Flying Ebony Wins in Derby

SANDE RIDES WINNER; TIME IS 2:07 2-5

Captain Hal Finishes Second and Son of John Third in Fast Race

Eighty-Thousand Spectators See Spectacular Event in Kentucky

CHURCHILL DOWNS, LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 16.—(AP)—Flying Ebony, ridden by Earl Sande, won the $50,000 Kentucky derby today while 75,000 to 80,000 spectators cheered their tribute.

Captain Hal finished second and son of John, third. The time was 2:07 2-5.

Earl Sande, America's premier jockey, rode one of the greatest races of his life, bringing Flying Ebony across the wire a full length ahead of Captain Hal. The race was run in a drizzle of rain, threatening a downpour, every second. Just before the start, a violent rainstorm broke, drenching thousands of the spectators, unprotected by the cover of the grand stand.

STANDS ARE FILLED
CHURCHILL DOWNS, LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 16.—(AP)—With the grand stands full and every inch of standing room packed to the limit, a record-breaking crowd was streaming through the gates at the Churchill Downs course this afternoon to witness the fifty-first running of the $50,000 Kentucky Derby.

Conservative estimates placed the amount of money that would change hands at the derby at $1,500,000. There were 194 cashiers haling money at the mutual machines as fast as it was handed to them. A line of better stretching for almost a block was lined up before each of the mutual windows all afternoon.

HEAVY RAINFALL VISITS EUGENE
Rain visited Eugene again today, after a brief respite of sunshine, and during the morning, up to 2 o'clock this afternoon, the total precipitation was .23, or about a quarter of an inch.

The reading at 7:30 o'clock this morning, for the 24-hour period ending at that time, was .18, according to the records of Gerard M. deBrookert, United States weather observer.

Forecast is for unsettled weather this afternoon and evening, and probable showers on Sunday.

Electrical interference with a large number of radio sets last night led to inquiries as to whether an electrical storm, or lightning flashes in the vicinity of Eugene, had been reported. No such storm was recorded according to the weather man.

Mr. Rockefeller Gives Check to Abby for Trip

NEW YORK, May 16.—(AP)—A substantial check from John D. Rockefeller to Abby Rockefeller, his 21-year-old granddaughter, is the most appropriate present of the hundreds she received, is carried in her handbag by Mrs. David Meriwether Milton, who was Abby Rockefeller until last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton were up betimes today in getting ready to sail on the liner Paris. Since their marriage they have made their headquarters in an apartment in the Central Park district, which friends have loaned them.

'THE CREATION' IS PRESENTED WITH ENTIRE SUCCESS

"The Creation" is a great musical composition in which the genius of Joseph Haydn interprets the great theme of the first chapter of Genesis. Around this theme the worshipful thoughts of men have played through the long centuries. Poets have sung the story and artists have given it imaginative embodiment. But music can best express such a theme and carry the spirit of man in rhythmic transport to sublime heights beyond expression in the inadequate symbols of words.

The great oratorio was presented before a large audience last night by the recently formed Eugene Oratorio society at the Methodist church in a manner which deserves only praise. The society was also fortunate in the selection of the soloists for this production. Gage Christopher, basso, possesses a voice of great volume and wide range which is rich with a mellow warmth of tone very unusual. He is a singer with a rapidly growing fame which was altogether justified by his performance last night. His recitative voice was unusually good as he enunciates very clearly. His high spot was when he sang the air "Now Heaven in Full of Glory Shone" after which the audience burst into prolonged applause richly deserved.

From Los Angeles
William Pfeifer, tenor, like Mr. Christopher, came from Los Angeles to participate in this oratorio. He carried the role of Uriel in manner which leaves little room for criticism. His voice is smooth and sure and was adequate to every demand. He too received generous applause following his solo parts.

Jane Burns Albert, soprano, charmed all with her personality and entranced them with her singing. Her voice is wonderfully clear and sweet and rose to high notes with effortless ease. She had a real ovation after she sang the air "With Verdure Clad" in the first part of the oratorio and received an amount of flowers from friendly listeners. She was also remarkably effective in the trio.

