SOCIALLY, March disregarded the proverb of the lion and lamb and departed quite as meekly as it arrived. And the week, divided as it was with two months, brought to the first of April's days the week's society honors of importance and interest. The benefit musicale and dance given on Friday evening by the Eugene branch of the American Federation of Art was the larger event of the week, while the dedication of the university music building auditorium this week-end is of interest to many.

With the first of each month come numerous club events. Bridge clubs, dining clubs, luncheon clubs, study clubs, sewing clubs, in addition to the meetings of civic and school groups, have all brought a pleasing variety of activities that have kept most every one interested and busy when not occupied with the problems of spring house-cleaning and the ever-growing work of spring sewing and spring wardrobe selecting.

Entertaining for the next week will center around the four large parties for which Mrs. Guy Pyle, Mrs. Wayne Green, and Mrs. Veen Scott will be hostesses at the home of Mrs. Scott. The dance at the country club Monday evening is coming as a delightful beginning of the club's new social program.

The somber quietness of pre-Easter days concludes with the coming week, and for the rest of the month, parties, teas, and other functions will take place in rapid succession.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week will be the tea and lecture to be given by Mrs. Ruth Wheeler. Mrs. Wheeler has a collection of oriental art pieces, and is to give a lecture about them. The affair is to be held in the Laury building, and is being participated in by a number of university and town folks.

Glancing ahead, there is the oratorio, "Creation," to be presented by the Oratorio society on May 15 and 16; while the series of concerts and musical programs sponsored by Mu Phi Epsilon will be other interesting events to look forward to.

Tomorrow afternoon will see a large attendance of the country club members at the first of the tournaments recently announced. The event for tomorrow will be a mixed two-ball foursome of ladies' choice.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chapman have as guests over the week-end, Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Fowler of New York. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Chapman are entertaining at a small party of friends at their home for their guests. Both Mr. and Mrs. Fowler are well-known in Eugene where they attended the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morris were hosts for a theater party Thursday evening, inviting twelve friends to see "Green" at the Helleg. Following the presentation of the play, the party went to the Morris home for supper. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs.

Leland Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stickle, Mrs. George Bent, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moxley, Mr. and Mrs. George McGill.

To honor Mrs. Kenneth A. J. MacKenzie (Louise Sheahan), of Portland, a bride of this week, who visited in Eugene the first of the week, Mrs. Lynn S. McCready entertained informally for tea at her home Monday afternoon for a small group of friends.

A great many individuals as well as many of the various clubs are manifesting interest in the benefit bridge tea which the University Alumnae association is sponsoring on April 15. Throughout this week several clubs have reserved tables for their members, and it is expected by the committee in charge of reservations that the coming week will see a greater number securing tables. Reservations may be obtained from Mrs. Lamar Toose, Miss Elma Hendricks, Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris. The benefit is being held for the purpose of securing funds for the Mary Spiller scholarship at the University of Oregon.

Birthday Party is Event of This Afternoon

Marjorie Bradie celebrated her ninth birthday with a merry party at the home of her parents this afternoon, fourteen little friends being bidden for the occasion. Easter favors were appropriately used as decorations and favors for the party.

Besides the honor guest others enjoying the occasion were Brandon Young, Elizabeth Anne DeBusk, Mildred Packard, Eva Milne, Thelma Sten, Virginia Wallace, Margaret Hay, Marguerite Kelly, Margaret Sergeant, Yvonne Stevens, Margaret Durgan, Roberta Moody, Wilhelms Gerow.

Much interest was taken in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Louise Sheahan and Kenneth A. J. MacKenzie in Portland, Thursday morning. Mrs. MacKenzie is a sister of Mrs. Lamar Toose of Eugene, and has been a frequent visitor in the city. The wedding was a quiet affair solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Macdonald of Portland, and witnessed by only the immediate families of the couple. Following a short wedding trip to northern cities, Mrs. MacKenzie plans to make their home in Portland.

Mrs. A. H. Ross will be hostess for a luncheon at her home Monday for members of the Domestic Art club.

Mrs. W. A. Kinkaid will entertain the club members at her home next Friday afternoon.

Mrs. E. S. Rorer is Hostess for tea Given Thursday

Mrs. E. S. Rorer entertained at a charming tea Thursday afternoon at the attractive new home of Mrs. Harry Holden. Mrs. Rorer is leaving the coming week for Long Beach, California, and bade a group of her friends to Thursday's affair as a farewell.

