Mrs. and Mrs. Frederick G. Stieckel were dinner hosts at their home Thursday evening for a group of friends.

Mrs. Mary Jewett presided at an attractive one o'clock luncheon yesterday afternoon, having as guests for the occasion the members of Sunshine club.

Mrs. Melville Jones Is Honored at tea This Afternoon

As an affair to honor her house guest, Mrs. Melville Jones of San Francisco, Mrs. John Benefield entertained at an informal tea at her home this afternoon between the hours of three o'clock and five o'clock. As an artistic setting for the occasion candle light and tulips in colors of blue and gold was used. Mrs. Herald White presided at the tea table.

Those calling to meet Mrs. Jones were Mrs. Carlton Spencer, Mrs. Lynn S. McCready, Mrs. Herald White, Mrs. Arthur R. Wilcox, Mrs. Wilson R. Coffey, Mrs. Howard Hall, Mrs. Delbert Overtuffer, Mrs. Thomas Chapman, Mrs. Frederick G. Stieckel, Mrs. Herbert Rooms, Mrs. Lamar Toome, Mrs. W. E. Moxley, Mrs. Phillip Ireland, Miss Katherine Plunso, Miss Margaret Booth, Mrs. Delbert Stannard, Mrs. Arthur Morris, Mrs. David Graham.

Several visitors have been honored this week, and the coming days will be set aside for other events in welcome to a number of outsiders.

"A Night in Paris," to be sponsored by the American Legion is an event awaited by many for the coming weekend, April 24 and 25.

Mrs. Thomas S. Walls and Miss Ethel Sanborn entertained at a very pretty dinner party at the Osburn hotel Wednesday evening, honoring the seniors of Alpha Xi Delta. Special guests of honor were Miss Gertrude Manchester, of the alumnae, who leaves at the end of the school year for her home in Rhode Island, and Mrs. Mildred Giffen, house mother, who is to leave to spend the summer at her home in Ft. Dodge, Iowa. Covers were laid for fourteen. A tall basket of pink and white tulips made a striking centerpiece with place cards to match. Guests for the evening were Mrs. Giffen, Miss Manchester, Miss Beatrice Todd, Miss Augusta Hamilton, Miss Ethel Elkins, Miss Grace Caviness, Miss Hazel Hayden, Miss Florence Hunter, Miss Anne Gorrie, Miss Evelyn Bennett, Miss Helen Deuham, Miss Mary Donaldson.

Mrs. and Mrs. Erio W. Merrill were dinner hosts Sunday evening, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Rowling, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rooms.

Mrs. W. H. Brooks and Miss Irene Applegate were hostesses to members of Friday Bridge club yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Sims and son of Astoria visited in Eugene this program for the afternoon. Mrs. J. H. Hild, president of the club, presided and gave a talk on the purpose of the study, and welcomed the guests. Mrs. Anne Lansbury Beck, author of "The Hour Hand" operetta, and who is directing the presentation this week-end of the operetta, "Crimson Eyebrows," was in charge of the afternoon's program. Mrs. Beck discussed the accomplishments of Oregon composers and in brief outlined their work. To effectively illustrate the talk a number of vocal and instrumental numbers were given. Richard Adams and Miss Mildred Berkeley sang both solos and portions of the chorus in duet from "The Hour Hand." Miss Myrtle Janson played a piano solo, "Caprice," by Charles Kanyan, an Oregon composer; Miss Elizabeth Null played three piano solos, "Dance Americaine," "Gavotte," by Dent Mowrey, another Oregon artist, and "Legend" by Dr. Emil Enns. Mrs. T. A. Pearson sang, "If I was your girl," by Hilton Turry, and was accompanied by Mrs. A. E. Roberts. Miss Rose McGrew sang solos, accompanied by Dean John Lansbury.

Mrs. Calkins was assisted during the tea hour by the other members of the club. Decorations for the afternoon were representative of an old fashioned garden, spring blooms of tulips, geraniums, apple blossoms, orchids, daisies, and iris making a most attractive background for the party.

