LAST REHEARSAL FOR ORATORIO IS HELD AT CHURCH

Rehearsal for "The Creation" with all the soloists present was a thrilling event last night at the Methodist church. One glance at this great body of singers filling the choir loft completely as well as the large platform which was built out into the church auditorium, for the purpose, is an imposing sight, but even this is not to be compared with the tremendous volume of magnificent choral music which filled the entire neighborhood.

The chorus expressed their joy in the soloists, applauding enthusiastically the solo numbers which the outstanding singers presented for the first time here.

Too much cannot be said in favor of these singers. Their voices are superb and they know how to sing Oratorio to perfection. Mrs. Clark completes the quartet in a highly satisfactory way, it is announced.

Mr. Gage Christopher sang at assembly yesterday morning, and brought out enthusiastic applause from the students and persistent requests for encores.

Mrs. Albert, charming to look upon, sings magnificently. Mr. Pflieger has a tender voice of lovely quality and he sings with delightful spirit. Eugene audiences know and appreciate Mrs. Clark's beautiful contralto voice, according to members of the chorus.

Eugene audiences have rare treats in store for them tonight and tomorrow night when the Eugene Oratorio Society present "The Creation" at the Methodist church, under the direction of John Stark Evans. Both Mr. John Landis and Mr. Evans expressed their satisfaction and happiness over the rehearsal last night and prophesy a splendid performance.

Neophites Present Satire of Recent Action of Regents

A wedding which was celebrated with pomp and ceremony, and attended by a large crowd of University of Oregon students was held on the university library steps this morning when Miss Drama, the blushing bride, was united in marriage to Mr. English, Rev. Mr. Regent officiating. The mock wedding was put on by neophites in Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalism fraternity for men, as an original part of their initiation, and was a satire on the recent abolition of the dramatic department in its union with English as authorized by the University Board of Regents. The men appeared in full dress, with placards on their backs.

Standing beside the bride was the impersonator of the bride's father, labeled "Mr. Reddie," who wept copiously on her shoulder. The "best man" was "Dr. Rudolph Ernst," head of the English department. "Still Another Regent" stood nearby to speed up the ceremony when anyone intervened, and a protesting "Dramatics student," made objections. After the knot was tied the "bride" threw her bouquet (a somewhat over-ripe cabbage) to the waiting crowd.

Better Business Shown by Record

Indications of the increase of business in Eugene is the report of the Postal Telegraph office in this city showing a 30 per cent increase in business during the past six months. This record of increase is rewarded by the company by designating the local office as the banner station of the second district of the Pacific coast. H. F. Brown, local manager, will attend a meeting of the managers of other banner cities of the west, it is announced.

CLEARING HOUSE STOPS WARRANTS

By action of the Eugene clearing house today causing of certain issues of city warrants has been stopped temporarily. The surplus of unsecured bonds that has been accumulating for a number of years are to be secured by an issue of warrant refunding bonds, city officials stated today. This bond issue was planned for the fall. It is pointed out by city officials that the growing city cannot meet its increasing expenses under the present restricted budget plan and that the over drafts are proving a handicap to the financing of the city. This will cause inconvenience to the city administration but the credit of the municipality is perfectly sound, it is declared.

The following is the resolution of the clearing house association: "Be it resolved, That until further action is taken, that none of the bonds belonging to this organization shall cash or receive for deposit warrants of the city of Eugene upon the following funds, to-wit: "City improvement fund. "General bond interest fund. "General bond fund. "Improvement bond interest fund. "This resolution is adopted for the reason that the common council of the city of Eugene has heretofore agreed to issue bonds for the purpose of taking up its warrants issued for about approximately $200,000 of warrants that are not based on any security whatever, representing a deficit occasioned by reason of the expenses of the city being greater than its income, and has taken no steps to carry out such agreement.

"It is therefore the intention of the clearing house board that this resolution shall remain in force until the common council of the city of Eugene shall have adopted measures along said lines to place the finances of the city of Eugene on a solid basis. "EUGENE CLEARING HOUSE ASS'N, O. A. Houglum, Secy.

COLT BREAKS RECORD

JAMAICA, N. Y., May 15.—Stung, handspan colt owned by James Butler today broke the world's record for a mile and seventy yards in the fourth race. The time was 1:41 1/5.

Cemetery Owners To Clean Grounds

Tuesday, May 19 has been designated as the annual "clean-up" day at the Pleasant Hill cemetery and everyone interested has been asked to aid in the work as it is desired that the cemetery will be in fine condition for Memorial Day, according to the officers of the association. The cemetery directors are Andrew Olson, C. E. Jordan and E. B. Tinker.

"Should you be unable to be there in person to work but wish to help, your donation will be used to have the work done. "Money can be deposited in the First National Bank of Eugene, Ore., for the credit of Pleasant Hill Cemetery, or sent to Secretary-Treasurer.

"We hope that this year will see our cemetery cleaned up before Memorial Day as well. If not better, than it was last year," is the appeal made.

The long dollar

They say a tight man squeezes his dollar until he makes "the eagle scream."

A wise man makes his dollar stretch. He buys—but he buys wisely, making every dollar go a long way.

He knows that the purchasing power of a dollar has shrunk considerably in the last ten years. He also knows there has never been a time when wise buying paid bigger dividends.

Every day, this newspaper contains information that you should have to increase your buying power. The advertisements are intimate little lessons in every-day economy. They teach you how, when and for what your dollar will go farthest.

Manufacturers and merchants tell of their products through the advertisements. Almost every new opportunity is offered through an advertisement. Practically every unusual buy is advertised.

You can stretch your dollar to its elastic limit by keeping abreast of the opportunities to get full values.