Mrs. Holden, Mrs. M. M. Tuft, Mrs. David Auld, Mrs. E. K. Wheeler, and Miss Dorothy Wheeler assisted in receiving. An attractive color scheme of yellow was used with jonquils. Guests bidden for the afternoon were Mrs. J. M. Miller, Mrs. C. A. Burden, Mrs. B. B. Brundage, Mrs. Search, Mrs. B. Martin, Mrs. E. M. Gerow, Mrs. Idaho Campbell, Mrs. D. Allen, Mrs. W. G. Hale, Mrs. W. O. Swan, Mrs. J. G. Swan, Mrs. McKnight, Mrs. Anne Landsbury Beck, Mrs. E. K. Wheeler, Miss Dorothy Wheeler, Miss Dorothy Collier, Miss Georgia Stone, Mrs. S. Lehman, Mrs. Nelson Macchitt, Mrs. David Auld, Mrs. W. F. Jewett, Mrs. Dugald Campbell, Mrs. L. Perkins, Mrs. Flora Macdonald, Mrs. Byleau, Mrs. Seth Laraway, Mrs. Lawrence Manerud.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Roome and daughter, Barbara and Dorothy, returned the first of the week from a motor trip to Portland and Vancouver where they visited relatives.

An evening event of importance and interest arranged for the coming week will be the dance Monday evening which members of the Eugene Golf and Country club will sponsor at the club house. The entire membership of the club is taking a great deal of interest in the dance, and it is expected that a huge crowd will attend. The dance is being given for the purpose of securing funds for the improvement of the grounds of the club.

Mrs. J. I. Hesse and son, John Lewis Hesse, Jr., plan to leave Monday for Shoshone, Idaho, where they will visit for three months or so with Mrs. Hesse's father, Frank Cox.

Miss Etha Garlie had as a guest this past week her grandmother, Mrs. Garlie of Oakland, California.

One of the most pleasing events of late March was a surprise shower given last Saturday evening for a popular bride-elect, Miss Eva L. Pease, by Miss S. Eleanor Skene and Miss Rebecca Sallor, at Miss Skene's home. The guests were entertained with a quick wedding, the bride party being Eva L. Pease, bride, Mrs. Charles L. Sigman, bridesmaid, Jewell Wilkinson, bridesmaid, and Reta Jenkins, best man, with little Junior Dunn as ring-bearer, the ceremony was performed by Mrs. Gordon Dunn, Eunice Parker as soloist.

Campus Spring Social Calendar Lists Many Events

Varigated only as a college program can be the campus spring social calendar as announced this week has a list of events that fairly crowd the space between lines and even to the margins in effort to get the desired dates and time for the numerous planned affairs.

While many affairs listed are strictly of campus interest, there are several large events which are of wide interest each year to townsfolk as well as university students.

Hence, both formal and informal, costume and jitty frolics, concerts, plays, and a host of picnics besides the gala event of Junior week-end, are jotted down here and there throughout the term's social book.

The women of the university are now exceedingly busy working for the April frolic which is announced for April 11. The event is attended each year by scores of townsfolk who get as much pleasure out of the stunts and entertainment as the university girls who stage the frolic. On April 15, 16, and 17, the women's league convention will be held on the campus, and the men's and women's glee clubs will give a concert. "Crimson Eyebrows" an opera-ette by the University high school is to be given April 17 and 18. On the latter date a large number of dances are also to be given. The orchestra concert comes April 21, and the following three nights will be given over to a presentation of the dramatics department. On April 24 the four classes will each hold a party. On the week-ends of April 25 and May 2 several of the campus houses are holding their dances, and on Saturday, May 9, comes the Junior vaudeville.

Junior week-end, the outstanding function of the spring term, will come on May 22 and 23 this year. The following two week-ends are closed to all social events, though a number of athletic meets are planned for these dates which just precede the spring examinations.

One of the interesting club gatherings of the week was that of Thursday night club on Thursday afternoon at the chamber of commerce rooms. "Latin America" was the topic for the afternoon's study. Mrs. F. G. Young read a paper on "Emergence of Great Powers in Latin America." Mrs. Charles Carpenter gave the second paper, her subject being "Anglo-Saxon Expansion in Latin America." Panama Canal, Central America, Cuba, Haiti, Porto Rico, San Domingo. The third paper was given by Mrs. W. R. B. Wilcox, and was on the subject, "Possibilities of Pan-America. Trade Possibilities." For the first meeting in May of the club Dr. Donald Barnes of the University of Oregon is to give a lecture.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rogers were hosts to the Wednesday Dinner-Bridge club at the Osburn hotel Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. David Auld will entertain for the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fell were hosts to the Dinner club at their home Tuesday evening, asking as special guests for the evening Mr. and Mrs. David Graham and Mrs. Anne Landsbury Beck.

Alpha Delta Pi alumnae were entertained Thursday afternoon at the chapter house by Mrs. Lucy Perkins.

A wedding of interest to many Eugeneans took place in Gardiner last Saturday when Miss Georgina Perkins and M. Hobart Durbin were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Perkins. Reverend Bell of the Episcopal church of Coquille read the service, which was performed before a shower of spring flowers. The bride wore a beautiful gown of broadened georgette, and carried a large bouquet of ophelia.
