

Don't Miss This—It's Great!

The FLAPPER WIFE

by Beatrice Burton © 1925 NEA SERVICE, INC.

The Guard Will Publish the Big Fiction Feature

The FLAPPER WIFE

by Beatrice Burton © 1925 NEA SERVICE, INC.

This is no ordinary serial story. It is a tale of the times---a story of the jazz age and of how a young wife once almost overwhelmed by it, surmounts her difficulty.

It is a story full of action and heart interest, which holds up the mirror to life as it is today. Withal the story points a moral and constitutes as a whole a powerful sermon.

The author of the story is Beatrice Burton, a talented newspaper woman who became famous almost overnight by her authorship of "The Flapper Wife."

The illustrations for "The Flapper Wife" are as exceptional as is the story itself. There is nothing ordinary about them. They are made from photographs, and are beautiful as well as illuminating. "The Flapper Wife" will be worth reading.

Subscribe Now and Get It All

Publication of "The Flapper Wife" begins in The Guard today and will continue next Saturday, May 16. The story will run in liberal daily installments, but will require a period of weeks to attain completion.

The time to subscribe for The Guard, in order to get all of the story is now. Send your order and your check today.

- By carrier, yearly in advance - - - $5.00
- By Carrier, monthly - - - - - .50
- By mail, yearly (home district) - - 4.00
- By mail six months (home district) - 2.00