Williams, Tolbin, McMann, Gerber and the ancient Jacobson he boasts talent of a neat and fashionable pattern.

One of the new pitchers is Joe Bush, late of the Yankees. Bush is a gentleman with plenty of stuff including a back-firing temperament. He probably takes his new situation with about as much satisfaction and enjoyment as an invalid would a second helping of typhoid germs.

Until recently Dave Danforth, one of the valued union members, was a holdout. Danforth wired Mr. Ball, the animated bank roll, he intended to enter the dental profession.

Mr. Ball distributes his money with the same freedom of movement that marks the progress of glue flowing from an open bottle. Danforth received a wire to this effect: "You'll make more money pulling teeth than trying to pull my leg."

Whether the Browns will go anywhere in particular or nowhere in general hinges to a vital extent on the department of Mr. Sieder's eyes under fire. Mr. Sieder is quite optimistic. And sometimes an optimist, in such cases, gets farther than an optimist.

The Browns have never won a pennant. They are the league's underdog. But sympathy gets little chance to break in the box score, as a pinch-hitter for Ruth or a relief pitcher for Johnson.

ROSEBURG, Ore., April 3.—In a hand-pick wrestling match here last night, Ralph Hand, Cottage Grove grappler, failed to throw Paul Amort, local mat artist. Hand had agreed to throw Amort twice in 30 minutes, but the lad was too clever for him and several times during the match almost pinned Hand's shoulders to the canvas. The two boys will be matched for a finish go soon. It was said today.

MR. ACHTERMAN PLEDGES OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, CORVALLIS, April 2.—(Special)—Leonard G. Achterman of Eugene has pledged to America, and fraternal to the U. S. A. campus,

At Birmingham, Ala.—St. Louis Browns 6, Birmingham Southern 2.

At San Francisco—St. Louis Cardinals 8, San Francisco Seals 4.

At Oakland—Chicago Cubs 4, Oakland 3.

At Baton Rouge, La.—Chicago White Sox 18, Louisiana University 7.

At Mobile, Ala.—Boston Red Sox 4, Mobile Bears 3.

At Los Angeles—Pittsburgh Pirates 2, Los Angeles Angels 1.

At Atlanta, Ga.—Cleveland Indians 13, Atlanta 2. (Night innings).

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

At Nashville, Tenn.—Brooklyn Robins 6, New York Yankees 2.

Advertisement for Tru-Blu Graham's and Milk, featuring a cartoon character and text about spring fever and brain fog.

BUTTER MARKET NOT TO DECLINE

Butter is especially weak and reduction in price may result.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 3.—There will be no decline in the local butter market, for Monday, according to a report given out today by Portland creamery men after learning that the Seattle market would not consider a drop and intended to hold print prices at present levels.

Weakness in cubes with country stock accumulating here, led the local trade to anticipate a decline in price.

Eggs and Poultry. Eggs, large 24c; Eggs, large pullets 24c; Hens, light 16c; Hens, heavy 17c.

Butterfat and Butter. Creamery butter 47c; Butterfat 47c.

Meat Market. Cows 22c; Ewes 22c; Veal 16c; Pork, dressed 16c.

Wheat, bushel $1.50; Oats, bushel $1.00; Barley, ton $30.

Potatoes, local 2c; Carrots 3c; Turnips 2c.

Wool. Valley Wool 40c.

PORTLAND PRICES. Eggs unchanged; current receipts 25c; pullets 22c.

Butter, cubes lower, no change in prints; extra cubes, city 42c; standard 43c.

Poultry firm, unchanged heavy hens 27c per pound; light 23c.

Potatoes quiet, $1.50 @ 1.60; Nuts steady; walnuts No. 1 28c.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK. PORTLAND, Ore., April 3.—CATTLE—Nominally steady.

HOGS—Nominally steady; receipts 50.

SHEEP—Nominally steady; no receipts.

PORTLAND GRAINS. PORTLAND, Ore., April 3.—Wheat bids: soft white $1.35.

CHICAGO GRAIN. CHICAGO, April 3.—Opening wheat prices varying from 1/2c decline to 1/2c advance.

CHICAGO PRICES. CHICAGO, April 3.—Cash wheat No. 2 hard $1.44.

COMMERCIAL BULLETIN. BOSTON, April 3.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say: "A dull market almost featureless has ruled in wool this past week."

U. S. BONDS. Sales in $100,000. Low Close Tab. 3 1/2 101.30.