Guests asked for the afternoon were Mrs. Lottie Mowrey, Mrs. C. W. Hawksworth, Mrs. R. J. Coleman, Mrs. E. E. DeCon, Miss Sue Badolett, Mrs. R. C. Merrill, Mrs. Paul R. Kelly, Mrs. Kenneth Cockrell, Mrs. Carl G. Washburne, Mrs. Theo Stahn, Mrs. Sherman W. Moody, Mrs. Rose McGrew, Mrs. J. W. Kays, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Fred J. Clark, Mrs. R. W. Mrs. David Link was hostess for a luncheon at her home Thursday, having as guests members of Thimble club. Special guests bidden for the afternoon were Mrs. Henry Schwering and Mrs. W. L. Cheshire who assisted the hostess. Mrs. Robert Treat will entertain the group for a luncheon in two weeks.

For an attractive luncheon at the Poworth Thursday Mrs. W. E. Powell entertained U. D. Bridge club members, inviting as an additional guest Mrs. Herbert Rooms.

An interesting visitor on the university campus this week has been Miss Florence Jackson of Boston, a member of the bureau of advice and appointment of the Young Women's Christian association. While on her visit here she held a number of conferences with groups of the university women, and was the honored guest for a number of social events.

Musicales Given as Event of Annual Guest Day

That a group of friends might enjoy with them an interesting study and interpretation of Oregon songs and music, members of Monday Book club were hostesses for a musicale at the home of Mrs. W. W. Calkins Monday afternoon as one of the week's very delightful affairs.

The occasion was the annual guest day of the club, and had been thoughtfully arranged as such in order that others outside the club's membership might also enjoy the comprehensive study of Oregon musicians and their work.

Mrs. A. E. Roberts worked out the

Mrs. E. O. Holman returned this week to her home in Moberg, South Dakota, after a visit at the home of Mrs. R. F. Brown.

Mrs. Addie Osburn was a gracious hostess Monday evening for a dinner party at the Osburn hotel, entertaining for the Tonitru club members. The affair had been especially arranged to welcome back Mrs. E. O. Holman, who returned last week from a tour of the orient. Each guest brought a present for Mrs. Potter, the party being given also as a kitchen shower for her.

Avard Thimble club members were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. T. Ray, Motor route A.

IF CLOTHES WERE SOLD BY WEIGHT, DAD COULD LAUGH

One Pound and Half is Total Weight of Entire Costume From Head to Foot For Girl's Summer Wear

On the scales is a complete outfit for a girl weighing only a pound and a half. At the right a girl is shown wearing these 24 ounces of clothes.

"I'm off to a party," said June, the fair. With her very merriest laugh. "You are?" asked her mother, "and what will you wear?" "I'll wear a pound and a half!" "You'll have to hand the lightweight championship to the modern girl, for here is positive proof that her summer costume will weigh only a pound and a half! This includes a dress, hat, shoes, hose and everything else that is essential. The weight of the outfit could have been reduced a few ounces more by cutting off some ornamental buttons, but whoever dreamed a girl's outfit would weigh less than two pounds. Here is the exact weight of each article shown on the scales: step-in, one ounce and a half; brassiere, one ounce, hose, ten ounce and a half; satin shoes, one ounce; picture hat, five ounces; gown, five ounces.

Shakespeare Party Will be an Event Next Thursday

The coming week's notable function will be the Shakespeare birthday party for which members of Shakespeare club are entertaining on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl G. Washburne. It will be at three-fifteen o'clock.

The party is given annually, and is one of the distinctive events of the spring time. For the occasion each of the club's twenty-five members is to invite a guest. The affair is also one of the only social events sponsored by Shakespeare club during the year, the other being the Twelfth night party given each January.

The entire program for the afternoon will be given in commemoration of Shakespeare and his work. Mrs. S. D. Allen, president of the club, will preside at the gathering, and will explain the purpose of the party. Mrs. Prudence E. Clark is to be soloist for the musicale of the program and has arranged two particularly interesting groups of Shakespearean songs.

