Five automobile accidents have been reported to the office of W. G. Caldwell, chief of police, this week. Most of the accidents were minor collisions, but one injured, but considerable damage to the machines. The accidents reported were as follows:

Charles Ekins, 874 Thirteenth avenue and J. B. Ward, 2226 Columbia street, collided at Thirteenth avenue and High street.

Henry E. Sloan, McKenzie bridge, collided on Washington street between Second and Eighth streets.

Frank D. Goodwin, 1148 Ferry street and Fred Goodwin, Eugene, collided at Eleventh avenue and Oak street.

Frederic Richards, 241 Twelfth avenue, and Johnson Dairy, Eugene, collided at Twelfth avenue and Hill street.

Frank Baker, 803 Seventh avenue and R. L. Stoneburg, Coburn street at North Park and West street.

Teacher 49 Years

John W. Willard of Mesontown, Pa., is completing his 49th consecutive term as a school teacher. He is 70 years of age and will give up teaching at the close of this term because of the teachers' retirement regulations in Pennsylvania. He will devote his time to writing.

FOLLIES SCORE BIG HIT HERE

Ed Gallagher and Al Shean, comedy team featured in a novelty song series of dancing, singing and singing in the "Greenwich Village Follies" at the Helix last night. Many new verses to the well-worn song were introduced by the comedians who scored a big hit.

Approximately 30 chorus girls in many colorful costumes, were the brilliant background for the dancing and singing numbers. Noteworthy among the scenes were "The Nightingale and the Rose," from Oscar Wilde's famous story, featuring Harry Cole, a splendid dancer, as the nightingale; "Montmartre," featuring an Apache dance by James Cushman and Genevieve McCormack, and sung by Paul Markman and Mlle. Eff.

Two young men kept the crowd in roars of laughter with their comedy juggling of derby hats, and cross-fire banter before the curtain. They were Arthur Miller and Tom Sanders. The best laugh-provoking acts were "On a Pullman," where a colored couple, a Pullman porter and a cinnamon bear are complicated, "At Sea," in which four men on a raft at sea play high cards for the last biscuit, and the "Eternal Triangle," a new version of the husband, wife and lover plot.

EAGLES LODGE HAS ANNUAL ELECTIONS

Officers for the coming year were elected by the Eugene aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at the annual meeting held last evening. The lodge also made final arrangements for the observance of Mothers' Day at a special meeting to be held next Sunday forenoon starting at 10 o'clock. The annual state meeting of the Eagles which will be held in Eugene was also discussed and the program for this session will soon be ready, according to C. E. Lee, president of the state F. O. E.

The following are the new officers of the Eugene aerie: Past worthy president, Dr. R. J. Glick; worthy president, Albert Lundstrom; worthy vice-president, Dr. W. B. Lee; worthy chaplain, Major Ashton; worthy secretary, G. E. Wood; worthy treasurer, O. A. Faust; inside guard, A. J. Jewell; outside guard, J. C. Weber; trustee 3 years, J. O. Burgess; aerie physician, Dr. W. B. Lee; worthy nurse, Mrs. Roy E. Fornerock, Curtis Burton.

MRS. SHEPHERD TO GIVE HERSELF UP

McIntosh, 16 years ago, and her son last December 4.

"I hope there will be a fitting punishment for the foolishness of Judge Olson," Mrs. Shepherd exclaimed shortly before she fled from the beautiful McIntosh home in Kenilworth a North Shore suburb, where Shepherd and his wife had lived for several years with their foster son, "Billy" McIntosh. The house, generally known as the Shepherd home, recently belongs to the estate of young McIntosh, whose death of typhoid fever is alleged to have been accomplished by Shepherd by the inoculation of typhoid germs. Attorneys for Iowa and California cousins, who are heirs-at-law of "Billy" McIntosh, and who are contesting the will by which Shepherd was left the bulk of the estate, were reported today to be preparing to ask the probate court to take charge of the Kenilworth home to conserve the property and its valuable furnishings for the estate.

