

U. P. HEAD TELLS WHY LINE DOESN'T SEEK EXTENSION

PORTLAND, Ore., May 6.—Reasons for the unwillingness of the Union Pacific system to extend its central Oregon line from Burns to Bend and from Bend to Klamath Falls, or to join the northern line in building southward from Bend are shown in a statement received in Portland from Carl Gray, president of the Union Pacific.

The chief objection of the Union Pacific to extending the central Oregon line is that no opportunity is afforded the Union Pacific to have joint control as a means of securing the traffic needs of the upper Willamette valley.

According to Gray's statement, the Interstate Commerce commission, who last year heard testimony in the case involving the position of the Oregon public service commission for an order requiring the Union Pacific to build the east-west line across the state, correctly found that without giving the Union Pacific joint use of the Eugene-Klamath Falls cutoff there would be insufficient traffic to justify the construction of a line from Burns via Bend to a connection with the cutoff.

Modoc Pine Mill At Klamath Burns

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., May 6.—The mill of the Modoc Pine company was completely destroyed by fire Monday night with a loss of approximately $150,000. Fire started when sparks from a hot box ignited in a sawdust and the flames spread so rapidly that mill employees were unable to control it.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 6.—L. B. Menefee, of the L. B. Menefee Lumber company, said today when he asked whether the mill of the Modoc Pine company would be rebuilt.

United States to Enter Conference

GENEVA, May 6.—(AP)—The United States will have certain constructive suggestions to offer the international conference for control of the traffic in arms, representative Theodore Burton of Ohio, told the conference today. One of the most important, he said, concerned additional measures to deal with the traffic in poisonous gases with the hope of reducing the barbarity of modern warfare.

You can't fight the Devil with cream puffs

BILLY SUNDAY is called sensational. He is. He doesn't believe in fighting the devil with cream puffs. He gets audiences—and converts. TRUE STORY has been called sensational. It is. This magazine believes in fighting the devil with his own weapons—it gets readers and results.

Hundreds of thousands of people jam the biggest auditoriums in the United States to hear Billy Sunday. He doesn't believe the road to heaven is paved with soft words.

Yes, TRUE STORY is sensational—the Master Himself was sensational—when He turned to those who were about to stone a fallen woman, and said, "He that is without sin among you let him first cast a stone,"—when He advised the rich young man to sell all he possessed and give the proceeds to the poor—when He scourged the money changers and drove them from the Temple.

Perhaps you decry sensationalism and because TRUE STORY is sensational, you think "something ought to be done about it."

Then you have never read TRUE STORY with an unprejudiced mind. If you read TRUE STORY with the thought of getting something uplifting out of it, something you can pass along to others, who perhaps need the lessons it teaches more than you—then you cannot be disappointed.

TRUE STORY is life's mirror. It will not change—unless truth changes. It will be tomorrow what it is today—the most frank, sincere and helpful magazine in America.

We have not known a single instance of any human being, young or old, that has been harmed by reading TRUE STORY. On the contrary thousands have told us that TRUE STORY has guided them through mazes of evil forces and evil influences, into the light of moral safety and reason.

A ministerial board passes on every story submitted to this magazine. TRUE STORY is the only magazine that ever adopted this policy to protect the moral and spiritual welfare of its readers.

Indeed, TRUE STORY is such a great moral force that many ministers recommend it to the young people of their congregation and it goes into millions of homes and helps solve the problems of religious workers where the searchlight of truth is needed.

If to fight the devil with real weapons is sensational, then TRUE STORY is sensational—just as Billy Sunday is sensational.

TRUE STORY is truly the Billy Sunday among magazines.