Other program numbers will be instrumental solos by Miss Celeste Campbell who will play from the musical settings for the plays, "King Lear," "Hamlet," and "Romeo and Juliet"; a Shakespearean reading by Mrs. Catherine Cogswell Thorne, and the reading of parts of the story "Spring Flight," written by Inez Haynes Irwin. Mrs. Addie Osburn will read this story which gives much valuable explanatory discourse on the time of Shakespeare.

Members of the committee who women are to wear brilliantly hued costumes, and the men will wear smocks and caps of bright colors.

The army is to be decked in banner-like decorations of gaudy and dazzling colors, with specially colored lights.

A program of vaudeville stunts is to be given, and while as yet not ready to announce it is said to be of the best talent that can be obtained. Between the acts the I. O. O. F. band in oriental uniform will play. Each evening the pageant is to start at seven-thirty o'clock. George E. Love is general chairman of the committee handling arrangements for the affair.

Patrons and patronesses for the pageant are to be Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Washburne, Mr. and Mrs. Eric W. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. John Bovard, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sinclair, Mrs. E. P. Dorris, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. David Auld, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Koke, Mr. and Mrs. George Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. M. Tuft, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunbar, Mr.

and Mrs. L. E. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. John Stark Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Colin V. Dyson, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Harlow.

The benefit bridge tea sponsored by the University of Oregon Alumnae association at the Osburn hotel Wednesday afternoon was a most successful affair. Two hundred or more were in attendance for the afternoon of bridge, with about twenty-five more calling during the tea hour. Many of the clubs of the city reserved group tables for the afternoon as did the fraternities on the university campus, and scores of individuals. Approximately one hundred and twenty-five dollars was cleared for the Mary Spiller scholarship which is maintained by the alumnae group, and for which the benefit was given. Twenty prizes were given, donated by the officers and friends of the association, and of particular note was the huge bouquet of tulips given by Fred Montgomery. The party was given in the palm and tea rooms of the hotel which were attractively decorated in lilacs and apple blossoms for the occasion. During the tea hour Mrs. Herbert Clarke, Mrs. Frank L. Chambers, Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mrs. J. O. Holt, Mrs. Lamar Toome, Mrs. C. A. Burden, Mrs. Ernest Stroud, Mrs. Henry Hollenbeck, Miss Elma Hendricks, and Miss Gertrude Livermore assisted by a group of girls from each of the campus sorority house presided. The money made from the benefit is to go into the proposed $5000 permanent fund for the Mary Spiller scholarship, which has been in existence for about sixteen years on the campus, having been founded by the alumnae association in 1908.

Mrs. Herald White is Hostess at Three Tables of Bridge

Mrs. Herald White was hostess for a delightful afternoon affair at her home Thursday, entertaining for three tables of bridge in compliment to Mrs. Melville Jones, a visitor in Eugene.

Guests bidden for the affair were Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Orville Waller, Mrs. John Benefield, Mrs. Lynn S. McCready, Mrs. Carlton Spencer, Mrs. W. E. Moxley, Mrs. Delbert Stannard, Mrs. Thomas Chapman, Mrs. Wilson B. Coffey, Mrs. George Hitchcock, Mrs. Walter Snyder.

L. O. E. club members were entertained on Thursday of this week at the Elks temple for an afternoon of cards. Mrs. Riley Snodgrass was hostess in the card rooms which were attractively decorated with pink tulips. In the dining rooms was Miss Fred Chess as hostess assisted by Mrs. F. L. Oxner and Mrs. H. L. Fitzjames. The tables had lovely centerpiece of lavender lilacs. Honors at cards for the afternoon went to Mrs. C. J. Daniels, Mrs. Roy Curtis, and Mrs. Albert Stien. On May 7 the club will meet again with Mrs. Whitton Swafford as the hostess in the card rooms, and Mrs. Ernest Broders presiding in the dining rooms.

A group of ladies who plan to form a thimble and get-together club, reported a pleasurable affair at the home of Mrs. A. Peter Nelson Thursday afternoon. Ferns and the various spring blooms were attractively used as decorations for the afternoon. On May 14 the group will be entertained by Mrs. Robert D. Burroughs at her home. Those making up the party were Mrs. Robert D. Burroughs, Mrs.