FAIR PROGRAM FOR YEAR IS DISCUSSED

Preliminary plans for the annual county fair will be taken up at the meeting of the Lane county fair board called for next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the office of W. A. Ayres in the basement of the courthouse, according to announcement today of W. R. Robertson, secretary of the board. The chairman of the committee in charge of the various divisions of the fair program are being listed and this will probably be completed soon. Mr. Robertson stated. The true program for the fair is also being prepared. It is announced.

Wenatchee man is Recommended for Road Supervisor

Appointment of R. H. Greife of the Wenatchee national forest to a post on the Cascade national forest, to have special charge of road and trail work was discussed this morning by Nelson F. Macduff, supervisor of the Cascade forest, and F. H. Brundage,

Two Injured in As Many Mishaps

SPRINGFIELD, May 6. — (Special) — Two persons received surgical treatment in Springfield yesterday for injuries received. A. C. Clark, assistant pianer foreman at the Booth-Kelly mill was adjusting a belt on a machine, when he was thrown against the machine, receiving a cut above the left eye and on the left cheek. His eye was swollen shut, but he was able to be back at work this morning.

Ray Lee, of West Springfield, who broke his nose playing baseball Sunday did not know the injury was anything more than a bruise until yesterday.

Aggie Engineers to Make Early Survey

Twelve logging engineers from the Oregon Agricultural college school of forestry, accompanied by Professor H. R. Patterson, arrived in Eugene today and called at the local office of the Cascade national forest. These men are the vanguard of the group in charge of improvement work in all the forests in the district, included by the Portland office.

Mr. Brundage was in Eugene for a very short time this morning on his way south. He may stop off again in his return. This method of handling road work is approved by Mr. Macduff, although it is not known whether the transfer will be approved or not.

A HOME WITHOUT CHILDREN Lacks the Greatest Joys of Life

Many Wives are Childless Because of Ill Health. Read How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Mrs. Benedict

Wash, and it was not long till I was relieved. Now I do all my own work and help others. I sure praise Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines to any one I meet that is suffering from similar troubles. I think if mothers with girls would give it to them when they come to womanhood it would make them stronger. People who have known me all my life are astonished to see me now as I was always sickly when in my teens until I started taking the Vegetable Compound. — Mrs. MARY R. BENEDICT, 313 Payson Street, Kewanee, Ill.

Has a Beautiful Baby Girl Now
Bridport, Vermont. — "In the first place I wanted a baby, but none seemed to come to me. I just love children and my husband is away all day, so I was not happy at all. A doctor told me I could not have a baby until I went to a hospital. But my sisters said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you will be O.K.' I was nervous, had organic weakness, with backache, headache, and no strength. I had been in bed nearly a week when I began taking the Vegetable Compound. It was all that ever helped me and I just wish you could see my beautiful baby girl. I am fine now, and so is she. I am still taking the medicine as it keeps me well. You may be sure I am recommending the Vegetable Compound and always will." — Mrs. A. W. HOWE, Bridport, Vermont.

THREE NATIONS TRY

NEW YORK, May 6.—Road Amundsen's impending dash to the North Pole by airplane tentatively set to start from Spitzbergen, Norway, this morning, marks the beginning of the dash of three nations to conquer that portion of the frozen continent, which in 400 years of exploration by ship and dog sled has been reached by only one expedition, that of Admiral Peary, 16 years ago.

Millionaire Dies, Starved, in Syria

SYRINA, May 6.—(AP)—The body of a millionaire who died of starvation recently was found in the hearse's quarter of Smyrna. The man, about 80 years of age, was known to most of the inhabitants of the city. When he had not been seen for several days the police were informed and forced an entrance to the squalid habitation. Among his filthy possessions were found large stacks of gold and silver coins, bank notes and jewelry, the value of which was estimated at $1,164,000. There was no food in the place except a pile of rotten oranges.

It was said the miser had inherited his fortune from his wealthy family when he was a young man and that his love for his money made of him an enemy of mankind.

MacMillan's is the only expedition which hopes to chart definitely that vast unexplored area on the Alaska-Siberian side of the pole. Half the size of the United States, this area may be the unknown continent both Peary and MacMillan on their various expeditions claimed they saw but could not reach.

Because of the thoroughness with which the MacMillan expedition has been planned, it may come to pass that the Americans will be called upon to rescue the two other explorers. Wireless apparatus will be carried by all three parties.
