

HERE'S GLORIA GORDON

Heroine of Great Serial Is Real Flapper

"Where You ran a carpet sweeper I am going to run an automobile."

So Gloria tells her mother on the eve of her wedding. And she meant what she said. The married life of the Gregorys therefore was filled with thrilling situations. Its all in "The Flapper Wife" the great feature serial which is to be continued in The Guard next Saturday, May 16.

Every city, town, village and hamlet has its Gregory family.

And they live just as the Gregorys do in a great illustrated serial story prepared for you by NEA Service to appear in The Guard.

"The Flapper Wife"

"The Flapper Wife" was written by a talented newspaper woman. Her long experience has skilled her to detect the deeper currents of emotion which sweep women. Her brilliant grasp of newspaper technique has allowed her to breathe life into a story written especially for a newspaper serial. The temptations and trials of Gloria, a pretty young wife, will interest every reader.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE GUARD NOW,

Unless You Are Already a Subscriber, and Get This Big Story, Along With Other Big Features