Relief Corps and Gold Star Mothers. Mrs. Dices was a member of the Degree of Honor in Eugene, and had many friends in this city.

Cigarette Smokers Warned. Signs warning drivers of motor vehicles of the $75 fine for violating the state law against throwing any material on any road inside the national forest, were distributed today from the U. S. national forest office. The fine is for "throwing away any tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, matches, firecrackers or other lighted material on any forest land, private road, public highway or railroad right of way within the state of Oregon."

Building for Peace. "Building for Peace" is the topic on which Thomas Edward Green, lecturer, author and traveler, will address university students on Thursday at assembly in the woman's building. Dr. Green has been described as "a journalist by instinct, a statistician by training," who has utilized his constant travel about the world in gathering a storehouse of unusual information.

Repair Shop Opens. Glue Lacons of Springfield is opening up an automobile repair shop this week in connection with the Kopp and Jones storage garage at 857 Pearl street, Eugene. Mr. Lyons is adding entirely new equipment, making a trip to Portland on a buying trip over the week-end. He returned last night. Mr. Lyons has been employed at the Springfield garage of W. H. Adelan during the past year.

Plan Scout Troop. A new troop of boy scouts will be organized and known as troop No. 6, it was decided last night at which a troop committee was named, consisting of Dr. R. T. Burnett, chairman, Nelson F. Marshuff, William Barker, Dr. C. R. Wiloughby and Lester J. Temple. Troop No. 1 now consists of 40 boys of the university high school, and some of these will go into troop No. 6 as a nucleus.

Orator To Compete. Jack McGuire will represent the university in the Pacific Coast finals in the National Oratorical contest to be held at Stanford university, May 22. Prizes at stake aggregate $5,000 and the contestants are the six best from the colleges and universities of the Pacific coast states. The general subject is the American constitution. The contest, which is being conducted by the Better American Federation of California, will come to its national climax in Los Angeles on June 5.

Gather Old Clothes. Piopcer club boys of Eugene will gather old clothes for the Neat East relief on Wednesday, May 20, designed as a bundle day. It was decided at a meeting of the Pioneers' central council yesterday afternoon. More than 100 bundles of clothes were gathered, sacked, labeled and shipped to the Armenians last year. An over night hike will be taken Friday, May 22, it was decided.

Mothers Are Guests. A mother-daughter banquet will be held at the Christian church Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock for the University high school girls reserves, the Try-Y's and the Freshman Girl Reserve club at the Eugene high school with their mothers. About 140 have indicated intentions of being present.

Eugene Girl Pledges. Georgia English of Eugene was pledged to two women's honorary fraternities at the Oregon Agricultural college, Orono, Me., national home economics, and Zeta Kappa Psi, national forensics, at the women's convocation Saturday afternoon. Miss English is a junior in home economics.

Swimming Lessons Start. All boys between the ages of 10 and 18 years will be given free swimming lessons at the Y. M. C. A., announces E. E. Holdeman, physical education director at the Eugene high school, and will continue for two weeks. Boys will be able to register for the course in public schools.

Leave for Ohio. Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Templeton, 1970 Columbia street, left this morning for a trip east, where Mrs. Templeton will visit in Chicago, and Mr. Templeton will attend the general assembly of the Presbyterian church at Columbus, Ohio.

Camps Are Inspected. The majority of the auto tourist camps in Lane county have been inspected and recommendations made that they received the state license as required by the new law passed by the last session of the legislature. A few more camps are yet to make application for the license, according to Dr. S. M. Kerron, city and county health officer, who has charge of the inspections.

Grand Jury Called. The Lane county grand jury appointed last month by Judge J. C. Kendall is called for May 18, two weeks before the opening of the regular circuit term. The new jury consists of W. L. Coppersmith, Mrs. Margaret Lee Rapp, Mrs. Hattie B. Drury, H. D. Smartt, Charles Colton, John McGuire and Ernest Shrenk.

Leaves for Deadwood. Mrs. E. L. Berkshire, resident of the Deadwood district, came 50 miles to attend the school children's pageant in Eugene Saturday and also aided in the success of the pioneer relic display by bringing a tea kettle, more than 150 years old. Mrs. Berkshire returned today to her home in western Lane.

Clara Miller Honored. Clara Miller of Eugene was pledged to Omicron Nu, women's honorary home economics fraternity at the Oregon Agricultural college, at the women's convocation Saturday afternoon. Miss Miller, sophomore in home economics, is a member of the Delta Zeta sorority.

Early Roses Bloom. Mrs. Mary Wallace, 335 Pearl street, has had Red Letter Day roses in bloom for over a week and Isabel, Lyon, Madam Ravary and Leah Bird are all blooming and full of buds in her garden. "We have spring a month earlier on the hill, so that may account for it," said Mrs. Wallace.

Eugene Births Reported. Through an error the report on births and deaths during April was credited for Lane county instead of Eugene. Each city in the state makes a separate report to the state board of health, according to Dr. S. M. Kerron, city and county health officer.

Dr. Marti To Speak. Dr. Fritz Marti, of the university philosophy department, will read the paper before the Philosophy club, at a meeting to be held tonight, in the woman's building. "Religious Reality" is the topic. After the reading, an informal discussion will take place.