Chorus Work Fine
But it was the chorus which after all secured perhaps the greatest triumph. If any criticism may be offered it is that the mighty volume of sound which rose at times wave on wave was too heavy, too tremendously powerful for the auditorium and this reflects no discredit on the chorus. John Stark Evans had reason to be proud of the result of his efforts as a director. There was power and harmony and responsiveness in the chorus. They sang a mighty theme with sympathetic understanding. At the end of the second part when the chorus rendered with mighty poise "Achieved is the Glorious Work" the height of their effort was reached. Many thought that, as interpreted last night, this piece of composition of Sweeth's Point. The explosion was followed by fire.

Aid is Offered Without Expenses or Fees, Says Telegram

NEW YORK, May 16.—(By the Associated Press)—Clarence Darrow, of Chicago, and Dudley Field Malone, of New York, today telegraphed Judge John Randolph Neal at Knoxville, Tenn., proffering their services as defense counsel for Professor Scopes, who is to be tried for teaching evolution in violation of the Tennessee law. The action was prompted, Mr. Malone said, by the offer of William Jennings Bryan to aid the prosecution.

The telegram made public by Mr. Malone follows: "We are certain you need no assistance in your defense of Professor Scopes, who is to be prosecuted for teaching evolution, but we have read the report that Mr. William Jennings Bryan has volunteered to aid the prosecution.

"In view of the fact that scientists are so much interested in the pursuit of knowledge that they cannot make the money that lecturers and Florida real estate agents command, in case you should need us, we are willing, without fees or expenses, to help the defense of Professor Scopes in any way you may suggest or direct."

Crops are Damaged By Short Hailstorm

Thousands of dollars damage to fruit and vegetables was caused in the Myrtle Point region this week by a short hailstorm of not more than 30 minutes' duration, it is reported by L. L. Graham, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific railroad, who returned today from a trip over the company's lines into Coos Bay.

The hail will damage the fruit crop approximately 25 per cent and the garden and grain crops at least 10 per cent, says Mr. Graham.

NINE NATIONS ARE ADVISED TO SETTLE UP

France, Italy, Roumania, Belgium and Greece Are Included.

War Debt Situation Has Gone on Long Enough, Says Communication

WASHINGTON, May 16.—(AP)—The American government has advised its European debtors that in its opinion the time has come for settlement. In a communication addressed to nine nations, it has expressed an earnest desire that the war debt question be brought to a solution without further delay.

The nations so notified are France, Italy, Belgium, Roumania, Greece, Czechoslovakia, Yugo-Slavia, Estonia and Latvia.

Acute Stage Passing. Disclaiming any intention to unduly press for payment where payment is impossible, the communication nevertheless reflects the view of Washington that the acute stage of the reconstruction period is passing, and that the debtor nations should be in a position to put their promises to pay into definite agreements.

The nations addressed made up the whole list of important war borrowers except for Russia, where there is no recognized government to which a notification could be addressed.

Delay is Opposed. For many months the administration has been under ever-increasing pressure from leaders in congress and others who oppose any longer delay in resolving the obligations of the borrowing nations into definite paper agreements to pay.

During this period France in particular, has made a succession of diplomatic gestures indicating that she would enter into discussions as some unnamed future date under specified conditions, but not one concrete proposal emerged from all the discussion. The debt commission, despite the repeated delays has adhered, until the present to the policy of awaiting proposals from abroad, taking the view that the debtors should have plenty of time to turn themselves around financially before they could properly be pressed for a settlement.

"She meant what she said. She'd show him a thing or two!" Lola Hough, with her tired, wrinkled face, might have to take such treatment patiently. But she, herself, didn't. Not for a minute! With her looks!

"Besides she knew she could manage Dick. He was helpless, because of his love for her."

"As soon as Dick had left for the office, Gloria put on her kimono and went downstairs. In the kitchen Maggie was singing "Mother Macree" as she washed dishes.

"Maggie," Gloria said politely, "I'd like you to plan all the meals while you're here, and order the food as well. Will that be too much extra work for you?"

Maggie considered. "Mrs. Gregory told me I was to come here to teach you to cook and keep house," she answered. "She always does her own marketing. And she can cook the grandest meals!" "I know," Gloria said, "but I'm different. I don't know a thing about
